

Lands Tribunal and Compensation Act (Northern Ireland) 1964

1964 CHAPTER 29

PART I

LANDS TRIBUNAL

8 Procedure, appeals and costs.

- (1) The jurisdiction of the Lands Tribunal may be exercised by any one or more than one of its members and references to the Lands Tribunal shall be construed accordingly.
- (2) Where the Lands Tribunal consists of more than one member, the member or members who is or are to deal with any case shall be selected by the President.
- (3) Where at any time before giving a decision in any proceedings being heard by him a member of the Lands Tribunal is of opinion that the proceedings should be heard and determined by him with another member or other members of the Tribunal, such proceedings may be adjourned and the adjourned proceedings shall be heard, or re-heard, and determined by such member or members as may be selected by the President.
- (4) Where a case is dealt with by two or more members of the Lands Tribunal—
 - (a) if the President is one of them he shall preside at the hearing and, if he is not, he shall nominate one of them to preside at the hearing;
 - (b) a decision shall be taken, in the event of a difference between the members dealing with the case, by the votes of the majority, and, in the event of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the hearing shall have a second or casting vote.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6) a decision of the Lands Tribunal shall be final.
- (6) ^{F1} Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Lands Tribunal as being erroneous on a point of law may require the Lands Tribunal to state and sign a case for the decision of the Court of Appeal and, where the decision of the Lands Tribunal is given on a review
