

Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Scotland) Act 2007

2007 asp 14

PART 1

THE LISTS

Referrals

7 Reference by court

- (1) Where a court convicts an individual of a relevant offence, it must give Ministers any prescribed information that it holds in relation to the convicted individual.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies where a court—
 - (a) convicts an individual of an offence (other than a relevant offence), and
 - (b) is satisfied that it may be appropriate for the individual to be listed in the children's list or in the adults' list (or in both lists).
- (3) Where this subsection applies, the court may give Ministers any prescribed information that the court holds in relation to the convicted individual.
- (4) This section applies in relation to offences committed before and after this section comes into force.