

Sacrament Act 1547

1547 CHAPTER 11 Edw 6

<sup>F1</sup>VIII Primitive Mode of receiving the Sacrament; The Sacrament shall be administered in both Kinds, Bread and Wine, to the People: After Exhortations of the Priest, the Sacrament shall not be denied. Not condemning the Usage of other Churches .<sup>X1</sup>

And forasmuche as it is more agreable bothe to the first Institution of the saide Sacrament of the moste precious bodye and bloude of Savyour Jesus Christe, and also more conformable to the comen use and practise bothe of Thapostles and of the primitive Church by the space of Five hundred yeres and more after Christs assention that the saide blessed Sacrament shoulde be ministred to all Christen people under bothe the kyndes of Breade and Wyne, [<sup>X2</sup>then] under the forme of breade onelie; And also it is more agreable to the first Institution of Christe and to thusage of Thapostells and the primitive church that the people being present shoulde receive the same with the preist [<sup>X2</sup>then] that the Priest should receive it alone; Therefore be it enacted by our saide Souvarigne Lorde the King with the consent of the Lordes spirituall and temporall and the Commons in this present parliament assembled and by thauctoritie of the same, that the saide moste blessed sacrament be hereafter comenlie delivered and ministred unto the people, within this Church of Englande and Irelande and other the Kings Dominions, under bothe the Kyndes, that is to saie of breade and wyne, excepte necessitie otherwise require: And allso that the preist which shall ministre the same shall at the least one day before exhorte all persons which shalbe present likewise to resorte and prepare themselves to receive the same, and when the daie prefixed comethe after a godlie exhortacion by the Minister made, wherin shalbe further expressed the benefitt and comfote promised to them which worthelie receive the saide hollie Sacrament, and daunger and indignacion of God threatened to them which shall presume to receive the same unworthelie, to thende that everie man maye trye and examynn his owne conscience before he shall receive the same, the saide minister shall not without lauffull cawse denye the same to any parson that wool devoutelie and humblie desire it, anny lawe statute ordenance or custome contrarie therunto in any wise notwithstanding; not condemning hereby the usage of anny Church owt of the Kings Majesties Dominions.

---

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Sacrament Act 1547, Section VIII. (See end of Document for details)

---

---

Editorial Information

- X1 The Titles in the Table at the Head of the Roll, are not repeated to the Inrollment of every Act: but it has been thought convenient to print them with each Chapter.
- X2 Variant reading of the text noted in The Statutes of the Realm as follows: than O. [O. refers to a collection in the library of Trinity College, Cambridge]
-

Textual Amendments

- F1 S. 8 repealed (N.I.) by Statute Law Revision Act 1953 \(2 & 3 Eliz. 2 c. 5\), Sch. 1

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Sacrament Act 1547, Section VIII.