Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE

PART III

Amendments of the Education (Scotland) (War Service Superannuation) Act, 1939.

2 Where a person who is in war service immediately before the end of the present emergency continues in the same service either with the consent of the education authority, governing body or other body of managers by whom he was employed immediately before undertaking war service or in pursuance of a legal obligation so to do arising otherwise than by reason of his voluntary continuance of his service, the said service continued as aforesaid shall all be treated as war service for the purposes of the Act.