SCHEDULE 2

Required methods of operation for the preparation of export eligible goods in export dedicated establishments

7. Cold stores must have chambers for storage of export eligible goods which are eligible for despatch abroad which can be locked under seal so that products cannot be added or removed without breaking the seal. (Lockable rails in chillers are not sufficient to comply with this requirement.)