EXPLANATORY NOTES

THE ACT

Part 4 – Duties of Public Bodies Relating to Climate Change

Reporting by monitoring body

92. Section 50 enables the Scottish Ministers to direct a monitoring body to prepare a report on its activities, investigations it has carried out, use of resources and any other matters. Those reports will not normally mention continuing investigations unless the Scottish Ministers direct this. Subsection (3) requires the monitoring body to submit the report to the Scottish Ministers, and subsection (4) requires the Scottish Ministers to lay the report before the Scottish Parliament.
