

Transport (Scotland) Act 2005

2005 asp 12

PART 3

MISCELLANEOUS

40 National travel concession schemes

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may, by order, make national travel concession schemes.
- (2) A national travel concession scheme is a scheme for the provision of travel concessions to eligible persons travelling on eligible services on eligible journeys.
- (3) A national travel concession scheme may operate throughout Scotland or only in a part or parts of Scotland; and, in any case, may provide differently for different areas.
- (4) A national travel concession scheme shall include provision—
  - (a) determining or for the determination of the rate or rates of travel concessions;
  - (b) specifying or for the specification of the days and times during which travel concessions are provided;
  - (c) requiring or enabling operators of eligible services to provide travel concessions;
  - (d) as to the reimbursement of those operators for providing travel concessions;
  - (e) for enforcement of and appeals against requirements under paragraph (c) above; and
  - (f) for such other matters connected with the scheme as the Scottish Ministers think fit.
- (5) A national travel concession scheme may provide for the modification or revocation of any travel concession scheme established under section 93 of the Transport Act 1985 (c. 67) (local authority travel concession schemes).
- (6) An operator of eligible services who fails to comply with an obligation imposed by or under a national travel concession scheme on the operator is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.
- (7) In this section—

“eligible journey”, in relation to a national travel concession scheme, means a journey beginning at or ending in a place in which the scheme operates;
