2015 No. 421

The Magistrates' Courts (Injunctions: Gang-related Violence) Rules 2015

Applications for injunctions

3.—(1) An application to a youth court for an injunction must—

(a) state the name, address and date of birth of the respondent;

(b) state the name and address of a parent or guardian of the respondent;

(c) be supported by evidence of the matters of which the court must be satisfied for the first and second conditions under section 34 to be met;

(d) state the terms of the injunction applied for; and

(e) in the case of an application made on notice, include a statement that the consultation requirement has been complied with.

(2) If an application without notice is made by virtue of section 39, the application must also state the reasons why it is necessary for the application to be made without notice having been given.

(3) In the case of an application made on notice, a copy of the application must be served by the applicant on—

(a) the respondent personally; and

(b) the parent or guardian mentioned in paragraph (2)(b) personally, or by posting it to or leaving it at that parent or guardian's address.
