Agriculture (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1968

1968 CHAPTER 34

PART III

TERMINATION OF TENANCIES OF AGRICULTURAL HOLDINGS IN SCOTLAND ACQUIRED BY SUCCESSION

20 Interpretation of Part III.

(1) In this Part of this Act—

" amalgamation " means a transaction for securing that agricultural land which is comprised in a holding to which a notice to quit relates and which together with some other agricultural land could form an agricultural unit, shall be owned and occupied with that other land ; and

" the principal Scottish Act " means the Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 1949.

(2) Unless the context otherwise requires, expressions used in this Part of this Act and the principal Scottish Act have the same meanings in this Part of this Act as in that Act.
