Parliamentary Elections (Ireland) Act 1823

1823 CHAPTER 55

XI Freeholds not to be registered, unless Instruments under which they arise be stamped.

Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Mayor and other Chief Magistrate or his Deputy, or the Justices of the Peace, Recorder or Deputy Recorder presiding at such Sessions, shall not allow any Person to register his Freehold by virtue of any written Instrument, unless the same be stamped according to Law; and the Clerk of the Peace shall state in every Certificate to be provided by him, as aforesaid, of the Registry of a Freehold registered by virtue of a written Instrument, as of the Value of Forty Shillings only, that the same was registered by virtue of a written Instrument stamped according to Law.
