2003 asp 11

S

The Bill for this Act of the Scottish Parliament was passed by the Parliament on 12th March 2003 and received Royal Assent on 22nd April 2003

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to amend the law relating to agricultural holdings under the Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 1991; to provide for new forms of agricultural tenancies and to make provision in relation to these tenancies; to provide for the right of certain agricultural tenants to buy land; to provide for the use of certain agricultural land for non-agricultural purposes; to make special provision for certain agricultural tenancies where the tenant is a partnership; to make new provision for the resolution of disputes between landlords and tenants arising under agricultural tenancies; and for connected purposes.

PART 1 S

AGRICULTURAL TENANCIES

CHAPTER 1 S

TYPES OF TENANCY

Tenancies under the 1991 Act

1 Application of the 1991 Act to agricultural holdings S

(1) This subsection applies where—

- (a) a lease is entered into on or after the coming into force of this subsection; and
- (b) the tenancy under the lease is a tenancy of an agricultural holding in relation to which the Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 1991 (c. 55) (in this Act referred to as “the 1991 Act”) would have applied had the lease been entered into immediately before the coming into force of this subsection.

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/2017.

Changes to legislation: Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 December 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Where subsection (1) applies, the 1991 Act does not apply in relation to the tenancy (except in so far as this Act applies any provision of that Act to short limited duration tenancies or limited duration tenancies) unless the lease—
- (a) is entered into in writing prior to the commencement of; and
  - (b) expressly states that the 1991 Act is to apply in relation to, the tenancy.
- (3) Section 2 (leases for less than year to year) of the 1991 Act is repealed.
- (4) Where, in respect of a tenancy of an agricultural holding—
- (a) the lease is entered into before the coming into force of this subsection and the 1991 Act applies in relation to the tenancy; or
  - (b) the lease is entered into on or after the coming into force of this subsection and (by virtue of the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) being fulfilled) the 1991 Act applies in relation to the tenancy, the tenancy under the lease is in this Act referred to as a “1991 Act tenancy”.

- (1) The landlord and tenant under a 1991 Act tenancy may terminate the tenancy by agreement in writing provided that—
- (a) the agreement—
    - (i) specifies the date on which the termination is to have effect, and
    - (ii) is made not less than 30 days before that date, and
  - (b) subsection (2) is complied with.
- (2) This subsection is complied with if the landlord and tenant enter into a lease constituting a modern limited duration tenancy for a term of not less than 25 years which—
- (a) comprises or includes the same land as that comprised in the tenancy being terminated under subsection (1), and
  - (b) has effect from the date on which the termination under that subsection has effect.
- (3) The landlord or tenant is entitled, at any time before the date on which the termination under subsection (1) has effect, to revoke (without penalty)—

- (1) The landlord and tenant under a limited duration tenancy may terminate the tenancy by agreement in writing provided that—
- (a) the agreement—
    - (i) specifies the date on which the termination is to have effect, and
    - (ii) is made not less than 30 days before that date, and
  - (b) subsection (2) is complied with.
- (2) This subsection is complied with if the landlord and tenant enter into a lease constituting a modern limited duration tenancy for a term of not less than the term remaining under the limited duration tenancy which—
- (a) comprises or includes the same land as that comprised in the tenancy being terminated under subsection (1), and
  - (b) has effect from the date on which the termination under that subsection has effect.
- (3) The landlord or tenant is entitled, at any time before the date on which the termination under subsection (1) has effect, to revoke (without penalty)—
- (a) the agreement made under that subsection, and
  - (b) the lease mentioned in subsection (2),
- by giving notice in writing to the other of the revocation.
- (4) On termination of a limited duration tenancy under subsection (1), the tenant is not entitled to compensation for improvements under Part 4 (or, as the case may be, under the lease).

8 Continuation and termination of limited duration tenancies S

- (1) A limited duration tenancy may be terminated by agreement between the landlord and tenant if the agreement is in writing and—
  - (a) is entered into after the commencement of the tenancy; and
  - (b) makes provision as to compensation payable by the landlord or the tenant to the other.
- (2) At and after the expiry of the term of a limited duration tenancy, the tenancy continues to have effect in accordance with subsection (6) unless it is terminated in accordance with this section.
- (3) At the expiry of the term of a limited duration tenancy, the landlord may terminate the tenancy by giving a notice under this subsection to the tenant.
- (4) A notice under subsection (3) must—
  - (a) be in writing and state that the tenant shall quit the land on the expiry of the term of the tenancy; and
  - (b) be given not less than one year nor more than two years before the expiry of the term of the tenancy, provided that not less than 90 days have elapsed from the date on which the intimation mentioned in subsection (5) is given.
- (5) A notice under subsection (3) is of no effect unless the landlord has given written intimation of the landlord's intention to terminate the tenancy to the tenant not less than two years nor more than three years before the expiry of the term of the tenancy.
- (6) If the tenancy is not terminated in accordance with this section, it continues in effect on a cycle of continuations; that is to say, a continuation of three years (a “first short continuation”) followed by a further continuation of three years (a “second short continuation”) followed by a further continuation of <sup>[F13]</sup>10 years (a “long continuation”) (the cycle being repeated without limit to the number of times).
- (7) During a first short continuation, the landlord may terminate the tenancy by giving a notice under this subsection to the tenant; and subsections (4) and (5) apply to a notice under this subsection as they do to a notice under subsection (3).
- (8) During a second short continuation, the landlord may terminate the tenancy by giving a notice under this subsection to the tenant.
- (9) A notice under subsection (8)—
  - (a) must be in writing and state that the tenant shall quit the land on the relevant day; and
  - (b) may be given at any time during the continuation.
- (10) For the purposes of subsection (9)(a)—
  - (a) where the notice has been given during the first year of the continuation, the relevant day is the day on which the continuation expires; and
  - (b) in any other case, the relevant day is the day on which the period of two years from the giving of the notice expires (and the continuation is deemed to expire on the relevant day).
- (11) During a long continuation, the landlord may terminate the tenancy by giving a notice under this subsection to the tenant; and subsections (4) and (5) apply to a notice under this subsection as they do to a notice under subsection (3).

- (12) For the purposes of subsections (7) and (11), the references in subsections (4) and (5) to the expiry of the term of the tenancy are to be read as references to the expiry of the continuation.
- (13) At or after the expiry of the term of a limited duration tenancy, the tenant may terminate the tenancy by giving a notice under this subsection to the landlord.
- (14) A notice under subsection (13) must—
- (a) be in writing and state that the tenant intends to quit the land on the expiry of the term of the tenancy or, as the case may be, a continuation of the tenancy; and
  - (b) be given not less than one year nor more than two years before the expiry of the term of the tenancy or, as the case may be, continuation.
- (15) During the term of a limited duration tenancy, the term of the tenancy may be extended by the landlord and tenant by agreement in writing.

- (4) Account is to be taken of any increase in the rental value of the land resulting from the use of the land for a purpose that is not an agricultural purpose.
- (5) No account is to be taken of any increase in the rental value of the land resulting from improvements—
- (a) so far as—
    - (i) they have been carried out wholly or partly at the expense of the tenant (whether or not that expense has been or will be reimbursed by any grant) without equivalent allowance or benefit having been made or given by the landlord in consideration of their execution; and
    - (ii) they have not been carried out under an obligation imposed on the tenant by the terms of the lease; and
  - (b) which have been carried out by the landlord, in so far as the landlord has received or will receive any grant in respect of them,
- nor may the rent be determined to be a higher amount than would have been payable if those improvements had not been so carried out.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5)—
- (a) subject to paragraph (b), “improvements” is to be construed by reference to Schedule 5 to the 1991 Act; and
  - (b) the continuous adoption by the tenant of a standard of farming or a system of farming more beneficial to the land than the standard or system required by the terms of the lease or, in so far as no system of farming is so required, than the system of farming normally practised on comparable agricultural land in the district, is to be treated as an improvement executed at the tenant’s expense.
- (7) No account is to be taken of—
- (a) any reduction in the rental value of the land as a result of any dilapidation or deterioration of, or damage to, fixed equipment or land caused or permitted by the tenant; or
  - (b) any such reduction resulting from—
    - (i) the use of any of the land, or changes to the land, for a purpose that is not an agricultural purpose; or

- (2) In determining whether residential accommodation is surplus—
  - (a) whether the standard labour requirement of the holding varies (seasonally or otherwise) may be taken into account,
  - (b) any accommodation—
    - (i) all or part of which is occupied by the tenant, or
    - (ii) which the tenant is prohibited (by the lease or otherwise) from subletting,is to be disregarded.
- (3) But any such prohibition as is mentioned in subsection (2)(b)(ii) is to be ignored if the tenant has sublet the accommodation by virtue of section 39(3).
- (4) In having regard for the purposes of section 9B(1)(b) to the open market rent for any surplus residential accommodation—
  - (a) all the circumstances must be taken into account, including—
    - (i) the condition of the accommodation and its location, and
    - (ii) where accommodation is occupied by a retired agricultural worker, under an arrangement or agreement between the landlord and the tenant, at no rent or at a rent that is below what the open market rent for that accommodation would otherwise be, that fact,
  - (b) the fact that the accommodation is not currently let is to be disregarded.
- (5) Where regard is had to the open market rent for surplus residential accommodation for the purposes of section 9B(1)(b), that accommodation is to be disregarded for the purposes of section 9B(1)(c).

10D Notice of dates of improvement S

- (1) This section applies where an improvement is to be carried out by the landlord—
- (a) at the request of or in agreement with the tenant,
  - (b) in pursuance of an undertaking given by the landlord under section 49(2),
  - (c) in pursuance of a direction given by the Scottish Ministers under powers conferred on them by or under any enactment, or
  - (d) after the landlord has given a landlord improvement notice in accordance with section 10A and—
    - (i) the tenant has not given notice of objection in accordance with section 10B, or
    - (ii) the tenant has given such notice of objection but the Land Court has approved the improvement under section 10C(2)(a).
- (2) The landlord must give notice in writing to the tenant stating the period during which the landlord intends to carry out the improvement.
- (3) Unless the landlord and tenant agree otherwise, that period must not commence earlier than the expiry of 2 weeks beginning with the day on which the landlord gives notice under subsection (2).
- (4) Where the landlord has not begun to carry out an improvement, notice of which has been given under subsection (2), and there is a good reason for postponing the carrying out of the improvement, the landlord may give a new notice under subsection (2).
- (5) Subsection (6) applies where the landlord has begun to carry out an improvement, notice of which has been given under subsection (2), and there is a good reason for extending the period during which the improvement is to be carried out.
- (6) The landlord may, at any time before the expiry of the period stated in the notice under subsection (2), extend the period by giving notice in writing to the tenant stating the extended period during which the landlord intends to carry out the improvement.

12 Right of tenant to withhold rent S

- (1) Subsection (2) applies to an order—
  - (a) made under subsection (1)(b) of section 84; and
  - (b) which is in relation to a failure of the landlord in a short limited duration tenancy [<sup>F29</sup>, a limited duration tenancy, a modern limited duration tenancy or a repairing tenancy] to fulfil any obligation the landlord has towards the tenant in respect of fixed equipment.
- (2) Where the landlord has failed—
  - (a) in a material regard; and
  - (b) as at the date specified under subsection (2) of that section, to comply with an order to which this subsection applies, the tenant may apply to the Land Court for an order under subsection (3).
- (3) An order under this subsection may (either or both)—
  - (a) authorise the tenant to carry out such work as the landlord would have to have carried out for the landlord to comply with the order to which subsection (2) applies; and
  - (b) authorise the tenant to withhold payment of the rent payable to the landlord under the tenancy on the condition that the tenant consigns to the Land Court the amount otherwise so payable.
- (4) The Land Court may, on the application of the tenant, from time to time release to the tenant any of the amount so consigned towards or in satisfaction of any reasonable costs incurred or to be incurred by the tenant for the purposes of or in connection with the carrying out of such work as is mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (3).
- (5) The Land Court, on the application of the landlord and having regard to—
  - (a) whether any work mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (3) remains to be carried out; and
  - (b) any costs mentioned in subsection (4), may terminate the order made under subsection (3) if it considers that it would be not be appropriate for the order to remain in force.

