

Marketing of Potatoes Act (Northern Ireland) 1964

1964 CHAPTER 8

Ss. 1, 2 rep. by 1997 NI 22

3 Inspection of^[F1] ware potatoes^[F1] being sent out of Northern Ireland. N.I.

(1) A person shall not either by himself or by any servant or agent of his send or attempt to send any^[F1] ware potatoes^[F1] out of Northern Ireland^[F1] to a relevant destination^[F1] unless—

- (a) the^[F1] ware potatoes^[F1] have been presented to an authorised officer for inspection at such convenient place and at such convenient time as the Ministry may from time to time appoint;
- (b) the^[F1] ware potatoes^[F1] have been inspected [^{F2} by sample or otherwise] by an authorised officer and a certificate has been issued by him to the effect that the^[F1] ware potatoes^[F1] have been inspected by him, are of the prescribed standard of quality and have been graded, packed and labelled in the prescribed manner; and
- (c) the^[F1] ware potatoes^[F1] are, for the period during which they remain in Northern Ireland after being inspected under paragraph (b), accompanied by the certificate issued under that paragraph.

(2) A certificate of an authorised officer for the purposes of subsection (1) shall be valid for such period as shall be specified therein but an authorised officer may inspect [^{F2} by sample or otherwise] any^[F1] ware potatoes^[F1] previously inspected under subsection (1) and may cancel any certificate relating to such^[F1] ware potatoes^[F1] if he is satisfied that the quality, grading, packing or labelling of the^[F1] ware potatoes^[F1] [^{F3} does not] conform to the prescribed standards.

^F1 A person shall not either by himself or by any servant or agent of his send or attempt to send any ware potatoes out of Northern Ireland to a destination which is in the United Kingdom or in any other Member State unless the potatoes are of the prescribed standard of quality and have been graded, packed and labelled in the prescribed manner.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Marketing of Potatoes Act (Northern Ireland) 1964. (See end of Document for details)

(2B) The Department may, if so requested by any person, make arrangements for ware potatoes intended to be sent out of Northern Ireland to a destination which is in the United Kingdom or in any other Member State to be presented, inspected and (where appropriate) certified under subsection (1) as if they were intended to be sent out of Northern Ireland to a relevant destination.]

^{F1}(3) There shall be payable to the Ministry, in respect of an inspection of [^{F1} ware potatoes]^{F1} for the purposes of this section, a fee of such amount, calculated in such manner and payable at such time and by such person as may, with the approval of the Ministry of Finance, be prescribed.

6 Detention and seizure of potatoes. N.I.

- (1) An authorised officer or a constable may seize and may detain in custody any potatoes which are being or which are suspected by such an officer or constable of being, sent out of Northern Ireland in contravention of any provision of this Act or regulation made thereunder^{F5}....
- (2) Where any person detains potatoes in his custody under this section, he shall, as soon as possible, either—
 - (a) release the potatoes; or

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Marketing of Potatoes Act (Northern Ireland) 1964. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) [^{F6} keep possession of or sell the potatoes and] take such steps as may be proper to have dealt with according to the law the person believed to be guilty of the offence committed, or believed to have been committed, in relation to the potatoes and
- ^{F7}(i) where a person is convicted in respect of such a contravention or breach as is mentioned in subsection (1), the potatoes shall be forfeited and become the property of the Department which may dispose of them in such manner as it thinks fit or if the potatoes have been sold, the proceeds of the sale shall become the property of the Department; or
- (ii) where a person is not so convicted, the potatoes shall be released or, if the potatoes have been sold, the proceeds of the sale shall be paid to the person who was deprived of the ownership of the potatoes and no further liability shall be incurred by reason of the detention or sale.]
- (3) Potatoes released under subsection (2) shall be delivered to the consignor at the place of detention or, if an authorised officer agrees, at such other place within Northern Ireland as the consignor elects and, if the consignor fails to take delivery at such place within such reasonable time as may be specified by the authorised officer, shall be sold and the proceeds, less any expenses incurred by the Ministry or a constable in connection with such seizure, detention or sale, shall be paid to the consignor.
