Scottish Public Services Ombudsman Act 2002 2002 asp 11

The Bill for this Act of the Scottish Parliament was passed by the Parliament on 21st March 2002 and received Royal Assent on 23rd April 2002

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to make provision (including provision for the purposes of section 91 of the Scotland Act 1998) for the appointment and functions of the Scottish Public Services Ombudsman; and for connected purposes.

The Scottish Public Services Ombudsman

1 The Scottish Public Services Ombudsman

- (1) For the purposes of this Act there is to be an officer known as the Scottish Public Services Ombudsman (in this Act referred to as the “Ombudsman”) who is to be an individual appointed by Her Majesty on the nomination of the Scottish Parliament.
- (2) Her Majesty may, on the nomination of the Parliament, appoint individuals to be deputy Scottish Public Services Ombudsmen; and in this Act references to a deputy Ombudsman are to any such deputy.
- (3) There are to be no more than three deputy Ombudsmen at any time.
- (4) The Ombudsman’s functions may be exercised by a deputy Ombudsman if—
 - (a) the office of Ombudsman is vacant (unless there is an acting Ombudsman appointed under paragraph 5(1) of schedule 1), or
 - (b) the Ombudsman is for any reason unable to act,and while exercising those functions the deputy Ombudsman is to be treated for all purposes, except those of paragraphs 3(a), 4, 7 and 8 of schedule 1, as the Ombudsman.
- (5) Schedule 1 makes further provision about the appointment, status, etc. of the Ombudsman and deputy Ombudsmen and about other administrative matters in connection with those officers.

Investigations by the Ombudsman

2 Power of investigation

- (1) The Ombudsman may investigate any matter, whenever arising, if—

- (a) the matter consists of action taken by or on behalf of a person liable to investigation under this Act,
 - (b) the matter is one which the Ombudsman is entitled to investigate, and
 - (c) a complaint in respect of the matter has been duly made to the Ombudsman.
- (2) The Ombudsman may investigate any matter, whenever arising, if—
- (a) paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) are satisfied, and
 - (b) the person liable to investigation has requested the Ombudsman to investigate the matter.
- (3) Without prejudice to paragraph 2(2) of schedule 1, it is for the Ombudsman to decide whether to initiate, continue or discontinue an investigation under subsection (1) or (2).
- (4) The Ombudsman may take such action in connection with the complaint or request as the Ombudsman thinks may be of assistance in reaching any such decision.
- (5) Such action may, in particular, include action with a view to resolving the complaint or request.

3 Persons liable to investigation

- (1) The persons liable to investigation under this Act are the persons specified, or of a class specified, in Parts 1 and 2 of schedule 2; and references in this Act to a listed authority are references to any such person.
- (2) Her Majesty may by Order in Council amend Part 2 of that schedule so as to—
- (a) modify any entry in it,
 - (b) remove any entry from it, or
 - (c) subject to subsections (3) to (6) and section 4, add any entry to it.
- (3) An entry may be added to that Part of that schedule only if the entry relates to a person who, or a class of persons each of whom, is—
- (a) a Scottish public authority with mixed functions or no reserved functions,
 - (b) a publicly-owned company, or
 - (c) a person who is neither a Scottish public authority nor a publicly-owned company but who appears to Her Majesty to exercise functions of a public nature.
- (4) An Order in Council under subsection (2) adding an entry to that Part of that schedule in pursuance of subsection (3)(c)—
- (a) may provide for this Act to apply to any person to whom, or falling within any class of persons to which, the entry relates subject to such modifications or exceptions as may be specified in the Order in Council, and
 - (b) must, in relation to each such person or class of person, specify the functions of a public nature which appear to be exercised by that person or, as the case may be, persons of that class.
- (5) No recommendation to make an Order in Council referred to in subsection (4) is to be made to Her Majesty in Council unless every person to whom the Order relates has been consulted.
- (6) No entry is to be added to Part 2 of schedule 2 in relation to—

- (a) a person whose sole activity is, or whose main activities are—
 - (i) the provision of education, or the provision of training otherwise than under the Industrial Training Act 1982 (c.10),
 - (ii) the development of curricula, the conduct of examinations or the validation of educational courses,
 - (iii) the control of entry to any profession or the regulation of the conduct of members of any profession, or
 - (iv) the investigation of complaints by members of the public regarding the actions of any person or the supervision or review of such investigations or of steps taken following them, or
- (b) a person operating in an exclusively or predominantly commercial manner or a person carrying on under national ownership an industry or undertaking or part of an industry or undertaking.

4 Persons liable to investigation: supplementary

- (1) A person is a publicly-owned company for the purposes of section 3(3) if that person is a company wholly owned by the Scottish Ministers or by any listed authority.
- (2) A company is wholly owned—
 - (a) by the Scottish Ministers if it has no members except—
 - (i) the Scottish Ministers or companies wholly owned by the Scottish Ministers, or
 - (ii) persons acting on behalf of the Scottish Ministers or of such companies,
 - (b) by a listed authority if it has no members except—
 - (i) the authority or companies wholly owned by the authority, or
 - (ii) persons acting on behalf of the authority or of such companies.
- (3) In subsections (1) and (2), “company” includes any body corporate.

5 Matters which may be investigated

- (1) The matters which the Ombudsman is entitled to investigate are—
 - (a) in relation to a listed authority other than one to whom paragraph (b), (d) or (e) applies, any action taken by or behalf of the authority (other than action consisting of a service failure) in the exercise of administrative functions of the authority,
 - (b) in relation to a health service body or an independent provider, any action taken by or on behalf of the body or provider (other than action consisting of a service failure),
 - (c) in relation to a listed authority other than one to whom paragraph (d) or (e) applies, any service failure,
 - (d) in relation to a family health service provider, any action taken by or on behalf of the provider in connection with any family health services provided by that provider,
 - (e) in relation to a registered social landlord, any action taken by or on behalf of the landlord.