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/2017.

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)*

- (6) Where the Land Court terminates the order made under subsection (3), it is to order such division between the landlord and tenant of the amount (or, where any of the amount has been released to the tenant, any remaining amount) consigned under subsection (3)(b) as it considers to be equitable.
- (7) Any work carried out and authorised under subsection (3)(a) is to be treated as having been carried out at the landlord's expense in so far as the costs of the work have been or are to be satisfied by the release to the tenant of any amount consigned under subsection (3)(b).
- (8) Any right of the landlord to irritate the lease or remove the tenant on the grounds of non-payment of rent is unenforceable if the non-payment of rent is in consequence of an authorisation under subsection (3)(b) to withhold rent.
- (9) Any term of the lease or of any agreement between the landlord and tenant that purports to deprive the tenant of any right conferred by virtue of this section is, in so far as it so purports, of no effect.

- (1) Where, in respect of a short limited duration tenancy<sup>F30</sup>, a limited duration tenancy, a modern limited duration tenancy or a repairing tenancy] —
  - (a) there is not in force a lease in writing; or
  - (b) there is in force a lease in writing but—
    - (i) the lease does not contain provision for the matters mentioned in subsection (2)(a) or contains provision inconsistent with those matters; or
    - (ii) the lease contains provision inconsistent with section 16 (as read with section 5(2) to (4) of the 1991 Act)<sup>F31</sup>, section 16A or, as the case may be, section 16B], the landlord or tenant may give notice in writing to the other requesting that a lease in writing be entered into containing the matters mentioned in subsection (2).
- (2) Those matters are, as the case may be—
  - (a) provision for all the matters specified in Schedule 1 to the 1991 Act (that Schedule applying for the purposes of this section as it does for the purposes of that Act) or provision consistent with those matters; or
  - (b) provision consistent with section 16<sup>F32</sup>, 16A or, as the case may be, 16B].
- (3) If, within the period of 6 months after notice has been given under subsection (1), no such lease has been concluded, the terms of the lease may be determined by the Land Court.

- (4) In such a determination, the Land Court—
- (a) is to specify the terms of the existing tenancy and, in so far as those terms do not make provision for the matters mentioned in subsection (2)(a) or make provision inconsistent with those matters or with section 16 (as read with section 5(2) to (4) of the 1991 Act)<sup>F33</sup>, section 16A or, as the case may be, section 16B,] make such provision for those matters as appears to it to be reasonable; and
  - (b) may specify any further term of the tenancy which is—
    - (i) agreed between the landlord and the tenant; and
    - (ii) not inconsistent with any provision applying to the tenancy by virtue of this Act.
- (5) Any determination of the Land Court by virtue of this section or section 16<sup>F34</sup>, 16A or, as the case may be, 16B] has effect as if—
- (a) the terms and provisions specified or made therein were contained in an agreement in writing between the landlord and the tenant; and
  - (b) such agreement had effect as from the date of the determination or from such later date as the determination may appoint.
- (6) If it appears to the Land Court that on the date of the determination the landlord or tenant would be in breach of any term of the tenancy so specified or made, the Court is to appoint such later date as would allow the landlord or, as the case may be, tenant to remedy the breach.

- (2) Where a lease constituting a short limited duration tenancy or a limited duration tenancy is entered into and fixed equipment is comprised in the lease, the parties must agree in writing a schedule of fixed equipment specifying—
- (a) the fixed equipment which the landlord will provide in terms of subsection (1)(a); and
  - (b) the condition of the fixed equipment,
- and on being so agreed (or, failing such agreement, on being determined in accordance with section 77 or 78 of this Act) the schedule of fixed equipment is deemed to form part of the lease.
- (3) If at any time after the commencement of the tenancy the fixed equipment or its condition is varied, the landlord and tenant may agree to amend the schedule of fixed equipment accordingly or to substitute for it a new schedule.
- (4) There is also incorporated in every such lease a provision that the liability of the tenant in relation to the maintenance of fixed equipment extends only to a liability to maintain the fixed equipment specified in the schedule of fixed equipment in as good a state of repair (natural decay and fair wear and tear excepted) as it was in—
- (a) immediately after it was put into the condition specified in the schedule of fixed equipment; or
  - (b) in the case of equipment improved, provided, renewed or replaced, during the tenancy, immediately after it was so improved, provided, renewed or replaced.
- (5) The cost of making and agreeing the schedule of fixed equipment under this section must, unless otherwise agreed, be borne by the landlord and tenant in equal shares.]
- (6) Any agreement between the landlord and tenant which purports to provide for the tenant to bear any expense of any work which the landlord is required to execute in order to fulfil the landlord's obligations under the lease is of no effect.
- (7) Any term of a lease constituting a short limited duration tenancy or a limited duration tenancy that requires the tenant to pay the whole or any part of the premium due under a fire insurance policy over any fixed equipment on the land is of no effect.

- (b) put the fixed equipment so provided into the condition specified in the schedule of fixed equipment that is required by virtue of subsection (2).
- (2) Where a lease constituting a modern limited duration tenancy is entered into and fixed equipment is comprised in the lease, the parties must agree in writing a schedule of fixed equipment specifying—
  - (a) the fixed equipment which the landlord will provide in terms of subsection (1)(a), and
  - (b) the condition of the fixed equipment,and on being so agreed (or, failing such agreement, on being determined in accordance with section 77 or 78) the schedule of fixed equipment is deemed to form part of the lease.
- (3) The schedule of fixed equipment must be agreed before the expiry of the period of 90 days beginning with the commencement of the tenancy.
- (4) If at any time after the commencement of the tenancy the fixed equipment or its condition is varied, the landlord and tenant may agree to amend the schedule of fixed equipment accordingly or to substitute for it a new schedule.
- (5) Unless the lease makes provision to the contrary, there is also incorporated in every such lease—
  - (a) an undertaking by the landlord that the landlord will, during the tenancy, effect such renewal or replacement of the fixed equipment provided as required by virtue of subsection (1) as may be rendered necessary by natural decay or by fair wear and tear, and
  - (b) a provision that the liability of the tenant in relation to the maintenance of fixed equipment extends only to a liability to maintain the fixed equipment specified in the schedule of fixed equipment in as good a state of repair (natural decay and fair wear and tear excepted) as it was in—
    - (i) immediately after it was put into the condition specified in the schedule of fixed equipment, or
    - (ii) in the case of equipment improved, provided, renewed or replaced, during the tenancy, immediately after it was so improved, provided, renewed or replaced.
- (6) The cost of making and agreeing the schedule of fixed equipment under this section must, unless otherwise agreed, be borne by the landlord and tenant in equal shares.
- (7) Any agreement between the landlord and tenant which purports to provide for the tenant to bear any expense of any work which the landlord is required to execute in order to fulfil the landlord's obligations under the lease is of no effect.
- (8) Any term of a lease constituting a modern limited duration tenancy that requires the tenant to pay the whole or any part of the premium due under a fire insurance policy over any fixed equipment on the land is of no effect.]

17 Resumption of land by landlord S

- (1) The landlord may resume the land or any part of the land comprised in a lease constituting a short limited duration tenancy or <sup>F39</sup>, a limited duration tenancy or a modern limited duration tenancy] if (and only if)—
  - (a) the resumption is for a non-agricultural purpose in respect of which permission requires to be obtained, and has been obtained, under the enactments relating to town and country planning by—
    - (i) in the case of a short limited duration tenancy, any person (including the tenant);
    - (ii) in the case of a limited duration tenancy <sup>F40</sup> or a modern limited duration tenancy] , any person apart from the tenant;
  - (b) the lease does not expressly prohibit resumption for that purpose; and
  - (c) notice as mentioned in subsection (2) has been given.
- (2) The landlord must give the tenant notice of any intention of the landlord so to resume any land; and the notice must—
  - (a) be in writing;
  - (b) be given not less than 1 year before the date on which the resumption is to take place; and
  - (c) specify that date.
- (3) Where notice is given under subsection (2) for resumption of part of the land, the tenant may, within 28 days after—
  - (a) the giving of the notice; or
  - (b) the determination of any matter arising from the notice, whichever is the later, terminate the tenancy by giving notice in writing to the landlord; and the termination takes effect on the date specified under subsection (2)(c).
- (4) Where the landlord resumes part of the land under this section, the tenant is entitled to a reduction in rent—
  - (a) of an amount proportionate to that part; and
  - (b) of an amount in respect of any depreciation of the value to the tenant of the remainder of the land caused by the resumption of the part or any use made of the part, but where paragraph (a) applies, in determining the amount of the reduction, account is to be taken of any benefit or relief allowed to the tenant under the lease in respect of the part resumed.
- (5) Where—
  - (a) part of the land has been resumed under this section for a purpose mentioned in paragraph (f) (which specifies certain forms of mineral exploitation) of subsection (2) of section 29 of the 1991 Act (that paragraph applying for the purposes of this subsection as it does for the purposes of that section); and
  - (b) the land which formed that part has subsequently been made suitable for, and is available for, agricultural use, that land is, if the conditions in subsection (6) are fulfilled, to be restored to the tenancy.
- (6) The conditions are that—
  - (a) the tenancy continues in effect with the same landlord and tenant under the lease; and

- (c) is the subject of such a bequest, but the bequest is declared null and void by virtue of section 21 of the 2003 Act, and there is among the conditions of the lease (whether expressly or by implication) a condition prohibiting assignation of the interest, the executor shall be entitled, notwithstanding that condition, to transfer the interest to a person to whom subsection (4B) below applies; and the executor shall be entitled so to transfer the interest without the consent of the landlord.
- (4B) This subsection applies to—
- (a) any one of the persons entitled to succeed to the deceased's intestate estate, or to claim legal rights or the prior rights of a surviving spouse out of the estate, in or towards satisfaction of that person's entitlement or claim; or
  - (b) any other person.
- (4C) In the case of any interest under a lease constituting a short limited duration tenancy or a limited duration tenancy—
- (a) if at any time the executor is satisfied that the interest cannot be disposed of according to law and so informs the landlord, the executor may terminate the tenancy (in so far as it relates to the interest); and
  - (b) if the interest is not so disposed of within the period referred to in subsection (4D) below, the lease shall (in so far as it relates to the interest) terminate at the expiry of the period,
- notwithstanding any provision in the lease, or any enactment or rule of law, to the contrary effect.
- (4D) The period is one year or such longer period as may be fixed by agreement or, failing agreement, by the Land Court on the application of the executor—
- (a) in the case of an interest which is the subject of an application to that court by virtue of section 21 of the 2003 Act, from the date of the determination or withdrawal of the application; and
  - (b) in any other case, from the date of death of the deceased.
- (4E) The—
- (a) interest may be transferred under subsections (4A) and (4B) above; or
  - (b) tenancy may be terminated under subsection (4C)(a) above,
- only if the transfer, or as the case may be, termination is in the best interests of the deceased's estate.”.

Registration of interest and the right to buy

24 The Keeper and the Register S

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, “the Keeper” is the person who keeps the Register of Community Interests in Land (in this Part referred to as “the Register”) under section 36 (Register of Community Interests in Land) of the Land Reform (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 2).
- (2) The Keeper is to keep the Register so that there is contained in it a part for registering tenants' interests in acquiring land in accordance with section 25.
- (3) There is to be included in that part of the Register—
  - (a) a record of any notice or notification sent to the Keeper under any provision of this Part; and
  - (b) where a registration of a tenant’s interest in acquiring land is removed under section 25(15), an entry specifying the date on which that is effected.

