

Sexual Offences (Procedure and Evidence) (Scotland) Act 2002

2002 asp 9

Prohibition on alleged sex offender personally precognosing complainer

4 Precognition on oath by person accused of sexual offence

In section 291 (precognition on oath of defence witnesses) of the 1995 Act, after subsection (3) there is inserted—

- “(4) This section does not, however, extend to the citation of the complainer for precognition by the accused in person.
- (5) In subsection (4) above, “complainer” has the same meaning as in section 274 of this Act.”.