- (2) In subsection (1), “service failure”, in relation to a listed authority, means—
- (a) any failure in a service provided by the authority,
 - (b) any failure of the authority to provide a service which it was a function of the authority to provide.
- (3) The Ombudsman may investigate a matter falling within subsection (1) pursuant to a complaint only if a member of the public claims to have sustained injustice or hardship in consequence of—
- (a) where the matter is such action as is mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (e) of that subsection, maladministration in connection with the action in question,
 - (b) where the matter is such failure or other action as is mentioned in paragraph (c) or (d), the failure or other action in question.
- (4) A person making such a claim is referred to in this Act as the “person aggrieved”.
- (5) The Ombudsman may investigate a matter falling within subsection (1) pursuant to a request only if the Ombudsman is satisfied that—
- (a) it has been alleged publicly (whether or not by a person aggrieved) that one or more members of the public have sustained injustice or hardship as mentioned in subsection (3), and
 - (b) the listed authority in question has taken all reasonable steps to deal with the matter to which the allegation relates.
- (6) In this section “member of the public” means any individual or body of persons (whether incorporated or not) other than—
- (a) the Parliamentary corporation,
 - (b) a local authority or other authority or body constituted for purposes of the public service or of local government,
 - (c) an authority or body constituted for the purposes of carrying on under national ownership an industry or undertaking or part of an industry or undertaking,
 - (d) any other authority or body—
 - (i) whose members are appointed by Her Majesty or by any Minister of the Crown or government department or by a member of the Scottish Executive, or
 - (ii) whose revenues consist wholly or mainly of money provided by the Parliament of the United Kingdom or sums payable out of the Scottish Consolidated Fund (whether directly or indirectly).
- (7) This section is subject to sections 6 to 8.

6 Application of section 5 to certain tribunals

- (1) For the purposes of section 5, administrative functions exercisable by any person appointed as a member of the administrative staff of any tribunal specified in schedule 3—
- (a) by a listed authority (whether alone or jointly with any other person), or
 - (b) with the consent (whether as to remuneration and other terms and conditions of service or otherwise) of a listed authority, are to be taken to be administrative functions of that authority.

- (2) Her Majesty may by Order in Council amend schedule 3 so as to—
 - (a) modify any entry in it,
 - (b) remove any entry from it, or
 - (c) add any entry to it.

7 Matters which may be investigated: restrictions

- (1) The Ombudsman is not entitled to question the merits of a decision taken without maladministration by or on behalf of a listed authority in the exercise of a discretion vested in that authority.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the merits of a decision taken by or on behalf of a health service body, a family health service provider or an independent provider to the extent that the decision was taken in consequence of the exercise of clinical judgement.
- (3) The Ombudsman must not investigate action taken by or on behalf of a member of the Scottish Executive unless the action was taken in the exercise of functions conferred on the Scottish Ministers or of functions conferred on the First Minister alone.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), functions conferred on the Scottish Ministers include functions exercised by them on behalf of a Minister of the Crown or government department by virtue of section 93 (agency arrangements) of the Scotland Act 1998 (c.46).
- (5) The Ombudsman must not investigate action taken—
 - (a) by or on behalf of a listed authority which is a cross-border public authority, or
 - (b) by a member of the administrative staff of any tribunal specified in schedule 3 which is a cross-border public authority,unless the action taken concerned Scotland and did not relate to reserved matters.
- (6) The Ombudsman must not investigate action taken by or on behalf of an independent provider unless the action—
 - (a) was taken in relation to, or
 - (b) consisted of a failure in, or to provide,a service which the independent provider was providing, or which it was the independent provider's function to provide, under arrangements with a health service body or a family health service provider.
- (7) The Ombudsman must not investigate action taken by or on behalf of a person who is a listed authority by virtue of an Order in Council referred to in subsection (4) of section 3 unless the action was taken in the exercise of the functions of a public nature which are specified in the Order in Council in pursuance of paragraph (b) of that subsection.
- (8) The Ombudsman must not investigate any matter in respect of which the person aggrieved has or had—
 - (a) a right of appeal to a Minister of the Crown or the Scottish Ministers,
 - (b) a right of appeal, reference or review to or before any tribunal constituted by or under any enactment or by virtue of Her Majesty's prerogative, or
 - (c) a remedy by way of proceedings in any court of law, unless the Ombudsman is satisfied that, in the particular circumstances, it is not reasonable to expect the person aggrieved to resort or have resorted to the right or remedy.

- (9) Subsection (10) applies where a matter in respect of which a complaint is made under this Act—
- (a) is a matter in respect of which a complaint can be made, or a review can be requested, by the person aggrieved under a procedure operated by any listed authority (whether or not the listed authority in relation to whom the complaint under this Act is made), and
 - (b) is not a matter of the kind mentioned in subsection (8) or paragraph 12 of schedule 4.
- (10) In such a case, the Ombudsman must not investigate the matter unless the Ombudsman is satisfied that—
- (a) the other procedure has been invoked and exhausted, or
 - (b) in the particular circumstances it is not reasonable to expect the procedure to be invoked or, as the case may be, exhausted.

8 Excluded matters

- (1) The Ombudsman must not investigate any matter specified in schedule 4.
- (2) Her Majesty may by Order in Council amend schedule 4 so as to—
- (a) modify any entry in it,
 - (b) remove any entry from it,
 - (c) add any entry to it.
- (3) Nothing in section 7 or schedule 4 prevents the Ombudsman conducting an investigation in respect of action taken by a listed authority in operating a procedure established to examine complaints or review decisions.

9 Complaints: who may complain

- (1) A complaint may be made to the Ombudsman—
- (a) by the person aggrieved, or
 - (b) by a person authorised in writing for the purpose by the person aggrieved.
- (2) The persons who may be authorised for the purpose of subsection (1)(b) include, in particular—
- (a) a member of the Scottish Parliament,
 - (b) a listed authority,
 - (c) a member, officer or member of staff of a listed authority.
- (3) Despite subsection (1)—
- (a) where an individual by whom a complaint might have been made has died or is for any reason unable to act, the complaint may be made by—
 - (i) any person authorised for the purpose of subsection (1)(b) before the individual's death or inability to act,

- (ii) the individual's personal representatives or a member of the individual's family, or
 - (iii) any other person suitable to represent the individual,
- (b) where a body by whom a complaint might have been made is for any reason unable to act for itself, the complaint may be made by another person suitable to represent it.
- (4) Except where subsection (5) applies, the person aggrieved must be resident in the United Kingdom at the time the complaint is made (or, if the person has died, must have been so resident at the time of death).
- (5) This subsection applies where the complaint relates to action taken—
 - (a) in relation to the person while the person was present—
 - (i) in the United Kingdom, or
 - (ii) on an installation in a designated area within the meaning of the Continental Shelf Act 1964 (c.29), a ship registered in the United Kingdom or an aircraft so registered, or
 - (b) in relation to rights or obligations which accrued or arose in the United Kingdom or on such an installation, ship or aircraft.

