1998 No. 1859

The Northern Ireland (Sentences) Act 1998 (Sentence Review Commissioners) Rules 1998

PART III

MAKING AN APPLICATION

Further papers

10.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Applicant may not supplement or add to the application papers, and the Respondent may not supplement or add to the response papers, after these have been served on the Commissioner, without the leave of the Commissioner granted by way of ancillary decision.

(2) Any document required or authorised by these Rules to be served by or on the Applicant shall be appended to and form part of the application papers and any document required or authorised by these Rules to be served by or on the Respondent shall be appended to and form part of the response papers.

(3) In relation to further applications, the parties may make reference to and the Commissioner may have regard to the application papers and response papers served in previous cases relating to the person concerned save that there shall be no disclosure of any damaging information thereby.
