

Land Development Values (Compensation) Act (Northern Ireland) 1965

1965 CHAPTER 23

PART IV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

S. 32 rep. by 2001 c. 2 (NI)

<sup>F1</sup>33 Calculation of value.

(1 <sup>F2</sup> In calculating the value of a compensatable estate in and for<sup>F3</sup> the purposes of section 26]

- (a) subject to subsection (2), rules (2) to (4) of the rules set out in<sup>F4</sup> Article 6(1) of the Land Compensation (Northern Ireland) Order 1982] shall, so far as applicable have effect as they have effect for the purpose of assessing compensation for the compulsory purchase of land; and
- (b) if a compensatable estate to be valued is mortgaged, it shall be treated as if the mortgage had been discharged.

Subs. (2) rep. by 2001 c. 2 (NI)

(3) Where, for the purposes of<sup>F3</sup> section 26]

- (a) value falls to be calculated by reference to the duration of a tenancy; and
- (b) by reason of any option or other contractual right with respect to the determination, renewal or continuance of the tenancy the date of expiry of the tenancy is not ascertainable with certainty; that date shall be taken to be such as appears reasonable and probable having regard to the interests of the party by whom the option is exercisable, or in whose favour the right operates, and to any other material considerations subsisting at the time when the calculation of value falls to be made.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Development Values (Compensation) Act (Northern Ireland) 1965, PART IV. (See end of Document for details)

Ss. 34#36 rep. by 1972 NI 17

- (1) Section 24 shall have effect in relation to any compensation to which this section applies in like manner as it has effect in relation to compensation payable under Part II with the substitution for the reference in subsection (1)( a) to any person who claims any part of compensation exceeding fifty pounds which becomes payable under Part II of a reference to any person who is entitled to an estate in the land in question, being a person who appears to the Ministry to be substantially affected by the registration of a notice under that section as applied by this section.
- (2) This section applies to any compensation which has been paid or is payable under section 6(4) of the Act of 1944 after 25th February 1963 in relation to the refusal or grant subject to conditions of planning permission for any new development or the revocation or modification by an order under section 3 of the Act of 1944 of planning permission for any new development.
- (3) Where section 24 has effect in relation to any compensation to which this section applies, any person who is entitled to an estate in any relevant land may, if he has acquired that estate in the land after the date of the decision or order in respect of which the compensation in question has been paid or is payable but before the date of passing of this Act, make an application to the Ministry claiming—
  - (a) that the consideration which he furnished in order to acquire his estate or the obligations which he has incurred by virtue of acquiring the estate, are greater than they might reasonably be expected to have been if the notice had been registered in the Statutory Charges Register before the date on which he entered into the contract to acquire that estate; or
  - (b) if he has not furnished any consideration in order to acquire his estate, that any consideration furnished after the date of that decision or order by any person from whom he derived his estate is greater than it might reasonably be expected to have been if the notice had been registered in the Statutory Charges Register before the date on which the person from whom his estate is derived entered into the contract to acquire the estate from which the claimant derives his estate.
- (4) Where a person makes an application to the Ministry under subsection (3), the Ministry shall consider the matters referred to in the application, and may if it thinks fit either cancel the notice or serve on him a notice specifying therein such lesser amount as the Ministry considers to be appropriate in lieu of the amount specified in the first notice, and section 24 shall, subject to any necessary modifications, have effect in relation to any notice served under this subsection as it has effect in relation to a notice served under that section.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Land Development Values (Compensation) Act (Northern Ireland) 1965, PART IV. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) Where any dispute arises under subsection (4) as to the cancellation or service of a notice, it shall be referred to the Lands Tribunal for determination.

Subs. (6) rep. by 2001 c. 2 (NI)

- (7) In this section “relevant land” means any land in respect of which a notice is served under section 24 as applied by this section.

(2) Where under this Act any statutory provision (including any section or other division of this Act) is applied for any of the purposes of this Act, that statutory provision shall be construed so that its application for those purposes is grammatical and effective.

(3) For the purposes of this Act—

(a) where a compensatable estate in any land is mortgaged; and

(b) but for this subsection, any person entitled to an equity of redemption in relation to that compensatable estate would not be entitled to a compensatable estate in that land;

that person shall be taken to be entitled to the compensatable estate in the land to which he would be entitled if he redeemed the mortgage.

(4) For the purposes of this Act, where a compensatable estate in land is vested in any beneficiaries under a settlement, the interests vested in the beneficiaries shall be taken to constitute the compensatable estate which would exist if those interests were vested in one person and constituted one interest; and the beneficiaries shall<sup>F13</sup>. . . be taken to be entitled to that interest.

(5) Any reference in this Act to a contract is a reference to a contract in writing, or a contract of which a memorandum or note thereof in writing has been made and signed by the parties thereto or by some other person or persons authorised by them in that behalf, and, in relation to a compensatable estate in land conveyed or assigned without a preliminary contract, is a reference to the conveyance or assignment; and any reference to the making of a contract is a reference to the signing thereof or (if it was not in writing) to the signing of the memorandum or note thereof.

(6) Where—

- (a) under any provision of this Act, a document or notice is required to be served on a person entitled to an estate in any land; and
- (b) it is not practicable, after reasonable inquiry, to ascertain the name or address of any such person;

that document or notice shall be taken to have been duly served if it is addressed to that person by his name, if known to the Ministry, or if his name is not so known, if it is addressed to “all persons entitled to an estate” in the land (describing it) and in either case by delivering the document or notice to some responsible person on the land or, if there is no such person on the land to whom it may be delivered, by affixing the document or notice or a copy thereof so addressed to a conspicuous object on the land.

(7) Where under any provision of this Act the value of an estate in any land is required to be assessed on the assumption that planning permission would be granted for development other than new development that assumption shall be made on the footing that any such development must comply with the provisions of any statutory provision, other than the Planning Acts (Northern Ireland) 1931<sup>F25</sup> and 1944<sup>F25</sup>, which would be applicable thereto.

(8) In the application of this Act to registered land in respect of which a charge for the payment of a principal sum has been created under section 40<sup>F26</sup> of the Local Registration of Title (Ireland) Act 1891

- (a) any reference to a mortgage shall be construed as a reference to the charge;
- (b) any reference to a mortgagee shall be construed as a reference to the registered owner of the charge.
