POWERS TO IMPROVE ENFORCEMENT PROCEDURES

Explanation of right of appeal

4. This paragraph confers power to provide that, where—

(a) an enforcement officer has taken enforcement action against any person; and

(b) the relevant enactment contains any provision conferring a right of appeal against such action, the officer shall as soon as practicable give to that person a written notice explaining how, where, within what period, and on what grounds, an appeal may be brought, and whether the enforcement action would be stayed while an appeal were pending.
