Commission Decision of 19 April 2006 setting up a group of experts to provide policy advice to the Commission on fighting violent radicalisation (2006/299/EC)

Article 5

Meeting expenses

The Commission shall reimburse travel and, where appropriate, subsistence expenses for members, other experts and observers in connection with the group's activities in accordance with the Commission's internal rules on the compensation of external experts.

The members, or other experts and observers that might be invited from time to time, shall not be remunerated for their activities and duties.