10 Complaints: time limits and procedure

- (1) The Ombudsman must not consider a complaint made more than 12 months after the day on which the person aggrieved first had notice of the matter complained of, unless the Ombudsman is satisfied that there are special circumstances which make it appropriate to consider a complaint made outwith that period.
- (2) The Ombudsman must not consider a complaint if—
 - (a) the matter complained of consists of such failure or other action as is mentioned in section 5(1)(b) to (d) taken by or on behalf of a person who was, at the time of the action, a family health service provider or an independent provider but who has since ceased to be such a provider, and
 - (b) the complaint is made more than 3 years after the last day on which the person was such a provider.
- (3) A complaint must be made in writing or electronically unless the Ombudsman is satisfied that there are special circumstances which make it appropriate to consider a complaint made orally.
- (4) It is for the Ombudsman to determine whether a complaint has been duly made.

11 Decisions not to investigate

- (1) If the Ombudsman, after considering a complaint, decides not to conduct an investigation pursuant to the complaint, the Ombudsman must send a statement of the reasons for the decision to the persons specified in subsection (2).
- (2) Those persons are—
 - (a) the person aggrieved,
 - (b) the listed authority in question,

- (c) any other person who is alleged in the complaint to have taken the action complained of,
 - (d) if the complaint was made by a person authorised for the purpose of subsection (1)(b) of section 9, that person,
 - (e) if the complaint was made by a person other than the person aggrieved by virtue of subsection (3) of that section, that other person,
 - (f) if the listed authority is a family health service provider, any health service body with whom that provider—
 - (i) is subject to an undertaking to provide family health services, or
 - (ii) has agreed to perform such services, (as the case may be), and
 - (g) if the listed authority is an independent provider, the health service body or family health service provider with whom the independent provider made the arrangement to provide the service concerned.
- (3) Where a person referred to in subsection (2)(d) was authorised for the purpose of section 9(1)(b) in a particular capacity but no longer acts in that capacity, the Ombudsman must send the statement of reasons instead to such other person acting in that or a similar capacity as the Ombudsman thinks fit.
- (4) If the Ombudsman, after considering a request, decides not to conduct an investigation pursuant to the request, the Ombudsman must send a statement of the reasons for the decision to—
- (a) the listed authority who made the request,
 - (b) if the listed authority is a family health service provider, any health service body with whom that provider is subject to an undertaking to provide family health services, and
 - (c) if the listed authority is an independent provider, the health service body or family health service provider with whom the independent provider made the arrangement to provide the service concerned.

12 Investigation procedure

- (1) An investigation under section 2 must be conducted in private.
- (2) Where the investigation is pursuant to a complaint, the Ombudsman must give—
 - (a) the listed authority in question, and
 - (b) any other person who is alleged in the complaint to have taken the action complained of, an opportunity to comment on any allegations contained in the complaint.
- (3) In other respects the procedure for conducting the investigation is to be such as the Ombudsman thinks fit.
- (4) The Ombudsman may, in particular—
 - (a) obtain information from such persons and in such manner, and make such inquiries, as the Ombudsman thinks fit,

- (b) determine whether any person may be represented, by counsel or solicitor or otherwise, in the investigation.
- (5) The Ombudsman may pay to—
- (a) the person by whom the complaint was made (where an investigation is pursuant to a complaint), and
 - (b) any other person who attends or supplies information for the purposes of an investigation (whether or not pursuant to a complaint),
- such allowances in respect of expenses properly incurred by the person and by way of compensation for loss of time as the Parliamentary corporation may determine.
- (6) The conduct of an investigation does not affect—
- (a) any action taken by the listed authority in question,
 - (b) any power or duty of the listed authority to take further action with respect to any matter being investigated.

13 Evidence

- (1) For the purposes of an investigation, the Ombudsman may require the listed authority in question and any of the persons mentioned in subsection (2) to supply information or produce documents relevant to the investigation.
- (2) Those persons are—
- (a) any member, officer or member of staff of the listed authority, and
 - (b) any other person,
- who in the Ombudsman's opinion is able to supply such information or to produce such documents.
- (3) Where the listed authority in question is an office-holder in the Scottish Administration, the persons referred to in subsection (2)(a) include, in particular—
- (a) any other office-holder in the Scottish Administration,
 - (b) any member of the staff of the Scottish Administration assigned to assist the office-holder under investigation in the exercise of the office-holder's functions.
- (4) For the purposes of any such investigation the Ombudsman has the same powers as the Court of Session in respect of—
- (a) the attendance and examination of witnesses (including the administration of oaths and the examination of witnesses abroad), and
 - (b) the production of documents.
- (5) No obligation to maintain secrecy or other restriction on the disclosure of information obtained by or supplied to persons in Her Majesty's service, whether imposed by any enactment or by any rule of law, applies to the disclosure of information for the purposes of an investigation by the Ombudsman.
- (6) The Crown (whether in right of Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom or in right of the Scottish Administration) is not entitled in relation to any investigation by the Ombudsman to any such privilege in respect of the production of documents or the giving of evidence as is allowed by law in legal proceedings.

- (7) No person is or may be required or authorised by virtue of this Act to supply any information or answer any question relating to proceedings of the Scottish Cabinet or of any committee of the Scottish Cabinet, or to produce so much of any document as relates to such proceedings.
- (8) For the purposes of subsection (7), a certificate issued by the most senior member of the staff of the Scottish Administration, with the approval of the First Minister, and certifying that any information, question, document or part of a document so relates is conclusive.
- (9) Subject to subsections (5) and (6), no person is compelled, for the purposes of an investigation by the Ombudsman, to give any evidence or produce any document which that person could not be compelled to give or to produce in civil proceedings before the Court of Session.

