Naval Discipline Act 1957

1957 CHAPTER 53

PART I

ARTICLES OF WAR

Insubordination and similar offences

13 Fighting and quarrelling

Every person subject to this Act who—

(a) fights or quarrels with any other person, whether subject to this Act or not; or

(b) uses threatening, abusive, insulting or provocative words or behaviour likely to cause a disturbance, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or any less punishment authorised by this Act.