Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) The Tax Authority may reimburse the Keeper for any expenditure incurred which is attributable to the exercise by the Keeper of functions delegated under this section.

VALID FROM 01/04/2015

56 Review and appeal

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may, by regulations, make provision for—
- (a) the review by the Tax Authority, on the application of a specified person, of any specified kind of decision by the Tax Authority,
 - (b) the appeal by a specified person to a tribunal or court against any specified kind of decision by the Tax Authority.
- (2) Regulations under this section may modify any provision made by or under this Act.
- (3) In this section, “specified” means specified in the regulations.

VALID FROM 01/04/2015

Linked transactions

57 Linked transactions

- (1) Transactions are linked for the purposes of this Act if they form part of a single scheme, arrangement or series of transactions between the same seller and buyer or, in either case, persons connected with them.
- (2) Where there are two or more linked transactions with the same effective date, the buyer, or all of the buyers if there is more than one, may make a single return as if all of those transactions that are notifiable were a single notifiable transaction.
- (3) Where two or more buyers make a single return in respect of linked transactions, section 48 applies as if—
- (a) the transaction in question were a single transaction, and
 - (b) those buyers were buyers acting jointly.
- (4) This section is subject to section 13(1) (exchanges).

VALID FROM 01/04/2015

Interpretation

59 Meaning of “residential property”

- (1) In this Act “residential property” means—
- (a) a building that is used or is suitable for use as a dwelling, or is in the process of being constructed or adapted for such use,
 - (b) land that is or forms part of the garden or grounds of a building within paragraph (a) (including any building or other structure on such land), or
 - (c) an interest in or right over land that subsists for the benefit of a building within paragraph (a) or of land within paragraph (b).
- (2) Accordingly, “non-residential property” means any property that is not residential property.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1) a building used for any of the following purposes is used as a dwelling—
- (a) residential accommodation for school pupils,
 - (b) residential accommodation for students, other than accommodation falling within subsection (4)(b),
 - (c) residential accommodation for members of the armed forces,
 - (d) an institution that is the sole or main residence of at least 90% of its residents and does not fall within any of paragraphs (a) to (f) of subsection (4).
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1) a building used for any of the following purposes is not used as a dwelling—
- (a) a home or other institution providing residential accommodation for children,
 - (b) a hall of residence for students in further or higher education,
 - (c) a home or other institution providing residential accommodation with personal care for persons in need of personal care by reason of old age, disability, past or present dependence on alcohol or drugs or past or present mental disorder,
 - (d) a hospital or hospice,
 - (e) a prison or similar establishment,
 - (f) a hotel or inn or similar establishment.

- (5) Where a building is used for a purpose specified in subsection (4), no account is to be taken for the purposes of subsection (1)(a) of its suitability for any other use.
- (6) Where a building that is not in use is suitable for use for at least one of the purposes specified in subsection (3) and at least one of those specified in subsection (4)—
- (a) if there is one such use for which it is most suitable, or if the uses for which it is most suitable are all specified in the same paragraph, no account is to be taken for the purposes of subsection (1)(a) of its suitability for any other use,
 - (b) otherwise, the building is to be treated for those purposes as suitable for use as a dwelling.
- (7) In this section “building” includes part of a building.
- (8) Where six or more separate dwellings are the subject of a single transaction involving the transfer of a major interest in, or the grant of a lease over, them, then, for the purposes of this Act as it applies in relation to that transaction, those dwellings are treated as not being residential property.
- (9) The Scottish Ministers may, by order—
- (a) amend subsections (3) and (4) so as to change or clarify the cases where use of a building is, or is not to be, use of a building as a dwelling for the purposes of subsection (1),
 - (b) amend or repeal subsection (8).

VALID FROM 01/04/2015

60 Meaning of “major interest” in land