14 Obstruction and contempt

- (1) Where—
 - (a) a person, without lawful excuse, obstructs the Ombudsman in the performance of the Ombudsman's functions, or
 - (b) a person does any act or fails to take any action in relation to an investigation which, if the investigation were a proceeding in the Court of Session, would constitute contempt of court, the Ombudsman may apply by petition to the Court of Session for the person to be dealt with in accordance with subsection (2).

- (2) Where such a petition is presented, the Court of Session may inquire into the matter and after hearing—
 - (a) any witnesses who may be produced against or on behalf of the person in question, and
 - (b) any statement which may be offered in defence, may deal with the person as if the person had committed a contempt of court in relation to the Court of Session.

- (3) Nothing in this section is to be construed as applying to the taking of such action as is mentioned in section 12(6).

15 Reports on investigations

- (1) After conducting an investigation, the Ombudsman must—
 - (a) if the investigation is pursuant to a complaint, send a report of the investigation to the persons specified in section 11(2) and to the Scottish Ministers,
 - (b) if the investigation is pursuant to a request, send a report of the investigation to the persons specified in section 11(4) and to the Scottish Ministers, and must lay a copy of the report before the Parliament.

- (2) Subsection (3) of section 11 applies for the purposes of subsection (1)(a) of this section as it does for the purposes of subsection (2)(d) of that section.
- (3) Apart from identifying the listed authority in question, the report must not—
 - (a) mention the name of any person, or

- (b) contain any particulars which, in the Ombudsman's opinion, are likely to identify any person and can be omitted without impairing the effectiveness of the report, unless the Ombudsman determines that it is necessary to do so.
- (4) The listed authority in question must, unless the Ombudsman otherwise directs—
- (a) make arrangements, having effect for a period of at least 3 weeks, for allowing any person to—
- (i) inspect the report at any reasonable time,
- (ii) obtain a copy of it, or any part of it (whether or not on payment of a reasonable fee), and
- (b) publicise those arrangements.
- (5) Subsection (4) has effect—
- (a) where the listed authority is a family health service provider, as if the reference to the listed authority were a reference to any health service body with whom that provider—
- (i) is subject to an undertaking to provide family health services, or
- (ii) has agreed to perform such services,
- (as the case may be),
- (b) where the listed authority is an independent provider, as if the reference to the listed authority were a reference to the health service body or family health service provider with whom the independent provider made the arrangement to provide the service concerned.
- (6) In considering whether to make—
- (a) a determination under subsection (3), or
- (b) a direction under subsection (4),
- the Ombudsman must take into account the public interest as well as the interests of the person aggrieved (if the investigation is pursuant to a complaint) and of any other persons.
- (7) Any person who obstructs another person seeking to inspect a report or obtain a copy of it or any part of it in pursuance of arrangements made under subsection (4) is guilty of an offence and liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

16 Special reports

- (1) This section applies where a report under section 15 finds that the person aggrieved has sustained injustice or hardship as is mentioned in section 5(3).
- (2) If, following the making of the report, it appears to the Ombudsman that the injustice or hardship has not been, or will not be, remedied, the Ombudsman may make a special report on the case.
- (3) The Ombudsman must—
- (a) send a special report made under subsection (2) to the persons to whom the report under section 15 was sent, and
- (b) lay a copy of the report before the Parliament.

- (4) Section 15(3) applies in relation to a special report as it applies in relation to a report under that section.
- (5) The Ombudsman may make arrangements for the special report to be available to the public in such manner (whether or not on payment of a reasonable fee) as the Ombudsman thinks fit.
- (6) The listed authority to whom the special report relates is liable to reimburse the Ombudsman in respect of any expenses incurred by the Ombudsman by virtue of subsection (5).

Miscellaneous and general

17 Annual reports etc.

- (1) The Ombudsman must lay before the Parliament annually a general report on the exercise of the Ombudsman's functions.
- (2) Such a report may include, in particular, any general recommendations which the Ombudsman may have arising from the exercise of those functions in the period in question.
- (3) The Parliament may give the Ombudsman directions as to the form and content of a report under subsection (1); and the Ombudsman must comply with any such direction.
- (4) The Ombudsman may from time to time lay before the Parliament such other reports with respect to the exercise of the Ombudsman's functions as the Ombudsman thinks fit.

18 Protection from actions for defamation

- (1) For the purposes of the law of defamation, the following are absolutely privileged—
 - (a) any statement made by the Ombudsman in pursuance of section 11, 15, 16 or 17,
 - (b) any statement made by—
 - (i) the person aggrieved,
 - (ii) a person authorised for the purpose of subsection (1)(b) of section 9,
 - (iii) a person falling within subsection (3) of that section, or
 - (iv) a listed authority,in communicating with the Ombudsman for the purposes of this Act, or by the Ombudsman in communicating with any such person or authority for those purposes,
 - (c) any statement made in pursuance of arrangements under section 15(4) or 16(5).
- (2) In subsection (1), "statement" has the same meaning as in the Defamation Act 1996 (c.31).

19 Confidentiality of information

- (1) Information obtained by the Ombudsman or any of the Ombudsman's advisers in connection with any matter in respect of which a complaint or a request has been made must not be disclosed except for any of the purposes specified in subsection (2) or as permitted by subsection (3).
- (2) Those purposes are—