25 Registration of tenant’s interest S

- (1) A tenant of a 1991 Act tenancy may apply to have registered an interest in acquiring the land comprised in the lease by sending a notice (in this section referred to as a “notice of interest”) to the Keeper.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, “tenant”—
  - (a) where there are two or more tenants under the lease, means those tenants; and

Changes to legislation: Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 December 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) does not include a sub-tenant.
- (3) The notice of interest must be in such form as the Scottish Ministers may prescribe by regulations and must specify—
  - (a) the particulars of the tenant and the owner of the land;
  - (b) where there are two or more tenants under the lease, the fact that each of them consents to the making of the application to register their interest in acquiring the land;
  - (c) the location and boundaries of the land (by reference, where appropriate, to the lease or any map or drawing);
  - (d) any interest or rights comprised in the land (including any sporting or mineral rights); and
  - (e) such other information as the Scottish Ministers may so prescribe.
- (4) The tenant must send a copy of the notice of interest to the owner of the land and notify the Keeper that the copy has been so sent.
- (5) On receipt of the notice of interest, the Keeper must—
  - (a) register—
    - (i) the tenant's interest in acquiring the land;
    - (ii) the details specified in the notice of interest; and
    - (iii) the date of registration; and
  - (b) send an extract of the registration to the tenant and the owner of the land.
- (6) Where the registration relates to land over which there is a standard security, the owner, on receipt of the extract, must—
  - (a) intimate that fact to the tenant; and
  - (b) send a copy of the extract to the creditor in the standard security.
- (7) The Keeper may charge such reasonable fee for—
  - (a) registering tenants' interests in acquiring land; and
  - (b) providing extracts, and copy extracts, of registration, as the Scottish Ministers may by order specify.
- (8) If the owner of the land disputes any matter contained in the extract of registration, the owner may, by notice in writing to the Keeper, challenge the registration of the tenant's interest in acquiring the land on the grounds that any matter contained in the extract is inaccurate.
- (9) On receipt of notice under subsection (8), the Keeper is to make such enquiry in connection with the tenant's interest in acquiring the land as the Keeper considers appropriate; and following such an enquiry, if the Keeper considers that the notice of interest is inaccurate, the Keeper—
  - (a) must, if the inaccuracy is material, rescind the registration of the tenant's interest; and
  - (b) may, if the inaccuracy is not material, amend that registration.
- (10) Where, under subsection (9)—
  - (a) the registration of the tenant's interest in acquiring the land is rescinded, the Keeper must intimate that fact to the tenant and the owner of the land; and
  - (b) that registration is amended, the Keeper must send an extract of the registration to the tenant and the owner of the land.

- (11) The tenant or the owner of the land may appeal to the Land Court against any decision made, following notice under subsection (8), by the Keeper in respect of the registration of the tenant’s interest in acquiring the land; and in an appeal under this subsection the Court may make such order as it considers appropriate.
- (12) A registration of a tenant’s interest in acquiring land—
  - (a) continues to have effect only in relation to such land as remains comprised in the tenancy; and
  - (b) ceases to have effect—
    - (i) if the registration is rescinded;
    - (ii) if the tenancy is terminated; or
    - (iii) where neither of those things has occurred, at the expiry of the period of five years from the date of registration.
- (13) Where—
  - (a) the tenancy is terminated during that period; or,
  - (b) there is a reduction in the land comprised in the tenancy,the landlord must give notice in writing of that fact to the Keeper.
- (14) Where a tenant’s interest in acquiring land is, or has been, registered, the tenant may at any time apply to have the interest registered again (with or without modification to the matters specified in the notice of interest).
- (15) The Keeper must remove from the Register any registration of a tenant’s interest in acquiring land which no longer has effect.

27 Transfers not requiring notice S

- (1) Notice is not required under section 26 where the transfer is or, as the case may be, would be—
- (a) otherwise than for value;
  - (b) in implement or pursuance of an order of a court (other than an order under section 24 of the Conveyancing and Feudal Reform (Scotland) Act 1970 (c. 35) or a decree in an action for the division and sale of land);
  - (c) between spouses in pursuance of an arrangement between them entered into at any time after they have ceased living together;
  - (d) of croft land to the crofter tenancing it;
  - (e) between companies in the same group;
  - (f) to a statutory undertaker for the purpose of carrying on the undertaking;
  - (g) a transfer—
    - (i) implementing the compulsory acquisition of land under any enactment;
    - (ii) by agreement, of land which could have been acquired compulsorily under any enactment;
    - (iii) implementing any right conferred by Part 2 (which provides for the community right to buy) of the Land Reform (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 2) to buy land;
    - (iv) implementing any right conferred by Part 3 (which provides for the crofting community right to buy) of that Act to buy eligible land within the meaning of that Part of that Act;
    - (v) implementing missives for the sale and purchase of land concluded, or an option to acquire land which existed on a date on which no notice of interest in acquiring the land was registered under section 25;
    - <sup>F53</sup>(vi) . . . . .
    - (vii) which requires, or which but for the provisions of section 14 of that Act would require, the consent of the Scottish Ministers under subsection (5) or (7) of section 12 of that Act;
    - [<sup>F54</sup>(viii) by a registered social landlord (within the meaning of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2010 (asp 17) ) in pursuance of the power conferred by section 107 of that Act; ]
    - (ix) vesting the land in a person for the purposes of any enactment relating to sequestration, bankruptcy, winding up or incapacity or to the purposes for which judicial factors may be appointed; or
  - (h) a transfer of land in consequence of—
    - (i) the assumption or resignation or death of one or more of the partners in a partnership; or
    - (ii) the assumption or resignation or death of one or more of the trustees of a trust.
- (2) In the case of a transfer mentioned in any of paragraphs (a), (e) and (h) of subsection (1), if the transfer—
- (a) is or forms part of a scheme or arrangement or is one of a series of transfers; and
  - (b) the main purpose or effect, or one of the main purposes or effects, of the scheme, arrangement or, as the case may be, series is the avoidance of the requirements or consequences of this Part,

28 Right to buy S

- (1) Where a tenant’s interest in acquiring land is for the time being registered under section 25 and—
  - (a) the owner of the land or a creditor in a standard security with a right to sell the land, gives notice to the tenant under section 26 of a proposal to transfer the land or any part of it; or
  - (b) the owner or the creditor takes any action with a view to the transfer of the land or any part of it and—
    - (i) the transfer is a transfer in respect of which notice to the tenant is required under section 26; and
    - (ii) such notice has not been given,the tenant has the right to buy the land to which the transfer relates (including any interest or rights comprised in the land) from the owner or, as the case may be, the creditor.
- (2) Where—
  - (a) a tenant has a right to buy land under subsection (1); and
  - (b) despite the existence of that right, the owner, or as the case may be, the creditor transfers the land to a person other than the tenant,the tenant has the right to buy the land (including any interests or rights comprised in the land) from the person to whom the land is transferred or is subsequently transferred.

29 Exercise of right to buy S

- (1) Where a tenant has a right to buy land under section 28(1), the tenant may proceed in accordance with section 32 to buy the land from the owner or, as the case may be, the creditor provided that notice is given under subsection (2).
- (2) Notice is given under this subsection if the tenant, within 28 days of receipt of the notice under section 26, gives notice to the owner or, as the case may be, the creditor that the tenant intends to buy the land.
- (3) Where a tenant has a right to buy under section 28(2), the tenant may proceed in accordance with section 32 to buy the land from the person to whom the land has been transferred or subsequently transferred provided that notice is given under subsection (4).
- (4) Notice is given under this subsection if—
  - (a) the tenant gives notice to that person that the tenant intends to buy the land; and
  - (b) the notice is given within three years from the transfer to that person, and the tenancy is in force on the date on which the notice is given.
- (5) If, at any time, the tenant does not intend to proceed, in accordance with section 32, to buy the land, the tenant is to give notice of that fact to the person from whom the land would otherwise have been bought.
- (6) Where the tenant—
  - (a) does not give notice in accordance with subsection (2) or, as the case may be, (4); or
  - (b) gives notice under subsection (5),
 the right to buy is extinguished.

32 Procedure for buying S

- (1) It is for the tenant to make the offer to buy in exercise of the tenant’s right to buy under section 28.
- (2) The offer is to be at a price—
  - (a) agreed between the tenant and the person from whom the land is to be bought (“the seller”); or
  - (b) where there is no such agreement—
    - (i) payable by the tenant in accordance with section 34(8); or

- (ii) if the price is determined in an appeal under section 37, as is so determined, and must specify the date of entry and of payment of the price in accordance with subsection (3).
- (3) The date of entry and of payment of the price are to be—
- (a) a date not later than 6 months from the date when the tenant gave notice under section 29(2) or (4) of the tenant's intention to buy;
  - (b) where the price payable by the tenant is the subject of an appeal under section 37 which has not, within the period of 4 months after the date when the tenant gave such notice, been—
    - (i) determined; or
    - (ii) abandoned following agreement between the tenant and the seller, a date not later than 2 months after the appeal is so determined or, as the case may be, abandoned; or
  - (c) such later date as may be agreed between the tenant and the seller.
- (4) The offer may include such other reasonable conditions as are necessary or expedient to secure the efficient progress and completion of the transfer.
- (5) If the tenant has not, within the period fixed by or agreed under subsection (3), done any of the things mentioned in subsection (6), the seller may apply to the Land Court for an order under subsection (7).
- (6) The things are—
- (a) concluding missives with the seller for the sale of the land to the tenant; or
  - (b) if the tenant has not so concluded missives, taking all steps which the tenant could reasonably have taken in the time available towards so concluding missives.
- (7) An order under this subsection may—
- (a) direct the tenant—
    - (i) to conclude missives with the seller within such period; and
    - (ii) to take such remedial action for the purpose of so concluding missives; and
  - (b) direct the tenant and seller to incorporate into the missives any term or condition in respect of the sale of the land, as the order may specify.
- (8) If—
- (a) the tenant fails to comply with an order under subsection (7); or
  - (b) where the seller has not applied for an order under that subsection, the tenant has not (having regard to the period fixed by or agreed under subsection (3)) within a reasonable period from the acquiring by the tenant of the right to buy otherwise concluded missives with the seller for the sale of the land to the tenant,
the right to buy is extinguished.

33 Appointment of valuer S

- (1) Where the price is not agreed between the seller and the tenant, the land is, except where subsection (2) applies, to be valued by a valuer appointed by agreement between the seller and the tenant or by a person nominated by them.
- (2) This subsection applies where the land in respect of which the tenant is exercising a right to buy forms part of an estate comprising other land in respect of which any other tenant has given notice under section 29(2) or (4) of the tenant's intention to buy.
- (3) Where subsection (2) applies, the land mentioned in that subsection is to be valued by a valuer appointed by agreement between—
  - (a) the seller; and
  - (b) at least half of the tenants mentioned in that subsection,or by a person nominated by them.
- (4) Where there is no agreement as to the appointment of a valuer under subsection (1) or (3), the valuer is to be appointed by the Land Court or by a person nominated by the Court.
- (5) In this Part, “valuer” includes two valuers with an oversman.

