

Criminal Justice and Licensing (Scotland) Act 2010 2010 asp 13

PART 2

CRIMINAL LAW

Serious organised crime

28 Involvement in serious organised crime

- (1) A person who agrees with at least one other person to become involved in serious organised crime commits an offence.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), a person agrees to become involved in serious organised crime if the person—
 - (a) agrees to do something (whether or not the doing of that thing would itself constitute an offence), and
 - (b) knows or suspects, or ought reasonably to have known or suspected, that the doing of that thing will enable or further the commission of serious organised crime.
- (3) For the purposes of this section and sections 29 to 31—
 - "serious organised crime" means crime involving two or more persons acting together for the principal purpose of committing or conspiring to commit a serious offence or a series of serious offences,
 - "serious offence" means an indictable offence—
 - (a) committed with the intention of obtaining a material benefit for any person, or
 - (b) which is an act of violence committed or a threat made with the intention of obtaining such a benefit in the future, and
 - "material benefit" means a right or interest of any description in any property, whether heritable or moveable and whether corporeal or incorporeal.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) is liable—