- (a) the purposes of—
 - (i) any consideration of the complaint or request (including any statement under section 11),
 - (ii) any investigation of the matter (including any report of such an investigation),
 - (b) the purposes of any proceedings for—
 - (i) an offence under the Official Secrets Acts 1911 to 1989 alleged to have been committed in respect of information obtained by the Ombudsman,
 - (ii) an offence of perjury alleged to have been committed in the course of any investigation of the matter,
 - (c) the purposes of an inquiry with a view to the taking of any of the proceedings mentioned in paragraph (b),
 - (d) the purposes of any proceedings under section 14.
- (3) Where information referred to in subsection (1) is to the effect that any person is likely to constitute a threat to the health or safety of patients, the Ombudsman may disclose the information to any person to whom the Ombudsman thinks it should be disclosed in the interests of the health and safety of patients.
- (4) In relation to information disclosed under subsection (3), the Ombudsman must—
- (a) where the Ombudsman knows the identity of the person to whom the information relates, inform that person of the disclosure of the information and of the identity of the person to whom it has been disclosed, and
 - (b) inform the person from whom the information was obtained of the disclosure.
- (5) It is not competent to call upon the Ombudsman or the Ombudsman's advisers to give evidence in any proceedings (other than proceedings referred to in subsection (2)) of matters coming to the knowledge of the Ombudsman or advisers in connection with any matter in respect of which a complaint or request has been made.
- (6) A member of the Scottish Executive may give notice in writing to the Ombudsman with respect to—
- (a) any document or information specified in the notice, or
 - (b) any class of document or information so specified,
- that, in the opinion of the member of the Scottish Executive, the disclosure of the document or information, or of documents or information of that class, would be contrary to the public interest.
- (7) Where such a notice is given nothing in this Act is to be construed as authorising or requiring the Ombudsman or any of the Ombudsman's advisers to communicate to any person or for any purpose any document or information specified in the notice, or any document or information of a class so specified.
- (8) Information obtained from the Information Commissioner by virtue of section 76 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (c.36) is to be treated for the purposes of subsection (1) as obtained in connection with any matter in respect of which a complaint or request has been made.
- (9) In relation to such information, subsection (2)(a) has effect as if—

- (a) the reference in sub-paragraph (i) to the complaint or request were a reference to any complaint or request, and
 - (b) the reference in sub-paragraph (ii) to the matter were a reference to any matter.
- (10) In this section and section 20 references to the Ombudsman's advisers are to persons from whom the Ombudsman obtains advice under paragraph 10 of schedule 1.

20 Disclosure of information by the Ombudsman

- (1) This section applies to any information (referred to in this section as "relevant information") obtained by, or supplied to, the Ombudsman or any of the Ombudsman's advisers under or for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The Ombudsman may disclose relevant information to a person or body specified in the first column of schedule 5 if the information appears to the Ombudsman to relate to any matter specified in relation to that person or body in the second column of that schedule.
- (3) Nothing in section 19(1) applies in relation to the disclosure of information in accordance with this section.

21 Consultation and co-operation with other Commissioners and Ombudsmen

- (1) Where the Ombudsman, at any stage in the course of considering a complaint or request, forms the opinion that the complaint or request relates partly to a matter which could be the subject of an investigation—
 - (a) by the Parliamentary Commissioner for Administration under the Parliamentary Commissioner Act 1967 (c.13),
 - (b) by either of the Health Service Commissioners under the Health Service Commissioners Act 1993 (c.46) (as that Act has effect in England and Wales),
 - (c) by the Welsh Administration Ombudsman under the Government of Wales Act 1998 (c.38),
 - (d) by a Local Commissioner under Part III of the Local Government Act 1974 (c.7), or
 - (e) by a housing ombudsman in accordance with a scheme approved under section 51 of the Housing Act 1996 (c.52), the Ombudsman must consult the appropriate Commissioner or other Ombudsman about the complaint or request.

- (2) If the Ombudsman considers it necessary, the Ombudsman must inform the person who made the complaint or request of the steps necessary to initiate a complaint to that Commissioner or other Ombudsman.
- (3) Where the Ombudsman consults a Commissioner or other Ombudsman in accordance with this section, the consultations may extend to any matter relating to the complaint or request, including—
 - (a) the conduct of any investigation into the matter to which the complaint or request relates, and
 - (b) the form, content and publication of any report of the result of such an investigation.

- (4) Where a listed authority is also an authority to which the Parliamentary Commissioner Act 1967 (c.13) applies, the Ombudsman must co-operate with the Parliamentary Commissioner to such extent as appears appropriate when exercising any function in relation to that authority.
- (5) Nothing in section 19(1) applies in relation to the disclosure of information in the course of consultation or co-operation under this section.

22 Information about right to make complaint

- (1) A listed authority must take reasonable steps to publicise the application and effect of this Act in relation to the authority including, in particular, providing information about—
 - (a) the right conferred by this Act to make a complaint,
 - (b) the time limit for doing so, and
 - (c) how to contact the Ombudsman.
- (2) Information about the matters specified in subsection (1)(a) to (c) must be included in or provided with—
 - (a) any document published by the listed authority and containing information about services provided by the authority to members of the public or about the procedures of the authority for dealing with complaints,
 - (b) any document issued by the listed authority responding to a complaint made to it by any person who might be entitled to make a complaint to the Ombudsman.
- (3) The Ombudsman may issue guidance with respect to the performance by listed authorities of their duties under this section.

Supplementary

23 Interpretation

- (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

- (4) Where a listed authority is an office-holder in the Scottish Administration, the persons referred to in subsection (2)(b) include, in particular, any member of the staff of the Scottish Administration assigned to assist the office-holder in question in the exercise of the office-holder’s functions.

24 Orders in Council: general

- (1) An Order in Council made under any provision of this Act may include such supplementary, incidental, consequential, transitional, transitory or saving provision as Her Majesty considers necessary or expedient.
- (2) No recommendation to make an Order in Council under section 3(2), 8(2) or, where the Order contains provisions which add to, replace or omit any part of the text of an Act, 25(2) is to be made to Her Majesty in Council unless a draft of the Order has been laid before, and approved by resolution of, the Parliament.
- (3) An Order in Council under section 6(2), 25(2) (except where subsection (2) of this section applies) or 26(2) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the Parliament.

25 Modification of enactments

- (1) Schedule 6 makes modifications of enactments for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) Her Majesty may by Order in Council make such modifications in any enactment, instrument or document as she considers necessary or expedient for the purposes of this Act.

26 Consequential, transitional, transitory and saving provision

- (1) Schedule 7 makes provision for the transfer to the Ombudsman of staff, property and liabilities and undetermined complaints in consequence of the provisions of this Act.

- (2) Her Majesty may by Order in Council make such further transitional, transitory or saving provision as she considers necessary or expedient in connection with the coming into force of any provision of this Act.

27 Commencement, revocation and short title

- (1) The provisions of this Act, except for—

- (a) sections 1, 23, 24 and 26(2),
- (b) schedule 1, and
- (c) this section,

come into force on such day as Her Majesty may by Order in Council appoint.