34 Valuation of the land S

- (1) The valuer appointed under section 33 is to assess the value of the land in respect of which the right to buy is being exercised as at the date of notice under section 26 of the seller's proposal to transfer the land.
- (2) The valuer is to assess the value of the land—
  - (a) having regard to the value that would be likely to be agreed between a reasonable seller and buyer of such land—
    - (i) assuming that the seller and buyer are, as respects the transaction, willing; and
    - (ii) where the buyer is a sitting tenant;
  - (b) taking account, in so far as a seller and a buyer of the land (assuming that they are, as respects the transaction, willing) would do so, of any factor attributable to the known existence of a person who (not being the tenant who is exercising a right to buy the land) would be willing to buy the land at a price higher than other persons because of a characteristic of the land which relates peculiarly to that person's interest in buying it;
  - (c) taking account of when the seller would in the normal course of events have been likely to recover vacant possession of the land from the tenant;
  - (d) taking account of the terms and conditions of any lease of sporting interests affecting the land;
  - (e) taking account of any moveable property belonging to the owner of the land which is, by agreement between the tenant and the owner, to be—

- the land;
- (f) taking no account of—
    - (i) the absence of the period of time during which the land would, on the open market, be likely to be advertised and exposed for sale; or
    - (ii) any factor attributable to any use of the land which is or would be unlawful;
  - (g) taking no account of any increase in the value of the land resulting from improvements carried out at the expense of the tenant;
  - (h) taking no account of any increase in the value of the land resulting from the use of any of the land, or changes to the land, for a purpose that is not an agricultural purpose or the carrying out of conservation activities on the land;
  - (i) taking no account of—
    - (i) any reduction in the value of the land as a result of any dilapidation or deterioration of, or damage to, fixed equipment or land caused or permitted by the tenant; or
    - (ii) any such reduction resulting from the use of any of the land, or changes to the land, for a purpose that is not an agricultural purpose or the carrying out of conservation activities on the land; and
  - (j) taking no account of any fixed equipment owned by the tenant.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(g)—
- (a) subject to paragraph (b), “improvements” is to be construed by reference to Schedule 5 to the 1991 Act; and
  - (b) the continuous adoption by the tenant of a standard of farming or a system of farming more beneficial to the land than the standard or system required by the lease or, in so far as no system of farming is so required, than the system of farming normally practised on comparable agricultural land in the district, is to be treated as an improvement executed at the tenant’s expense.
- (4) Where land in respect of which the right to buy is being exercised forms part of an estate, the valuer is, in addition to assessing the value of the land under subsection (2), to assess the value representing the difference between—
- (a) the value of the estate were the estate being sold by the seller to a person other than the tenant; and
  - (b) the value of the remainder of the estate (that is to say, the estate less the land in respect of which the right to buy is being exercised) were the remainder being sold by the seller to such a person.
- (5) For the purpose of valuation under subsection (4), where two or more parts of an estate are being bought in exercise of a right to buy under this Part, the valuer may apportion to each such part of the estate (or re-apportion if for any reason the sale of any such part does not proceed) such amount representing the reduction in the value of the estate as the valuer considers equitable.
- (6) The Scottish Ministers may issue guidance (either generally or in respect of a particular class of case) for the purposes of valuation under this section.
- (7) An estate is to be treated, for the purposes of subsections (4) and (5), as comprising—
- (a) any land forming part of the estate and which is being bought in exercise of a right to buy under this Part; and
  - (b) any other land forming part of the estate offered for sale by the seller at the same time as the land mentioned in paragraph (a).

- (8) For the purposes of section 32(2)(b)(i), the price payable by a tenant is—
- (a) the value assessed under subsection (2); or
  - (b) where the land forms part of an estate, the greater of the values assessed under—
    - (i) that subsection; and
    - (ii) subsection (4).

36 Valuation etc.: further provision S

- (1) The valuer is—
- (a) to invite—
    - (i) the seller and the tenant; and
    - (ii) where the land forms part of an estate, any other person the valuer considers to have an interest in the estate, to make written representations about the matters mentioned in subsection (2); and
  - (b) to have regard to any such representations.
- (2) The matters are—
- (a) the valuation of the land; and
  - (b) where the land forms part of an estate, any valuation of the estate (and any apportionment of a reduction in the value of the estate), under section 34.
- (3) The valuer may—
- (a) enter onto land; and
  - (b) make any reasonable request of the seller and tenant, for the purposes of any assessment under section 34.

- (4) The valuer must, within 6 weeks of being appointed, send to the seller and the tenant a notice in writing specifying the price payable by the tenant under section 34(8) and setting out how the price was calculated.
- (5) The expenses of the valuer accrued in carrying out the valuer's functions under section 34 and this section are to be—
  - (a) met by the tenant; or
  - (b) where subsection (2) of section 33 applies, shared equally between the tenants mentioned in that subsection.
- (6) Where—
  - (a) the Land Court has made an order under section 32(7);
  - (b) the tenant to whom the order applies has complied with the order; and
  - (c) the seller does not proceed with the sale of the land to the tenant, the seller is liable to the tenant for any expenses met by the tenant by virtue of subsection (5).
- (7) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision for or in connection with the matters provided for in this section and sections 33 and 34.

37 Appeal to Lands Tribunal against valuation S

- (1) The seller or the tenant may appeal to the Lands Tribunal against the valuation carried out under section 34.
- (2) An appeal under this section must state the grounds on which it is being made and must be lodged within 21 days of the date of the notice under section 36(4).
- (3) In an appeal under this section, the Lands Tribunal may—
  - (a) reassess any value of the land (and any factor affecting the value) or of an estate (and how any reduction in the value of an estate is to be apportioned); and
  - (b) for the purposes of section 32(2)(b)(ii), determine the price.
- (4) The valuer whose valuation is appealed against may be a witness in the appeal proceedings.
- (5) In the appeal proceedings, in addition to the seller and the tenant, the following persons are entitled to be heard—
  - (a) where the seller is—
    - (i) a creditor in a standard security, the owner of the land; and
    - (ii) the owner of the land, any creditor in a standard security over the land or any part of it; and
  - (b) where the land forms part of an estate—

Application to Land Court for order for sale

38A Application to Land Court for order for sale S

- (1) This section applies where—
  - (a) the Land Court has made an order (but not an interim order) under section 84(1)(b) requiring the landlord of a 1991 Act tenancy to remedy a material breach of the landlord's obligations in relation to the tenant, or
  - (b) an arbiter appointed under section 61A(3) of the 1991 Act has by virtue of section 61A(5) made an award having the same effect as such an order.
- (2) Subject to subsection (5), the tenant may apply to the Land Court for an order for sale if the landlord fails to comply with the order or award mentioned in subsection (1)—
  - (a) in a material regard, and

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/2017.

Changes to legislation: Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 December 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) by the date specified in the order or award by virtue of section 84(2) or, as the case may be, section 61A(5) of the 1991 Act.
- (3) An “order for sale” is an order that the tenant has the right to buy the land comprised in the lease.
- (4) The tenant must give notice of the application—
  - (a) to the landlord,
  - (b) where there is a heritable security over an interest in the land comprised in the lease, to the creditor who holds the security,
  - (c) to such other persons as the Scottish Ministers may prescribe by regulations.
- (5) Where—
  - (a) the tenant acquired a right to buy the land comprised in the lease under section 28, and
  - (b) the right to buy was extinguished under section 29(6) or 32(8), the tenant may apply for an order for sale only if the period of 12 months, beginning with the date on which the right to buy was extinguished, has expired.

38B      Order for sale S

- (1) The Land Court may make an order for sale if satisfied that—
  - (a) the landlord has failed to comply with the order or award mentioned in section 38A(1)—
    - (i) in a material regard, and
    - (ii) by the date specified in the order or, as the case may be, the award,
  - (b) the failure substantially and adversely affects the tenant's ability to fulfil the tenant's responsibilities to farm the holding in accordance with the rules of good husbandry,
  - (c) greater hardship would be caused by not making the order than by making it, and
  - (d) in all the circumstances it is appropriate.
- (2) The Land Court may make an order for sale despite the fact that the owner is subject to a legal incapacity or disability which would affect the owner's ability to transfer or otherwise deal with the land in respect of which the order is made.
- (3) Where the owner is subject to an enforceable personal obligation to transfer the land to a person other than the tenant, the Land Court may not make an order for sale unless—
  - (a) the transfer is a transfer mentioned in subsection (4), and
  - (b) the transfer—
    - (i) is or forms part of a scheme or arrangement or is one of a series of transfers, and
    - (ii) the main purpose or effect, or one of the main purposes or effects, of the scheme, arrangement or, as the case may be, series is the avoidance of the making of an order for sale.
- (4) The transfer referred to in subsection (3) is a transfer—
  - (a) otherwise than for value,
  - (b) between spouses in pursuance of an arrangement between them entered into at any time after they have ceased living together,

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/2017.

Changes to legislation: Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 December 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) between companies in the same group, or
- (d) in consequence of—
  - (i) the assumption, resignation or death of one or more of the partners in a partnership, or
  - (ii) the assumption, resignation or death of one or more of the trustees of a trust.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4)(c), companies are in the same group if they are, or are included in a number of, companies which, by virtue of section 170 of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992, together form a group for the purposes of sections 171 to 181 of that Act.
- (6) The Land Court must give notice of the making of the order to—
  - (a) the landlord,
  - (b) the owner (where the owner is not the landlord),
  - (c) where there is a heritable security over an interest in the land comprised in the lease, the creditor who holds the security,
  - (d) the Keeper of the Registers of Scotland,
  - (e) such other persons as the Scottish Ministers may prescribe by regulations.
- (7) In subsection (1)(b), what is good husbandry is to be construed by reference to schedule 6 of the Agriculture (Scotland) Act 1948.
- (8) In this Part, “owner” includes a person in whom the land is vested for the purposes of any enactment relating to—
  - (a) sequestration, bankruptcy, winding-up or incapacity, or
  - (b) the purposes for which judicial factors may be appointed.

38C Effect of order for sale: prohibition of transfer etc. S

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision prohibiting persons from transferring or otherwise dealing with land in respect of which an order for sale has been made under section 38B.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may in particular include provision—
  - (a) specifying the persons to whom the prohibition is to apply,
  - (b) specifying the period during which the prohibition is to apply,
  - (c) specifying transfers or dealings which are and are not prohibited by the regulations,
  - (d) requiring information to be incorporated in deeds relating to the land (including specifying the information that is to be incorporated, the circumstances in which it is to be incorporated and the deeds in which it is to be incorporated),
  - (e) requiring such information to be removed and the circumstances in which it is to be so removed.

38D Effect of order for sale: suspension of rights S

- (1) Where an order for sale is made under section 38B, the rights mentioned in subsection (3) are—
  - (a) suspended as from the date when the Land Court makes the order, and

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/2017.

Changes to legislation: Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 December 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) revived—
  - (i) when a transfer by virtue of the order is completed, or
  - (ii) if such a transfer is not completed before the end of the period mentioned in subsection (2), or if the order for sale ceases to have effect, on the end of that period or on the order ceasing to have effect, whichever occurs first.
- (2) The period referred to in subsection (1)(b)(ii) is whichever of the following periods ends later—
  - (a) the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which notice under section 38E(3) is given, or
  - (b) such longer period fixed by or agreed under section 38F(4) or, as the case may be, specified in an order under section 38I(4)(b)(ii).
- (3) The rights referred to in subsection (1) are any rights—
  - (a) of pre-emption, redemption or reversion, or
  - (b) deriving from any other option to purchase, exercisable over the land in respect of which the order for sale has been made.
- (4) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision about the suspension and revival of other rights in or over land in respect of which an order for sale has been made.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (4) may in particular include provision specifying—
  - (a) the rights to which the regulations do and do not apply,
  - (b) the period during which such rights are suspended,
  - (c) the circumstances in which the rights are revived (which may include the ending of a period as specified in the regulations).
- (6) Nothing in this section—
  - (a) affects the operation of an inhibition on the sale of the land,
  - (b) prevents an action of adjudication from proceeding, or
  - (c) affects the commencement, execution or operation of any other diligence.

