

Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016

2016 anaw 1

PART 10

MISCELLANEOUS

CHAPTER 3

TENANCIES AND LICENCES EXISTING BEFORE COMMENCEMENT OF THIS CHAPTER

240 Conversion of tenancies and licences existing before commencement of Chapter

- (1) For the purposes of determining the matters in subsection (2), a tenancy or licence which existed immediately before the appointed day is to be treated as if it were made on the appointed day.
- (2) The matters are—
 - (a) whether the tenancy or licence is an occupation contract,
 - (b) the identity of the contract-holders under the contract, and
 - (c) whether the contract is a secure contract or a standard contract.
- (3) Subsections (4) to (7) apply to a tenancy or licence which becomes an occupation contract on the appointed day.
- (4) The fundamental provisions applicable to the contract are incorporated as terms of the contract.
- (5) The existing terms of the contract continue to have effect, except to the extent that they—
 - (a) are incompatible with a fundamental provision incorporated as a term of the contract, or
 - (b) are terms of the contract because of an enactment repealed or revoked under this Act.

- (6) The supplementary provisions applicable to the contract are incorporated as terms of the contract, except to the extent that they are incompatible with the existing terms of the contract.
- (7) This section is subject to Schedule 12 (which makes further provision about existing tenancies and licences, modifies the application of this Act, and includes a fundamental provision incorporated into certain standard contracts).
