Factories Act 1961

1961 CHAPTER 34

PART XI

ADMINISTRATION

149 Power of inspector to conduct proceedings

An inspector, if so authorised in writing under the hand of the Minister, may, although he is not of counsel, or a solicitor, prosecute, conduct or defend—

(a) before a magistrates' court in England or Wales, any information, complaint or other proceeding ;

(b) before a court of summary jurisdiction in Scotland, any complaint, summary application or other proceeding;

arising under this Act, or in the discharge of his duty as inspector.
