

Adoption and Children (Scotland) Act 2007

2007 asp 4

PART 1

ADOPTION

CHAPTER 2

THE ADOPTION PROCESS

Revocation of supervision requirement

36 Revocation of supervision requirement

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where—
 - (a) the child to be adopted is subject to a supervision requirement, and
 - (b) the appropriate court is satisfied that, were it to make an adoption order in relation to the child, compulsory measures of supervision in respect of the child would no longer be necessary.
- (2) The court must make an order providing that, on the making of the adoption order, the supervision requirement ceases to have effect.