- (2) An Order in Council under subsection (1) may appoint a day for the purposes of article 3 of the Scotland Act 1998 (Transitory and Transitional Provisions) (Complaints of Maladministration) Order 1999 (S.I. 1999/1351).
- (3) Different days may be appointed under this section for different purposes.
- (4) This Act may be cited as the Scottish Public Services Ombudsman Act 2002.

SCHEDULE 1
(introduced by section 1)

THE SCOTTISH PUBLIC SERVICES OMBUDSMAN

Disqualification

- 1 (1) A person is disqualified from appointment, and from holding office, as Ombudsman or deputy Ombudsman if that person is—
 - (a) a member of the House of Commons,
 - (b) a member of the Scottish Parliament,
 - (c) a listed authority (within the meaning of section 3(1)),
 - (d) a member, officer or member of staff of a listed authority,
 - (e) disqualified from election as a member of the Scottish Parliament or as a member of a local authority.
- (2) A person holding office as Ombudsman or deputy Ombudsman—
 - (a) is disqualified from appointment or, as the case may be, election as—
 - (i) the holder of any office which is a listed authority, or
 - (ii) a member, officer or member of staff of a listed authority,
 - (b) is not entitled to become a family health service provider or an independent provider (within the meaning of paragraph 5 or, as the case may be, 6 of schedule 2), and
 - (c) is disqualified from appointment to any paid office by a listed authority.
- (3) A person who has ceased to hold office as Ombudsman or deputy Ombudsman is, during the period of 3 years beginning with the date on which that person ceased to hold that office, disqualified—
 - (a) from appointment or, as the case may be, election as—
 - (i) the holder of any office which is a listed authority,
 - (ii) a member, officer or member of staff of a listed authority, and
 - (b) from appointment to any paid office by a listed authority.
- (4) Sub-paragraph (3)(a)(ii) does not disqualify any person who has ceased to hold office as Ombudsman or deputy Ombudsman from election as a member of any local authority.
- (5) In this paragraph, references to a member of a listed authority include any member by co-option of any committee of a listed authority.
- (6) For the purposes of sub-paragraphs (2)(c) and (3)(b) an office is a paid office where the holder of the office is entitled to remuneration or expenses.

Status

- 2 (1) The Ombudsman, deputy Ombudsmen and Ombudsman's staff are not to be regarded as servants or agents of the Crown or as having any status, immunity or privilege of the Crown; and the Ombudsman's property is not to be regarded as property of, or property held on behalf of, the Crown.

- (2) The Ombudsman, in the exercise of that officer's functions, is not subject to the direction or control of—
 - (a) any member of the Parliament,
 - (b) any member of the Scottish Executive,
 - (c) the Parliamentary corporation.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (2) is subject to section 17(3) and paragraph 15(1) of this schedule.

Validity of actings

- 3 The validity of any actings of the Ombudsman or a deputy Ombudsman is not affected by—
 - (a) any defect in the nomination by the Parliament for that officer's appointment, or
 - (b) any disqualification from appointment as Ombudsman or, as the case may be, deputy Ombudsman.

Term of office and tenure

- 4 (1) The Ombudsman and a deputy Ombudsman each—
 - (a) holds office for such period not exceeding five years as the Parliamentary corporation, at the time of appointment, may determine,
 - (b) may be relieved of office by Her Majesty at the request of the officer in question,
 - (c) vacates office on 31st December in the year of service in which the officer in question attains the age of 65,
 - (d) may be removed from office by Her Majesty in pursuance of a resolution of the Parliament which, if passed on a division, must be voted for by a number of members equivalent to not less than two thirds of the total number of seats for members of the Parliament, and
 - (e) in other respects, holds office on such terms and conditions as the Parliamentary corporation may determine.
- (2) A person whose period of office as Ombudsman or deputy Ombudsman expires under sub-paragraph (1)(a) is eligible for reappointment; but reappointment to the same office for a third consecutive period is competent only if, by reason of special circumstances, such reappointment is desirable in the public interest.
- (3) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), nothing in this paragraph prevents a person who previously held office as Ombudsman or deputy Ombudsman (except such a person who ceased to hold office by virtue of sub-paragraph (1)(c)) from being appointed again to that office or to the other office.

Vacancy in office of Ombudsman

- 5 (1) Where the office of Ombudsman is vacant, the Parliamentary corporation may appoint a person (whether or not a deputy Ombudsman or a member of the Ombudsman's staff) to discharge the Ombudsman's functions until a new Ombudsman is appointed; and a person so appointed is referred to in this Act as an "acting Ombudsman".

- (2) A person who is disqualified from appointment as Ombudsman is also disqualified from appointment as acting Ombudsman.
- (3) A person appointed to be acting Ombudsman—
 - (a) may be relieved of office at that person's request,
 - (b) may be removed from office by the Parliamentary corporation by notice in writing given by it,
 - (c) in other respects, holds office on such terms and conditions as the Parliamentary corporation may determine,
 - (d) while holding that office, is to be treated for all purposes, except those of paragraphs 3(a), 4, 7 and 8, as the Ombudsman.

Vacancy in office of deputy Ombudsman

- 6 (1) Where there is a vacancy in the office of deputy Ombudsman, the Parliamentary corporation may appoint a person (whether or not a member of the Ombudsman's staff) to be an acting deputy Ombudsman until a deputy Ombudsman is appointed to fill the vacancy.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1), there is a vacancy in the office of deputy Ombudsman if—
 - (a) there are fewer than 3 deputy Ombudsmen (whether or not as a consequence of one or more deputies ceasing to hold office as such), and
 - (b) the Parliamentary corporation reasonably believes that the Parliament is likely to nominate a person for appointment by Her Majesty as a deputy Ombudsman.
- (3) A person who is disqualified from appointment as a deputy Ombudsman is also disqualified from appointment as an acting deputy Ombudsman.
- (4) A person appointed to be an acting deputy Ombudsman—
 - (a) may be relieved of office at that person's request,
 - (b) may be removed from office by the Parliamentary corporation by notice in writing given by it,
 - (c) in other respects, holds office on such terms and conditions as the Parliamentary corporation may determine,
 - (d) while holding that office, is to be treated for all purposes, except those of paragraphs 3(a), 4, 7 and 8, as a deputy Ombudsman.