38E      Tenant's right to buy S

- (1) Where—
  - (a) an order for sale is made under section 38B, and
  - (b) the period within which an appeal against the making of the order may be brought has expired without an appeal being brought or, where such an appeal has been brought, it has been abandoned or dismissed, the tenant has the right to buy the land in respect of which the order has been made from the owner.
- (2) Where a tenant has a right to buy under subsection (1), the tenant may proceed in accordance with section 38F to buy the land from the owner provided that notice is given under subsection (3).
- (3) Notice is given under this subsection if, before the period mentioned in subsection (4) has expired, the tenant gives notice that the tenant intends to buy the land to—
  - (a) the owner,
  - (b) the Keeper of the Registers of Scotland, and

---

- (c) the Land Court.
- (4) That period is the period of 28 days beginning with—
  - (a) the day after the last day on which an appeal may be brought (no appeal having been brought), or
  - (b) an appeal having been brought, the day after the day on which the appeal was abandoned or dismissed.
- (5) If at any time the tenant does not intend to proceed in accordance with section 38F to buy the land, the tenant must give notice of that fact to—
  - (a) the owner,
  - (b) the Keeper of the Registers of Scotland, and
  - (c) the Land Court.
- (6) Where the tenant—
  - (a) does not give notice under subsection (3), or
  - (b) gives notice under subsection (5),the tenant's right to buy is extinguished.

Procedure for buying and valuation

38F Procedure for buying S

- (1) It is for the tenant to make the offer to buy in exercise of the tenant's right to buy under section 38E.
- (2) The offer is to be at a price—
  - (a) agreed between the tenant and the person from whom the land is to be bought (“the seller”), or
  - (b) where there is no such agreement—
    - (i) payable by the tenant in accordance with section 34(8), or
    - (ii) if the price is determined in an appeal under section 37, as is so determined.
- (3) The offer must specify the date of entry and of payment of the price in accordance with subsection (4).
- (4) The date of entry and of payment of the price are to be—
  - (a) a date not later than 6 months from the date when the tenant gave notice under section 38E(3) of the tenant's intention to buy,
  - (b) where the price payable by the tenant is the subject of an appeal under section 37 which has not, before the expiry of the period of 4 months beginning with the date when the tenant gave such notice, been—
    - (i) determined, or
    - (ii) abandoned following agreement between the tenant and the seller, a date not later than 2 months after the appeal is so determined or, as the case may be, abandoned, or
  - (c) such later date as may be agreed between the tenant and the seller.
- (5) The offer may include such other reasonable conditions as are necessary or expedient to secure the efficient progress and completion of the transfer.

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/2017.

Changes to legislation: Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 December 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) The seller must—
- (a) make available to the tenant such deeds and other documents as are sufficient to enable the tenant to proceed to complete title to the land,
  - (b) transfer title accordingly.

38G Appointment of valuer and valuation of the land S

- (1) The provisions mentioned in subsection (2) apply to a sale implementing a tenant's right to buy by virtue of an order for sale as they apply to a sale implementing a tenant's right to buy under section 28, subject to the modifications mentioned in that subsection.
- (2) Those provisions are—
- (a) section 33 (appointment of valuer), subject to the modifications that—
    - (i) in subsection (2), the reference to section 29(2) or (4) is to be read as a reference to section 38E(3),
    - (ii) subsection (5) does not apply,
  - (b) section 34 (valuation of land), subject to the modifications that—
    - (i) in subsection (1), the reference to the date of notice under section 26 of the seller's proposal to transfer the land is to be read as a reference to the date of notice under section 38E(3),
    - (ii) in subsection (8), the reference to section 32(2)(b)(i) is to be read as a reference to section 38F(2)(b)(i),
  - (c) section 35 (special provision where buyer is general partner in limited partnership), subject to the modification that the reference to section 28 is to be read as a reference to section 38E,
  - (d) section 36 (further provision on valuation), subject to the modifications that—
    - (i) in subsection (6)(a), the reference to section 32(7) is to be read as a reference to section 38I(3),
    - (ii) the following subsection is to be inserted after subsection (6)—

“(6A) Where—

      - (a) the Land Court has made an order under section 38H(3),
      - (b) the seller to whom the order applies has complied with the order, and
      - (c) the tenant does not proceed with the purchase of the land from the seller, the tenant is liable to the seller for any expenses met by the seller by virtue of subsection (5).”

  - (e) section 37 (appeal to the Lands Tribunal against valuation), subject to the modification that, in subsection (3)(b), the reference to section 32(2)(b)(ii) is to be read as a reference to section 38F(2)(b)(ii), and
  - (f) section 38 (referral of certain matters by the Lands Tribunal to the Land Court).

38H Failure of seller to complete transaction S

- (1) If the seller has not, within the period fixed by or agreed under section 38F(4)—

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/2017.

Changes to legislation: Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 December 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) complied with section 38F(6)(a), or
  - (b) done any of the things mentioned in subsection (2),
- the tenant may apply to the Land Court for an order under subsection (3).

(2) The things are—

- (a) concluding missives for the sale of the land, or
- (b) taking all steps which the seller could reasonably have taken in the time available towards so concluding missives.

(3) An order under this subsection may—

- (a) direct the seller to comply with section 38F(6)(a) within such period as the order may specify,
- (b) direct the seller—
  - (i) to conclude missives, and
  - (ii) to take such remedial action for the purpose of so concluding missives,within such period as the order may specify, and
- (c) direct the tenant and seller to incorporate into the missives any term or condition in respect of the sale of the land as the order may specify.

(4) If the seller fails to comply—

- (a) with an order under subsection (3), or
- (b) with section 38F(6)(b),

the Land Court may, on the application of the tenant, authorise its principal clerk to adjust, execute and deliver such deeds or other documents as will complete the transfer of ownership of the land to the tenant to the same force and effect as if done by the seller.

38I Failure of tenant to complete transaction S

(1) If the tenant has not, within the period fixed by or agreed under section 38F(4), done any of the things mentioned in subsection (2), the seller may apply to the Land Court for an order under subsection (3).

(2) The things are—

- (a) concluding missives for the sale of the land, or
- (b) taking all steps which the tenant could reasonably have taken in the time available towards so concluding missives.

(3) An order under this subsection may—

- (a) direct the tenant—
  - (i) to conclude missives, and
  - (ii) to take such remedial action for the purpose of so concluding missives,within such period as the order may specify, and
- (b) direct the tenant and seller to incorporate into the missives any term or condition in respect of the sale of the land as the order may specify.

(4) The right to buy is extinguished if—

- (a) the tenant fails to comply with an order under subsection (3), or

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/2017.

Changes to legislation: Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 December 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) no order having been applied for under section 38H(3) or under subsection (3), missives have not been concluded before the end of—
  - (i) the period of 12 months beginning with the date when the tenant gave notice under section 38E(3) of the tenant's intention to buy, or
  - (ii) such longer period as the Land Court may, on the application of the tenant, order.

38J      Completion of sale to tenant S

- (1) The price paid for the transfer of ownership of the land to the tenant is to be paid not later than the final settlement date.
- (2) The “final settlement date” is the date on which the period, fixed or agreed under section 38F(4) or, as the case may be, specified in an order under section 38I(4)(b) (ii), expires.
- (3) Where, on the final settlement date, the seller is not able to effect the grant of a good and marketable title to the tenant—
  - (a) the price, or
  - (b) if, for any reason, the price has not been ascertained, such sum as may be fixed by the valuer appointed under section 33, is to be consigned into the Land Court until that title is granted, the tenant gives notice under section 38E(5) to the court of the tenant's decision not to proceed to complete the transaction or, as the case may be, the Land Court orders its release.
- (4) Except where subsection (3) applies, where the price remains unpaid after the date not later than which it is to be paid, the tenant's right to buy is extinguished.
- (5) Any heritable security which burdened the land immediately before title is granted to the tenant in pursuance of this section ceases to do so on the registration of that title in the Land Register of Scotland.
- (6) Where such a security also burdens land other than the land in respect of which title is granted to the tenant, the security does not, by virtue of subsection (5), cease to burden that other land.
- (7) Unless the creditors holding any such security otherwise agree, the tenant must pay to them according to their respective rights and preferences any sum which would, but for this subsection, be paid to the seller by the tenant as the price for the land.
- (8) Any sum paid by a tenant under subsection (7) is to be deducted from the sum which the tenant is to pay to the seller as the price for the land.
- (9) Any legal incapacity or disability of an owner has no effect on the title passed to a tenant to which land has been sold in accordance with this Part.

38K      Effect of extinguishing of right to buy S

- (1) Where a right to buy is extinguished under section 38E(6), 38I(4) or 38J(4), the tenant may acquire a subsequent right to buy the same land or any part of it under section 28(1) but only if the conditions mentioned in subsection (2) are met.
- (2) Those conditions are that—

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/2017.

Changes to legislation: Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 December 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the period of 12 months from the extinguishing of the right to buy under section 38E(6), 38I(4) or 38J(4) has expired, or
- (b) before that period has expired—
  - (i) the land is transferred to another person whether under an order for sale or otherwise, and
  - (ii) that person requires to give notice under section 26 in relation to a subsequent transfer.

Sale to third party

38L Sale to third party S

- (1) This section applies where a tenant's right to buy land in respect of which an order for sale has been made is extinguished under section 38E(6), 38I(4) or 38J(4).
- (2) The tenant may, before the expiry of the period mentioned in subsection (3), apply to the Land Court for the order for sale to be varied to allow the land in respect of which the order has been made to be offered for sale on the open market.
- (3) That period is the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the right to buy was extinguished.
- (4) The tenant must give notice of the application—
  - (a) to the owner,
  - (b) where there is a heritable security over an interest in the land to which the application relates, to the creditor who holds the security,
  - (c) to such other persons as the Scottish Ministers may prescribe by regulations.
- (5) The Land Court may, if it considers it appropriate in all the circumstances, grant the application and vary the order for sale to require the land to be offered for sale on the open market.
- (6) Where—
  - (a) no application is made under subsection (2), or
  - (b) the Land Court refuses such an application,the order for sale ceases to have effect.

38M Procedure for sale to third party S

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision about the sale of land in relation to which the Land Court has, under section 38L, varied an order for sale to allow the land to be offered for sale on the open market.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may in particular include provision about—
  - (a) the appointment of a person to sell the land,
  - (b) the valuation of the land (including the appointment of a valuer, who need not be a different person to the person appointed to sell the land),
  - (c) the procedure for the sale of the land (including sale by private bargain or by public roup),
  - (d) the period within which the land is to be sold (including provision for applications to the Land Court to extend such a period),

Changes to legislation: Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 December 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (e) the persons to whom the land cannot be sold,
  - (f) the powers of the person appointed to sell the land, including powers to adjust, execute or deliver any deeds or other documents necessary to complete the transfer of ownership of the land,
  - (g) the duties of the person appointed to sell the land, which must include—
    - (i) a duty to ensure that the price at which the land is sold is the best that can reasonably be obtained, and
    - (ii) a duty to compensate any person who incurs a loss caused as a result of the appointed person's negligence in the sale of the land,
  - (h) the distribution of the proceeds of sale,
  - (i) liability for any expenses incurred by the person appointed to sell or value the land,
  - (j) reports by the person appointed to sell the land to the Land Court,
  - (k) the effect on any rights such as are mentioned in section 38D(3),
  - (l) the effect on any heritable securities which burden the land in respect of which the order for sale has been made,
  - (m) what happens if the land is not sold within a period specified in the regulations.
- (3) Regulations under subsection (1) may apply the provisions of this Act, that apply to the sale of land comprised in a lease to a tenant by virtue of an order for sale, to the sale of such land on the open market, with or without modifications.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (1) may modify any enactment (including this Act).

