The European Cooperative Society Regulations 2006

PART 3

Formation, registration, structure and proceedings of an SCE

Registration of SCEs

Registration

10.—(1) The competent authority must register an SCE if it is satisfied that—

(a) the requirements for the formation and registration of the SCE have been met; or

(b) the requirements for the transfer of the SCE's registered office to the United Kingdom have been met.

(2) The competent authority may accept a statutory declaration made in accordance with regulation 9(1)(c) as sufficient evidence that the requirements—

(a) in the case of the formation of an SCE, referred to in regulation 9(3)(a);

(b) in the case of the transfer of a registered office, referred to in regulation 9(3)(b), are satisfied.
