4ZB General functions of NCF

The general functions of NCF are—

- (a) to provide means for persons who were placed in institutional care as children to describe in confidence (such descriptions being referred to in this Act as “testimony”)—
  - (i) experiences of that care,
  - (ii) any abuse experienced during the period spent in that care,
- (b) to acknowledge testimony by enabling it to be given at hearings established by NCF or by written or other means,
- (c) based on testimony received—
  - (i) to identify any patterns and trends in the experiences of persons placed in institutional care as children (including the causes, nature, scale and circumstances of any abuse experienced), and
  - (ii) to make recommendations about policy and practice which NCF considers will improve institutional care (including by protecting children from, and preventing or reducing the incidence of, abuse),
- (d) while preserving the anonymity of participants, establishments providing institutional care and other persons, to prepare reports of the testimony it receives and its recommendations in relation to them,
- (e) to provide information about advice and assistance available to persons giving, or proposing to give, testimony.