Post-sale obligations

38N      Restriction on notice to quit etc. where sale to third party S

- (1) This section applies where a third party buys the land comprised in the lease of a 1991 Act tenancy by virtue of an order for sale varied under section 38L.
- (2) During the period of 10 years beginning with the date the third party acquired title to the land, sections 22 to 24, 26 and 43 of the 1991 Act have effect in relation to the tenancy subject to the following modifications.
- (3) Section 22(2) has effect as if—
- (a) paragraphs (a) and (b) were omitted,
  - (b) for paragraph (c) there were substituted—
    - “(c) the Land Court, on an application made—
      - (i) by a landlord who bought the land constituting the tenancy by virtue of an order for sale varied under section 38L of the Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 Act,
      - (ii) not more than 9 months before the giving of the notice to quit, granted a certificate under section 26(1) that the tenant was not fulfilling the tenant's responsibilities to farm the holding in accordance with the rules of good husbandry,” and
  - (c) for “any of paragraphs (a) to (f)” there were substituted “ any of paragraphs (c) to (f) ”.

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/2017.

Changes to legislation: Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 December 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Section 24(1)(e) has effect as if, for “not falling within section 22(2)(b) of this Act”, there were substituted “ and, in a case where the use requires permission under the enactments relating to town and country planning, such permission has been obtained ”.
- (5) Section 26 has effect as if, after subsection (1), there were inserted—
- “(1A) The Land Court must not grant a certificate under subsection (1) where subsection (1B) applies.
- (1B) This subsection applies where—
- (a) the application under subsection (1) is made by a landlord who bought the land constituting the tenancy by virtue of an order for sale varied under section 38L of the Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 Act (the “2003 Act”), and
  - (b) the tenant's failure to farm in accordance with the rules of good husbandry is attributable to a material breach of the former landlord's obligations in relation to the tenant on the basis of which the Land Court made the order under section 84(1)(b) of the 2003 Act referred to in section 38A(1)(a) of that Act.”.

(6) Section 43 has effect as if, for subsection (2), there were substituted—

“(2) Compensation is not payable under this section where—

    - (a) the notice to quit relates to land being permanent pasture which the landlord has been in the habit of letting annually for seasonal grazing or of keeping in the landlord's own occupation and which has been let to the tenant for a definite and limited period for cultivation as arable land on condition that the tenant must, along with the last or waygoing crop, sow permanent grass seeds, or
    - (b) the application of section 22(1) to the notice to quit is excluded by any of paragraphs (c) to (f) of subsection (2) of that section.”.

380 Payment to former landlord where early resale S

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) a tenant or, as the case may be, a third party (the “original buyer”) buys land under an order for sale made in respect of the land, and
  - (b) the land is subsequently sold—
    - (i) before the end of the period of 10 years beginning with the date on which the original buyer acquired title to the land (the “original date”),
    - (ii) at a price higher than the price paid by the original buyer to the person from whom the land was bought (the “original seller”).
- (2) The original buyer must pay to the original seller a proportion of the difference between the price at which the land is subsequently sold and the price paid by the original buyer to the original seller.
- (3) The proportion of the difference which must be paid to the original seller is to be—
- (a) 100 per cent where the subsequent sale occurs before the end of the period of 5 years beginning with the original date,
  - (b) 66 per cent where it occurs after the end of that period but before the end of the period of 8 years beginning with that date,

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/2017.

Changes to legislation: Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 December 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) 33 per cent where it occurs after the end of the period of 8 years beginning with that date.
- (4) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision about the payment that the original buyer must make to the original seller.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (4) may in particular include provision about—
  - (a) the exclusion, for the purposes of subsection (2), of so much of the price at which the land is subsequently sold as is attributable to an increase in the value of the land resulting from such causes as may be specified in the regulations (which may include improvements of the kind mentioned in schedule 5 of the 1991 Act),
  - (b) payment where part only of the land bought under the order for sale is subsequently sold within the period of 10 years mentioned in subsection (1) (b),
  - (c) the granting of standard securities over the land in relation to the liability to make a payment under this section (including the priority of such securities in relation to any other securities over the land),
  - (d) circumstances in which no liability to make a payment under this section arises.

38P Compensation S

- (1) Any person, including an owner or former owner of land comprised in the lease of a 1991 Act tenancy, who has incurred loss or expense—
  - (a) in complying with the requirements of this Part following the making of an application by a tenant under section 38A(2) or 38L(2), or
  - (b) where the tenant gave notice under section 38E(3) of the tenant's intention to buy the land, as a result of the failure of the tenant or the seller to complete the purchase, is entitled to recover the amount of that loss or expense from the Scottish Ministers.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision about—
  - (a) the losses and expenses which may and may not be compensated,
  - (b) the procedure for claiming compensation (including who determines whether compensation is payable),
  - (c) the amount of compensation payable (including the manner in which such compensation is calculated).
- (3) Where, at the expiry of such period of time as may be fixed for the purposes of this subsection by regulations under subsection (2)(b), any question as to whether compensation is payable or as to the amount of any compensation payable has not been settled as between the parties, either of them may refer the question to the Lands Tribunal for Scotland.]

PART 3 S

USE OF AGRICULTURAL LAND: DIVERSIFICATION

39 Use of land for non-agricultural purposes S

- (1) A—
- (a) 1991 Act tenancy; <sup>F56</sup>...
  - (b) tenancy under a lease constituting a limited duration tenancy,
  - [<sup>F57</sup>(c) tenancy under a lease constituting a modern limited duration tenancy, or
  - (d) tenancy under a lease constituting a repairing tenancy,]
- does not cease to be such a tenancy by reason only that the land is used for a non-agricultural purpose.
- (2) Any term of the lease which prohibits the use of the land for a non-agricultural purpose is of no effect.
- (3) Where—
- (a) subletting the land is prohibited (by the lease or otherwise); and
  - (b) that prohibition impedes the use of the land for a non-agricultural purpose,
- the tenant may, despite the prohibition, sublet the land provided that the purpose for which it is sublet is ancillary to the tenant’s use of the land for the non-agricultural purpose.
- (4) Subsections (1) to (3) do not apply if the use of the land for a non-agricultural purpose is otherwise than has been permitted under section 40 or 41.
- (5) In this section and sections 40 and 41, any reference to the land is a reference to the whole of the land comprised in the lease constituting the tenancy or any part of it.

40 Notice of and objection to diversification S

- (1) A tenant under a tenancy mentioned in section 39(1) who intends to use the land for a non-agricultural purpose must send a notice (in this section and [<sup>F58</sup>in sections 40A and 41] referred to as a “notice of diversification”) to the landlord.
- (2) The notice of diversification must be given in writing not less than 70 days before the date on which the tenant proposes to commence using the land for that purpose and must specify—
- (a) what the non-agricultural purpose is;
  - (b) the land that would be used for that purpose;

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/2017.

Changes to legislation: Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 16 December 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) any changes to the land the tenant proposes to effect for that purpose; and
  - (d) the date on which the tenant proposes to commence using the land for that purpose,
- and must address such matters as may constitute any ground of objection mentioned in subsection (9)(a)(i) to (iii).
- (3) Where—
- (a) the tenant proposes to effect changes to the land for the non-agricultural purpose; or
  - (b) the tenant's intended use of the land for that purpose is in furtherance of a business,
- the notice must also specify how the changes are, or, as the case may be, the business is (so far as relating to the land), to be financed and managed.
- (4) Where a notice of diversification is given in accordance with subsections (2) and (3), and the landlord does not object to the notice, the land may be used—
- (a) for the purpose specified under paragraph (a), and as specified under paragraphs (b) and (c), of subsection (2); and
  - (b) from the appointed date,
- subject to any conditions imposed under subsection (10).
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4)(b), the appointed date is—
- (a) the date specified under subsection (2)(d);
  - [<sup>F59</sup>(b) where the landlord has made a request for information under subsection (6), the date falling 70 days from the making of the request, if later than the date so specified,]
  - (c) such earlier date as the landlord and tenant may agree to.
- [<sup>F60</sup>(5A) Where the landlord objects to the notice of diversification, the land may be used for the purpose specified under paragraph (a), and as specified under paragraphs (b) and (c), of subsection (2)—
- (a) only if—
    - (i) the landlord withdraws the objection,
    - (ii) the landlord does not apply under section 40A for a determination in relation to the objection, or
    - (iii) such an application having been made, the Land Court determines under section 41 that the objection is unreasonable,
  - (b) from the relevant date, and
  - (c) subject to any conditions imposed—
    - (i) by the landlord under subsection (14), or
    - (ii) by the Land Court under section 41(2) or (3).
- (5B) For the purposes of subsection (5A)(b), the relevant date is—
- (a) where no application is made under section 40A—
    - (i) the date specified under subsection (2)(d),
    - (ii) if the objection is withdrawn, the date of the withdrawal,
    - (iii) the date the period mentioned in section 40A(3) expires,
 whichever is the later,
  - (b) where an application is made under section 40A, the date fixed by the Land Court under section 41(1)(b)(ii).]

---

- [<sup>F61</sup>(6) The landlord may, on one occasion within 30 days of the giving of the notice of diversification, request the tenant to provide the landlord with relevant information.]
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (6), information is relevant if it—
- (a) relates to—
    - (i) the intended use of the land for the non-agricultural purpose (including any proposed changes to the land); and
    - (ii) where the intended use of the land is in furtherance of a business, the finance or management of the business; and
  - (b) is necessary for the landlord’s consideration of whether or not there are grounds under subsection (9)(a)(i) to (iii) or (b) for objection to the notice of diversification.
- (8) The tenant is to provide any information reasonably requested under subsection (6) within 30 days of the date on which it was requested.
- (9) The landlord may object to the notice of diversification if (and only if)—
- (a) the landlord reasonably considers that the intended use of the land for the non-agricultural purpose (including any proposed changes to the land) would—
    - (i) lessen significantly the amenity of the land or the surrounding area;
    - (ii) substantially prejudice the use of the land for agricultural purposes in the future;
    - (iii) be detrimental to the sound management of the estate of which the land consists or forms part; or
    - (iv) cause the landlord to suffer undue hardship;
  - (b) where the notice specifies a matter mentioned in subsection (3), the landlord reasonably considers that it fails to demonstrate that the proposed changes are, or, as the case may be, the business (so far as relating to the land) is, viable; or
  - (c) the tenant has failed to comply with subsection (8).
- (10) Where the landlord does not object to the notice of diversification, the landlord may impose on the tenant any reasonable conditions in relation to the use of the land for the non-agricultural purpose (including in relation to any proposed changes to the land).
- (11) The landlord is, within the period mentioned in subsection (12), to notify the tenant in writing—
- (a) of any objection to the notice of diversification (and the grounds for the objection) or, as the case may be, of the fact that the landlord does not object to the notice; and
  - (b) where the landlord does not object to the notice, of any conditions imposed under subsection (10) (and the reasons for imposing them).
- (12) The period is—
- [<sup>F62</sup>(a) where the landlord has made a request for information under subsection (6), 60 days from the making of the request,]
  - (b) where the landlord has made no such request, 60 days from the giving of the notice of diversification.
- (13) If no notification is given in accordance with subsections (11) and (12), the landlord is, except where the non-agricultural purpose is the planting and cropping of trees, deemed not to have objected to the notice of diversification nor to have imposed any conditions in relation to use of, or changes to, the land.

- [<sup>F63</sup>(14) Where the landlord withdraws the objection under subsection (9) before the expiry of the period mentioned in section 40A(3), the landlord—
- (a) must notify the tenant in writing of the withdrawal, and
  - (b) may impose any conditions as mentioned in subsection (10) and, where such conditions are imposed, must, at the same time as notifying the tenant of the withdrawal of the objection, notify the tenant in writing of the conditions (and the reasons for imposing them).]

