

Criminal Justice Act (Northern Ireland) 1945

1945 CHAPTER 15

PART I

JURISDICTION AND PROCEDURE

CASES STATED

11 Suspension of sentence on appeal by case stated.

Where a person who has been sentenced to imprisonment appeals by case stated ...^{F1} under Part VII^{F2} of the Act of 1935, the time during which, in consequence of such appeal, he is not detained in custody shall not, unless the Court for whose opinion such a case is stated (in this section referred to as “the Superior Court”) otherwise direct, count as part of any term of imprisonment to which he has been sentenced and any such term shall, unless the Superior Court otherwise direct, be deemed to be resumed or begin to run, as the case requires, as from the day on which he is received into prison under the sentence after the determination by the Superior Court of the question or questions raised by the case stated.
