- (2) But those sections do not apply to a direction that provides only for the revocation of an earlier direction (see section 46).

42 Proposed notices and directions: requirement to give warning notice

- (1) If HEFCW propose to give a governing body a notice or direction to which this section applies, HEFCW must give the governing body a warning notice.

- (3) In deciding whether to give the notice or direction, HEFCW must take into account any representations made by the governing body in accordance with the warning notice.
- (4) If, having taken those representations into account, HEFCW decide not to give the notice or direction, they must give the governing body notice of that decision.

43 Information to be given with notices and directions

If HEFCW give a governing body a notice or direction to which this section applies, they must at the same time give the governing body a statement—

- (b) informing the governing body that it may apply for a review of the notice or direction under section 44, and
- (c) including any other prescribed information.

44 Review of notices and directions

- (1) If HEFCW give a governing body a notice or direction to which this section applies, the governing body may (subject to any provision made as described in subsection (4) (a)) apply for a review of the notice or direction.
- (2) A review is to be carried out by a person, or a panel of persons, appointed by the Welsh Ministers; and the Welsh Ministers may pay remuneration and allowances to persons appointed under this subsection.
- (3) The Welsh Ministers must by regulations make provision in connection with reviews under this section.
- (4) The regulations may, among other things, make provision—

  - (c) about the procedure to be followed by a person or panel carrying out a review;
  - (d) about steps to be taken by HEFCW following a review;
  - (e) for a notice or direction to which this section applies not to be treated as having been given until any steps specified in the regulations have been taken, or until any period specified in the regulations has expired.