- (b) by executing work which the landlord was required, at the time the lease was entered into and by virtue of section 5(2)(a) of this Act, to execute in order to fulfil his obligations under the lease, any term of the lease or of an agreement between the landlord and tenant made before the coming into force of this section which purports to provide that the amount of compensation payable to the tenant for the improvement is less than the amount of compensation to which the tenant is entitled under this Part of this Act for the improvement (or that no compensation is payable) shall not apply in relation to such part or proportion of the improvement as the landlord would have been so required to carry out in order to fulfil those obligations.”.

(2) The following provisions of that Act (which relate to agreements as to compensation for improvements) are repealed—

- (a) in section 34, paragraph (b) of subsection (4);
- (b) in section 37, subsection (2); and
- (c) in section 38, subsection (5).

51 Compensation arising as a result of diversification etc. S

- (1) After section 45 (compensation to landlord for deterioration etc.) of the 1991 Act there is inserted—

“45A Compensation arising as a result of diversification and cropping of trees

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, the landlord of an agricultural holding shall be entitled to recover from the tenant, on his quitting the holding on termination of the tenancy, compensation where the landlord shows that the value of the holding has been reduced during the tenancy by the use, on or after the coming into force of this section, of the holding for a purpose which is not an agricultural purpose; and the amount of compensation payable shall be an amount equal to the reduction in the value of the holding.
- (2) Where there are trees on the holding which were planted—
- by the tenant on or after the coming into force of this section; and
  - for future cropping,
- the landlord or tenant shall be entitled to recover from the other, on the tenant quitting the holding on the termination of the tenancy, compensation calculated in accordance with subsections (3) and (4) below.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) above, at the termination of the tenancy—
- the trees shall be valued on the basis of their worth to a willing purchaser for future cropping; and
  - there shall be evaluated any loss of rent to the landlord which would be incurred by his retaining the trees until the likely date of cropping added to the cost to him of returning the land to agricultural use after cropping.
- (4) If the value reached under paragraph (a) of subsection (3) above is—
- greater than that reached under paragraph (b) of that subsection, the tenant shall be entitled to the difference between the values as compensation;
  - less than that reached under paragraph (b) of that subsection, the landlord shall be entitled to the difference between the values as compensation.
- (5) Where the value of an agricultural holding has been increased during the tenancy by such use of the land or part of the land, or such change to the land, for a purpose that is not an agricultural purpose—
- as occurred on or after the coming into force of this section; and
  - as had been permitted under section 40 or 41 of the Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 11), such compensation as fairly represents the value of the use, change or carrying out of the activities to an incoming tenant.

(6) In ascertaining the amount of compensation payable under subsection (5) above—

(a) there shall be taken into account any benefit which the landlord has agreed in writing to give the tenant in consideration of the matters referred to in that subsection; and

(b) where a grant has been or will be made to the tenant in respect of those matters, subject to the conditions of the grant—

(i) if either the landlord or tenant has not made or will not make a contribution towards the cost of the improvement, or neither of them has made or will make such a contribution, the grant shall not be taken into account;

(ii) in any other case, there shall be taken into account such proportion of the grant as equals the proportion of the contribution by the tenant towards the cost of the improvement as a proportion of the total of his contribution added to that of the landlord.

(7) No compensation is payable under subsection (5) above if, owing to—

(a) any of the matters referred to in that subsection, the land is unsuitable for use for agriculture by an incoming tenant; or

(b) any use of fixed equipment in connection with any of those matters, the landlord would, at the commencement of an incoming tenant's tenancy, be unable to fulfil his obligations under the lease as to fixed equipment, in so far as those matters or, as the case may be, that use is attributable to those facts.

(8) Where the tenant has remained in occupation of the holding during two or more tenancies, he shall not be deprived of his right to compensation under this section by reason only that the use of the land or change to the land did not occur during the tenancy on the termination of which he quits the holding.”

    - (ii) the references to the rent in subsection (4)(a) and (b) of that section were references to the rent proportionate to the part.
- (3) Where the tenancy terminates as mentioned in subsection (1)(b) and—
- (a) the part of the land affected by the notice under subsection (2) of section 17, together with any part of the land resumed following a previous such notice is—
    - (i) less than a quarter of the original area of the land comprised in the lease constituting the tenancy; or
    - (ii) of a rental value less than a quarter of the rental value of that area of land; and
  - (b) the remainder of the land is reasonably capable of being farmed separately, compensation is payable under subsection (1) only in respect of the part of the land to which the notice relates.
- (4) In a case mentioned in subsection (2)(c), in determining the amount of compensation payable, account is to be taken of any benefit or relief allowed to the tenant under the lease in respect of the part resumed.
- (5) Where compensation is payable under subsection (1)(a), in addition to that compensation, compensation is payable by the landlord to the tenant of an amount equal to the additional benefit (if any) which would have accrued to the tenant if the land (instead of being resumed on the date of resumption) had been resumed on the expiry of the period of 12 months from the end of the year of tenancy current at the date 2 months before the date of resumption.

CHAPTER 3 S

COMPENSATION WHERE COMPULSORY ACQUISITION OF LAND

54 Compensation where compulsory acquisition of land S

- (1) Subject to subsection (4), this subsection applies where, in pursuance of any enactment providing for the acquisition or taking of possession of land compulsorily, any person (the “acquiring authority”) acquires the interest of the tenant under, or takes possession of the land or any part of the land comprised in a lease constituting, a short limited duration tenancy <sup>F83</sup>, a limited duration tenancy or a modern limited duration tenancy]
- (2) Where subsection (1) applies, compensation for disturbance is payable by the acquiring authority to the tenant of an amount equal to four times the annual rent of the land or, in the case of part of the land, four times the annual rent proportionate to that part.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the tenant is deemed not to be the tenant in so far as, immediately before the acquiring of the interest or the taking of possession mentioned in subsection (1), the tenant was not in possession, nor entitled to take possession, of any of the land.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply—
  - (a) where the acquiring authority requires the land or part of the land for the purposes of agricultural research or experiment or of demonstrating agricultural methods; or
  - (b) where the Scottish Ministers acquire the land or part of the land under section 57(1)(c) or 64 of the Agriculture (Scotland) Act 1948 (c. 45).
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4)(a), where an acquiring authority exercises, in relation to any land, power to acquire or take possession of land compulsorily which is conferred on the authority by virtue of section 189 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997 (c. 8) or section 7 of the New Towns (Scotland) Act 1968 (c. 16), the authority is deemed not to require the land for any purpose mentioned in that subsection.
- (6) Schedule 8 to the 1991 Act has effect in relation to payments under subsection (2) as it does in relation to payments under section 56 (additional payments in consequence of compulsory acquisition etc.) of that Act, but as if—
  - (a) the references to sections 54 and 56 of that Act were references to that subsection;
  - (b) the references to sections 13 and 15 of that Act were references to sections 9 and 10 of this Act respectively; and
  - (c) any reference to, or in relation to, statutory small tenants were omitted.
- (7) Any reference in this section to the acquisition of property is a reference to the vesting of the property in the person acquiring it.

CHAPTER 4 S

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISION AS TO COMPENSATION

55 Right to compensation for yielding vacant possession S

- (1) This section applies to—
  - (a) a 1991 Act tenancy; <sup>F84</sup> ...
  - (b) a limited duration tenancy created under section 2<sup>F85</sup>, and
  - (c) a modern limited duration tenancy.]
- (2) Where the landlord wishes to sell the land with vacant possession, the landlord may enter into an agreement in writing with the tenant that—
  - (a) the tenant will give notice of intention to quit and then vacate the land by such date as may be specified in the agreement; and
  - (b) the landlord, having sold the land, will pay to the tenant an amount of compensation for so doing calculated by reference to subsection (3) below.
- (3) That amount is, subject to subsection (8), half of the difference between—
  - (a) the price for which the land is sold; and
  - (b) the estimated value of the land if it had been sold with the tenant still in occupation, minus half of the cost of the valuation carried out for the purposes of paragraph (b).
- (4) Where the tenant wishes to quit the land, the tenant may enter into an agreement in writing with the landlord that—
  - (a) the tenant will give notice of intention to quit and then vacate the land by such date as may be specified in the agreement; and
  - (b) the landlord will pay to the tenant an amount of compensation for so doing calculated by reference to subsection (5) below.
- (5) That amount is, subject to subsection (8), half of the difference between—
  - (a) the estimated value of the land if sold with vacant possession; and
  - (b) the estimated value of the land if sold with the tenant still in occupation, minus half of the cost of the valuations carried out for the purposes of paragraphs (a) and (b).
- (6) Any valuation for the purposes of this section is to be carried out by a valuer appointed by agreement between the landlord and the tenant or by a person nominated by them; and in this section “valuer” includes two valuers with an oversman.
- (7) A valuer appointed or nominated under subsection (6) is to act, so far as practicable, as if the valuation was subject to subsections (2) to (7) of section 34.
- (8) The amount of compensation under subsection (3) or (5) shall take account of—
  - (a) where the tenancy is a limited duration tenancy, the proportion of the term of the tenancy [<sup>F86</sup> or a modern limited duration tenancy] which is unexpired; and

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/2017.

58 Compensation not payable where direction as to permanent pasture S

- (1) Notwithstanding any provision of this Part or any custom or agreement—
- (a) no compensation is payable under this Part (except under paragraph (b)) to the tenant in respect of anything done in pursuance of any direction as to permanent pasture given by virtue of section 15; and
  - (b) in assessing compensation to an outgoing tenant where land has been ploughed up in pursuance of any such direction, the value per hectare of any tenant's pasture (being pasture laid down at the expense of the tenant or paid for by the tenant on entering the tenancy) comprised in the land is to be taken not to exceed the average value per hectare of the whole of the tenant's pasture comprised in the land on the termination of the tenancy.
- (2) Where an improvement specified in Part III of Schedule 5 to the 1991 Act (that Part of that Schedule having effect for the purposes of this subsection and section 15 as it does for the purposes of section 9 of that Act) is carried out for the purposes of any requirement in relation to permanent pasture provided for by virtue of section 15, the tenant is not entitled to compensation for the improvement.

- (2) Where the landlord has failed—
  - (a) in a material regard; and
  - (b) as at the date specified under subsection (2) of that section,to comply with an order to which this subsection applies, the tenant may apply to the Land Court for an order under subsection (3) below.
- (3) An order under this subsection may (either or both)—
  - (a) authorise the tenant to carry out such work as the landlord would have to have carried out for the landlord to comply with the order to which subsection (2) above applies; and
  - (b) authorise the tenant to withhold payment of the rent payable to the landlord in respect of the holding on the condition that the tenant shall consign to the Land Court the amount otherwise so payable.
- (4) The Land Court may, on the application of the tenant, from time to time release to the tenant any of the amount so consigned towards or in satisfaction of any reasonable costs incurred or to be incurred by the tenant for the purposes of or in connection with the carrying out of such work as is mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (3) above.
- (5) The Land Court, on the application of the landlord and having regard to—
  - (a) whether any work mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (3) above remains to be carried out; and
  - (b) any costs mentioned in subsection (4) above,may terminate the order made under subsection (3) above if the Court consider that it would be not be appropriate for the order to remain in force.
- (6) Where the Land Court terminate the order made under subsection (3) above, the Court shall order such division between the landlord and tenant of the amount (or, where any of the amount has been released to the tenant, any remaining amount) consigned under subsection (3)(b) above as the Court consider to be equitable.
- (7) Any work carried out and authorised under subsection (3)(a) above shall be treated as having been carried out at the landlord's expense in so far as the costs of the work have been or are to be satisfied by the release to the tenant of any amount consigned under subsection (3)(b) above.
- (8) Any right of the landlord—
  - (a) to irritate the lease on the grounds of non-payment of rent; or
  - (b) under section 20 or 22 of this Act in relation to non-payment of rent,shall be unenforceable if the non-payment is in consequence of an authorisation under subsection (3)(b) above to withhold rent.
- (9) Any term of the lease or of any agreement between the landlord and tenant that purports to deprive the tenant of any right conferred by virtue of this section shall, in so far as it so purports, be null and void.”.