Remuneration

- 7 (1) The Ombudsman and a deputy Ombudsman are each entitled to—
 - (a) a salary of such amount, and
 - (b) such allowances,as the Parliamentary corporation may determine.
- (2) The salary payable to a person holding office as Ombudsman or deputy Ombudsman is to be abated by the amount of any pension payable to that person in respect of any public office in the United Kingdom or elsewhere to which that person was previously elected or appointed.

Pensions etc.

- 8 (1) The Parliamentary corporation may make arrangements for the payment of pensions, allowances or gratuities to, or in respect of, any person who has ceased to hold office as Ombudsman or deputy Ombudsman and (without prejudice to that generality) may—
- (a) make contributions or payments towards provision for such pensions, allowances or gratuities, and
 - (b) establish and administer one or more pension schemes.
- (2) The references in sub-paragraph (1) to pensions, allowances and gratuities include references to, as the case may be, pensions, allowances or gratuities by way of compensation for loss of office.

Staff

- 9 (1) The Ombudsman may appoint such staff, on such terms and conditions, as the Ombudsman may determine.
- (2) The Ombudsman may make arrangements for the payment of pensions, allowances or gratuities to, or in respect of, any person who has ceased to be a member of staff and (without prejudice to that generality) may—
- (a) make contributions or payments towards provision for such pensions, allowances or gratuities, and
 - (b) establish and administer one or more pensions schemes.
- (3) References in sub-paragraph (2) to pensions, allowances and gratuities include references to, as the case may be, pensions, allowances or gratuities by way of compensation for loss of employment.
- (4) A determination under sub-paragraph (1) and arrangements under sub-paragraph (2) require the approval of the Parliamentary corporation.

Advisers

- 10 (1) The Ombudsman may, in connection with a complaint or request under this Act, obtain advice from any person who, in the Ombudsman's opinion, is qualified to give it.
- (2) The Ombudsman may pay to any such person from whom advice is obtained such fees and allowances as the Ombudsman may, with the approval of the Parliamentary corporation, determine.

Delegation

- 11 (1) Any function of the Ombudsman may be exercised on the Ombudsman's behalf—
- (a) by any person (whether or not a deputy Ombudsman or a member of the Ombudsman's staff) authorised by the Ombudsman to do so, and
 - (b) to the extent so authorised.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) does not affect the responsibility of the Ombudsman for the exercise of that officer's functions.

General powers

- 12 (1) The Ombudsman may do anything which appears necessary or expedient for the purpose of, or in connection with, or which appears conducive to, the exercise of the Ombudsman's functions.
- (2) Without prejudice to that generality, the Ombudsman may in particular—
- (a) acquire and dispose of land and other property, and
 - (b) enter into contracts.

Financial provision

- 13 The Parliamentary corporation is to pay—
- (a) the salary and allowances of the Ombudsman and any deputy Ombudsman,
 - (b) any expenses incurred by the Ombudsman in the exercise of the functions of the Ombudsman,
 - (c) any sums payable by virtue of paragraph 5(3)(a) to (c) or 6(4)(a) to (c) to, or in respect of, a person who—
 - (i) is appointed as acting Ombudsman or, as the case may be, acting deputy Ombudsman, or
 - (ii) has ceased to hold such office.

Accountable officer

- 14 (1) The Parliamentary corporation is to designate the Ombudsman, a deputy Ombudsman or a member of the Ombudsman's staff as the accountable officer for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (2) The functions of the accountable officer are—
- (a) those specified in sub-paragraph (3), and
 - (b) where the accountable officer is not the Ombudsman, the duty set out in sub-paragraph (4),
- and the accountable officer is answerable to the Parliament for the exercise of those functions.
- (3) The functions referred to in sub-paragraph (2)(a) are—
- (a) signing the accounts of the expenditure and receipts of the Ombudsman,
 - (b) ensuring the propriety and regularity of the finances of the Ombudsman,
 - (c) ensuring that the resources of the Ombudsman are used economically, efficiently and effectively.
- (4) The duty referred to in sub-paragraph (2)(b) is a duty, where the accountable officer is required to act in some way but considers that to do so would be inconsistent with the proper performance of the functions specified in sub-paragraph (3), to—
- (a) obtain written authority from the Ombudsman before taking the action, and
 - (b) send a copy of that authority as soon as possible to the Auditor General for Scotland.

Accounts and audit

- 15 (1) The Ombudsman must—
- (a) keep accounts, and
 - (b) prepare annual accounts in respect of each financial year,
- in accordance with such directions as the Scottish Ministers may give.
- (2) The Ombudsman must send a copy of the annual accounts to the Auditor General for Scotland for auditing.
- (3) The financial year of the Ombudsman is—
- (a) the period beginning with the date on which the first Ombudsman is appointed and ending with 31st March next following that date, and
 - (b) each successive period of twelve months ending with 31st March.
- (4) If requested by any person, the Ombudsman must make available at any reasonable time, and without charge, in printed or in electronic form, the audited accounts, so that they may be inspected by that person.

SCHEDULE 7
(introduced by section 26)

TRANSFER OF STAFF, PROPERTY AND LIABILITIES AND UNDETERMINED COMPLAINTS

Interpretation

- 1 (1) In this schedule—
- “the 1975 Act” means the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1975 (c.30),
 - “the 1993 Act” means the Health Service Commissioners Act 1993 (c.46),

“the 1999 Order” means the Scotland Act 1998 (Transitory and Transitional Provisions) (Complaints of Maladministration) Order 1999 (S.I. 1999/1351),

“the HAOS” means the employee of Scottish Homes appointed by it to be the Housing Association Ombudsman for Scotland,

“the Terms of Reference” means the Terms of Reference for the exercise of the functions of the HAOS adopted by Scottish Homes on 7th March 1994 and as amended from time to time.

