SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2002 No. 255

The TSE (Scotland) Regulations 2002

Part III

Animal feeding

Approvals of premises

Appeals

21.—(1) Where in respect of any premises the Scottish Ministers have given notice of a decision under this Part of these Regulations–

(a) to refuse to approve any premises;

(b) to grant an approval of any premises subject to conditions;

(c) to suspend the approval of any premises; or

(d) to withdraw the approval of any premises,

the person to whom the notice is given may, within 21 days of being notified of the decision, appeal against the decision to the person specified in the notice.

(2) An appeal under this regulation shall be made by written statement given to the person specified in the notice accompanied by a brief explanation of the ground of the appeal and such other information and documents as the notice may specify.

(3) Where on an appeal under this regulation the person hearing the appeal determines that–

(a) the grant of an approval should not have been refused;

(b) unreasonable conditions have been attached to the grant of an approval; or

(c) an approval should not have been suspended or withdrawn,

the Scottish Ministers shall give effect to that determination.