PART 6 S

RIGHTS OF CERTAIN PERSONS WHERE TENANT IS A PARTNERSHIP

70 Rights of certain persons where tenant is a partnership S*

- (1) Subsection (2) applies to—
- (a) a 1991 Act tenancy if the lease constituting the tenancy is entered into on or after the coming into force of this section; and
  - (b) a tenancy under a lease constituting a short limited duration tenancy [<sup>F93</sup>, a limited duration tenancy, a modern limited duration tenancy or a repairing tenancy],
- where the tenant is a partnership.
- (2) Where this subsection applies and—
- (a) any partner is—
    - (i) the landlord or an associate of the landlord; or
    - (ii) a partnership or a company in which the landlord has a relevant interest; and
  - (b) there is any other partner,
- subsections (3) and (4) apply.
- (3) Where this subsection applies, any partner not mentioned in subsection (2)(a) may exercise or enforce any right of a tenant conferred by virtue of this Act or the 1991 Act as if the partner were the tenant in the partner’s own right.
- (4) Where this subsection applies, if the tenancy purports to be terminated as a consequence of—
- (a) the dissolution of the partnership—
    - (i) in accordance with the partnership agreement; or
    - (ii) due to the actings of any partner mentioned in subsection (2)(a);
  - (b) the renunciation of the tenancy by such a partner; or
  - (c) a breach of the tenancy by such a partner,
- subsection (5) applies.

Status: Point in time view as at 30/11/2017.

- (5) Where this subsection applies, notwithstanding the purported termination of the tenancy—
- (a) the tenancy continues to have effect; and
  - (b) any partner not mentioned in subsection (2)(a) becomes the tenant (or a joint tenant) under the tenancy in the partner’s own right,
- if the partner gives notice to the landlord in accordance with subsection (6).
- (6) Notice is given in accordance with this subsection if—
- (a) it is in writing;
  - (b) it is given within 28 days of the purported termination of the tenancy; and
  - (c) it states that the partner intends to become the tenant (or a joint tenant) under the tenancy in the partner’s own right.
- (7) For the purposes of this section and section 72, a landlord has a relevant interest in a partnership or company if the landlord or an associate of the landlord is—
- (a) a partner in the partnership;
  - (b) a partner in a partnership which forms part of the partnership;
  - (c) a shareholder in the company; or
  - (d) the holder of a standard security or floating charge over an interest in a tenancy where the partnership or the company is a partner in the tenant.
- (8) For the purposes of this section and section 72, a person is an associate of a landlord if the person is—
- (a) where the landlord is a partnership or a company, a partner in the landlord or, as the case may be, a shareholder of the landlord;
  - (b) where an associate of the landlord is a partnership or a company, a partner in or, as the case may be, a shareholder of that associate;
  - (c) an agent of the landlord or of an associate of the landlord; or
  - (d) a member of the landlord’s family.
- (9) The Scottish Ministers may by order modify (either or both) subsections (7) and (8).

- (1) Section 73 applies to a tenancy continuing to have effect by virtue of section 72(6) unless the tenancy is a relevant tenancy.
- (2) If—
  - (a) the tenancy is a relevant tenancy,
  - (b) the circumstances described in subsection (3) do not apply, and
  - (c) the landlord gives an application notice to the tenant within the intimation period,section 73 applies to the tenancy from the date on which the application notice is given.
- (3) The circumstances are that—
  - (a) the landlord purchased the landlord’s interest in the tenancy at a time when it was no longer possible for an order under section 72(8) to be made in respect of the tenancy, or
  - (b) the landlord acquired (by any means) the landlord’s interest in the tenancy from—
    - (i) the landlord who purchased that interest in the circumstances described in paragraph (a), or
    - (ii) a successor of such a landlord.
- (4) In this section—

“application notice” means a notice, in writing, intimating that the landlord may bring the tenancy to an end in accordance with section 73,

“the intimation period” means the period of 12 months beginning on 28th November 2014,

“relevant tenancy” means a tenancy continuing to have effect by virtue of section 72(6) where—
  - (a) the action taken by a limited partner in consequence of which the tenancy was purportedly terminated (being an action described in section 72(3) (a) to (c)) occurred before 1st July 2003,
  - (b) notice was given to the landlord under section 72(6) before the coming into force of this section, and
  - (c) there is no ongoing application for an order under section 72(8) in respect of the tenancy;

“successor” includes the executor, assignee, legatee, donee, guardian, legal representative (within the meaning of Part I of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995) or (in relation to a sequestration) trustee or interim trustee, of a landlord.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a reference to an ongoing application for an order under section 72(8) is a reference to an application made to the Land Court under section 72(7) before the coming into force of this section and which, at that time—
  - (a) has not been finally determined by the Land Court, or
  - (b) is subject to an appeal from that Court which has not been finally determined.]

73 Termination of tenancy continued under section 72 S

- (1) Where this section applies, subsections (1) to (3) and (5) of section 21 (notice to quit and notice of intention to quit) of the 1991 Act do not apply in relation to the bringing of the tenancy to an end by the landlord.
- (2) Subsections (4), (6) and (7) of that section apply in relation to subsections (3) to (5) as they apply in relation to subsections (1) to (3) and (5) of that section.
- (3) The tenancy may be brought to an end by the landlord if the landlord gives a notice under this subsection to the tenant.
- (4) Subject to subsection (7), a notice under subsection (3) must—
  - (a) be in writing and state that the tenant shall quit the land on the expiry of the stipulated endurance of the lease constituting the tenancy (or, where the lease has continued in force by tacit relocation, on the expiry of a period of continuation); and
  - (b) be given not less than one year nor more than two years before the expiry of the stipulated endurance of the lease (or expiry of the period of continuation), provided that not less than 90 days have elapsed from the date on which the intimation mentioned in subsection (5) is given.
- (5) Subject to subsection (7), a notice under subsection (3) is of no effect unless the landlord has given written intimation of the landlord's intention to terminate the tenancy to the tenant not less than two years nor more than three years before the expiry of the stipulated endurance of the lease (or expiry of the period of continuation).
- (6) The landlord may apply to the Land Court for an order under subsection (7).
- (7) An order under this subsection is an order that, instead of the periods of time mentioned in subsections (4) and (5), such shorter periods as the Land Court may specify are to apply.
- (8) The Land Court is to make such an order if (but only if) it is satisfied that—
  - (a) service of the notice mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of section 72, or the thing mentioned in paragraph (b) or (c) of that subsection, occurred otherwise than for the purposes of depriving the tenant (being then a general partner) of any right deriving from section 72; and
  - (b) it is reasonable to make the order.

“60 Resolution of disputes by Land Court

- (1) The Land Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any of the matters referred to in subsection (2) below.
- (2) Those matters are—
  - (a) whether a tenancy of an agricultural holding in relation to which this Act applies exists or has been terminated;
  - (b) any question or difference between the landlord and tenant of such a holding arising out of the tenancy or in connection with the holding, whether such question or difference arises during the currency of or on or after the termination of the tenancy;
  - (c) any claim by the landlord or tenant of such a holding against the other which arises, under this Act or under any rule of law, custom or agreement, on or out of the termination of the tenancy (or part thereof);
  - (d) any other issue of fact or law relating to—
    - (i) a tenancy of such a holding or any other type of agricultural tenancy; or
    - (ii) agriculture,
 which the landlord or tenant reasonably require to have resolved.
- (3) Such matters include, in particular (and without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2) above), any question or difference between the landlord and tenant arising in relation to Part 2 of the Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 11) except any question or difference of fact relating to the determination of the price payable by the tenant for the purposes of that Part of that Act.
- (4) Such matters do not include any question as to—
  - (a) who is entitled to succeed to the estate of a deceased person on intestacy by virtue of the Succession (Scotland) Act 1964 (c. 41);
  - (b) the validity of—
    - (i) any bequest; or
    - (ii) any transfer,
 of an interest under the lease; or
  - (c) whether any such transfer is in the best interests of the estate of a deceased person.
- (5) The Land Court shall also have jurisdiction to hear and determine any question or difference, between the tenant and any person with whom he has in pursuance of section 10A(1) of this Act entered into a contract assigning his interest under the lease, which arises out of or in connection with the assignment.
- (6) Any application to the Land Court for a matter to be determined by the Court under this Act may be made by either party or by them jointly.
- (7) In the application of this section to any question or difference arising in relation to Part 2 of the Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 11), “landlord” shall be construed as including a creditor in a standard security with a right to sell land (that expression being construed by reference to that Part of that Act) which comprises or forms part of an agricultural holding.

76 Arbitrations etc. S

For section 61 (arbitrations) of the 1991 Act there is substituted—

“61 Agreement to refer matters to arbitration

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, where this Act makes provision for any matter to be determined by the Land Court, the matter may, if the landlord and tenant so agree at or after the time when the matter arises, instead of being so determined, be determined by arbitration.
- (2) Subsection (1) above does not apply in relation to any matter which may be determined by the Land Court—
  - (a) in pursuance of section 8(6), 11, 12, 22, 26, 32, 39, 41(1), 55(7) or 66(2) or (2A) of this Act; or
  - (b) on appeal.
- (3) In this Act, other than in section 61A, “arbitration” includes any other method of resolving the matter; and “arbiter” shall be construed accordingly.

61A Arbitration: procedure etc.

- (1) This section applies to any arbitration to which a matter is referred by the landlord and tenant under section 61(1) of this Act.
- (2) The agreement of the parties to refer the matter to arbitration shall have the effect of depriving each party of his right to—
  - (a) have the matter heard (or any issue in relation to the matter determined) by the Land Court (other than on appeal); and
  - (b) agree under section 61(1) of this Act to another method of resolving the matter.
- (3) It shall be for the landlord and tenant to agree whether the arbitration is conducted by—
  - (a) a single arbiter; or
  - (b) two arbiters (with or without an oversman),and the arbiter or, as the case may be, each arbiter, may be appointed by the parties or by a person nominated by them.
- (4) The procedure to be followed at arbitration (including any matters to be taken into account by the arbiter and the matters to be contained in his award) shall, subject to subsection (5) below, be as the parties agree or, in the absence of such agreement, as the arbiter considers appropriate.

- (5) Any provision of this Act that would apply to the Land Court as respects its consideration or determination of any matter had the matter not been referred to arbitration shall apply as respects the consideration or determination of the matter by arbitration.
- (6) Any party to the arbitration may appeal to the Land Court against the arbiter's award on a question of law within 28 days of the award; and in an appeal under this subsection the Court may—
- (a) quash, confirm or vary the award or any part of it; and
  - (b) where the Court quashes the award or any part of it—
    - (i) remit the case to the arbiter for further procedure; and
    - (ii) direct the arbiter on any question of law relevant to the case.

61B Clauses in leases as to resolution of disputes

Any term of—

- (a) a lease of an agricultural holding in relation to which this Act applies; or
- (b) any agreement in connection with such a lease (other than an agreement under section 61(1) of this Act), that makes provision restricting any right of a landlord or tenant to apply to the Land Court under this Act to have a matter determined by the Court shall, in so far as it makes that provision, be null and void.”
