SCHEDULE 5

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

- 5 Where, before the coming into operation of Schedule 1 to the Factories Act (Northern Ireland) 1959 (that is to say the 1st December 1962) a certificate was issued under section 35 of the Factories Act (Northern Ireland) 1938 with respect to such a factory as is mentioned in paragraph 1 of Schedule 2 to this Act, but—
- (a) neither the certificate nor a copy thereof was issued to the owner of the building in which the factory is comprised; or
 - (b) neither the certificate nor a copy thereof or of the relevant part thereof was issued to the occupier of the factory;
- the council or fire authority by whom the certificate was issued shall, at his request, send him a copy thereof or, as the case may be, of the relevant part thereof; and the owner may, in the case of any such certificate, comply with the requirement as to its registration by attaching a copy thereof to the register mentioned in paragraph 8(c) of Schedule 2 to this Act.
