STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

1974 No. 1268

Social Security (Consequences of Emergency) (Northern Ireland) Order 1974

Suspension of normal benefits where emergency benefit is paid

3. Where emergency benefit is, or has before the commencement of this Order been, paid to or in respect of any person in respect of any period, that person shall not be entitled to any payment of supplementary benefit, unemployment benefit or sickness benefit in respect of that period, and any claim by or in respect of that person for supplementary benefit, unemployment benefit or sickness benefit in respect of that period shall be treated as, and shall be deemed to have been, a claim for emergency benefit.

Changes to legislation:
There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security (Consequences of Emergency) (Northern Ireland) Order 1974, Section 3.