- (2) References in this schedule to an existing Commissioner are references to any of the following office-holders, namely—
 - (a) the Commissioner for Local Administration in Scotland, established by section 21 of the 1975 Act,
 - (b) the Health Service Commissioner for Scotland, continued in existence by section 1 of the 1993 Act,
 - (c) the Scottish Parliamentary Commissioner for Administration appointed under article 4 of the 1999 Order.
- (3) References in this schedule to an existing complaints enactment are references to any of the following enactments, namely—
 - (a) Part II of the 1975 Act,
 - (b) the 1993 Act,
 - (c) the 1999 Order.

Transfer of staff of existing Commissioners and Scottish Homes

- 2 (1) On the date on which this schedule comes into force, each person who was, immediately before that date—
 - (a) employed as an officer or member of staff of an existing Commissioner, or
 - (b) an employee of Scottish Homes assigned to assist the HAOS in the exercise of the functions of the HAOS, transfers to and becomes a member of the staff of the Ombudsman.
- (2) The contract of employment of such a person—
 - (a) is not terminated by the transfer, and
 - (b) has effect from the date of transfer as if originally made between that person and the Ombudsman.
- (3) Without prejudice to sub-paragraph (2), where a person becomes a member of the staff of the Ombudsman under sub-paragraph (1)—
 - (a) all the rights, powers, duties and liabilities of the transferor under or in connection with that person’s contract of employment are by virtue of this sub-paragraph transferred to the Ombudsman on the date on which this schedule comes into force, and
 - (b) anything done before that date by or in relation to the transferor in respect of that contract of employment or that person is to be treated from that date as having been done by, or in relation to, the Ombudsman.

- (4) This paragraph does not prejudice any right of any person to terminate that person's contract of employment if the terms and conditions of employment are changed substantially to the detriment of the person; but such a change is not to be taken to have occurred by reason only that the identity of that person's employer changes by virtue of this paragraph.
- (5) In this paragraph, "transferor" in relation to a person who is transferred to the Ombudsman by virtue of sub-paragraph (1), means (as the case may be)—
 - (a) the existing Commissioner from whom that person is so transferred, or
 - (b) Scottish Homes, where that person is so transferred from Scottish Homes.

Transfer of property etc. of existing Commissioners and Scottish Homes

- 3 (1) On the date on which this schedule comes into force, all property and liabilities—
 - (a) to which an existing Commissioner was entitled or subject immediately before that date, or
 - (b) to which Scottish Homes was entitled or subject immediately before that date and which were held, used or, as the case may be, incurred by Scottish Homes wholly for the purposes of or in connection with the functions of the HAOS, transfer to and vest in the Ombudsman.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) has effect in relation to property and liabilities to which it applies despite any provision (of whatever nature) which would otherwise prevent, penalise or restrict the transfer of the property or liabilities.

Transfer of undetermined statutory complaints

- 4 (1) This paragraph applies in relation to any complaint (an "undetermined statutory complaint")—
 - (a) made to an existing Commissioner under an existing complaints enactment in relation to a person who is a listed authority for the purposes of this Act, and
 - (b) which has not been determined by the Commissioner before the repeal or revocation of the enactment by or by virtue of this Act.
- (2) For the purpose of enabling an undetermined statutory complaint to continue to be dealt with, the existing complaints enactment under which the complaint was made continues in force despite its repeal or revocation and has effect as it had effect immediately before its repeal or revocation but—
 - (a) as if any reference in it to the existing Commissioner were a reference to the Ombudsman, and
 - (b) subject to such further modifications (if any) as may be made by virtue of section 24(1) or 26(2).
- (3) For the purposes of this paragraph—
 - (a) a complaint is determined by an existing Commissioner if the Commissioner—
 - (i) has decided to conduct an investigation pursuant to the complaint and the investigation is concluded, or
 - (ii) has decided not to conduct an investigation pursuant to the complaint,

- (b) an investigation is concluded if the existing Commissioner has reported the results of that investigation in accordance with the existing complaints enactment under which the complaint was made.
- (4) Nothing in this paragraph affects the validity of anything done (or having effect as if done) by or in relation to an undetermined statutory complaint by an existing Commissioner under an existing complaints enactment before that enactment's repeal or revocation by or by virtue of this Act.
- (5) Anything (including legal proceedings) which, at that time, is in the process of being done by or in relation to an existing Commissioner may, so far as it relates to an undetermined statutory complaint, be continued by or in relation to the Ombudsman.
- (6) Anything done (or having effect as if done) by or in relation to an existing Commissioner for the purposes of or in connection with an undetermined statutory complaint, if in force at that time, has effect as if done by or in relation to the Ombudsman in so far as that is required for continuing its effect on or after that time.

Transfer of undetermined housing complaints

- 5 (1) This paragraph applies in relation to any complaint (an “undetermined housing complaint”)—
- (a) made to the HAOS under the Terms of Reference in relation to a registered social landlord, and
 - (b) which has not been determined by the HAOS before the date on which this schedule comes into force.
- (2) For the purpose of enabling an undetermined housing complaint to continue to be dealt with, the Terms of Reference (other than any provision relating to the appointment of the HAOS) continue in force and have effect after the date on which this schedule comes into force as they had effect immediately before that date but—
- (a) as if any reference to the HAOS were a reference to the Ombudsman, and
 - (b) subject to such further modifications (if any) as may be made by virtue of section 24(1) or 26(2).
- (3) For the purposes of this paragraph—
- (a) a complaint is determined by the HAOS if the HAOS—
 - (i) has decided to conduct an investigation pursuant to the complaint and the investigation is concluded, or
 - (ii) has decided not to conduct an investigation pursuant to the complaint,
 - (b) an investigation is concluded if the HAOS has reported the results of that investigation in accordance with the Terms of Reference.
- (4) Nothing in this paragraph affects the validity of anything done (or having effect as if done) by or in relation to an undetermined housing complaint by the HAOS under the Terms of Reference before the date on which this schedule comes into force.
- (5) Anything (including legal proceedings) which, at that date, is in the process of being done by or in relation to the HAOS may, so far as it relates to an undetermined housing complaint, be continued by or in relation to the Ombudsman.

- (6) Anything done (or having effect as if done) by or in relation to the HAOS for the purposes of or in connection with an undetermined housing complaint, if in force at that date, has effect as if done by or in relation to the Ombudsman in so far as that is required for continuing its effect on or after that time.
