PART 6

DISCLOSURE

Prosecutor's duty to disclose information

123 Continuing duty of prosecutor

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where the prosecutor has complied with section 121(2)(b) in relation to an accused.
- (2) During the relevant period, the prosecutor must—
 - (a) from time to time review all the information that may be relevant to the case for or against the accused of which the prosecutor is aware, and
 - (b) disclose to the accused any information to which section 121(3) applies.
- (3) As soon as practicable after complying with subsection (2) in relation to an accused who falls within section 121(1)(a) or (b), the prosecutor must disclose to the accused details of any other information that may be relevant to the case for or against the accused of which the prosecutor is aware.
- (4) The prosecutor need not disclose under subsection (3) details of sensitive information.
- (5) In subsection (2)—

“relevant period” means the period—

 - (a) beginning with the prosecutor's compliance with section 121(2)(b) in relation to an accused, and
 - (b) ending with the conclusion of the proceedings against the accused,

“sensitive” has the meaning given by section 122(4).
 - (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), proceedings against an accused are to be taken to be concluded if—
 - (a) a plea of guilty is recorded against the accused,
