PART 3

PRIVATE RENTED HOUSING

Private rented housing: Enhanced Enforcement Areas

28 Private rented housing: Enhanced Enforcement Areas

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must by regulations provide a scheme whereby a local authority may apply to the Scottish Ministers for additional discretionary powers to enable it to target enforcement action at an area characterised by poor conditions in houses subject to tenancies and occupancy agreements of the type mentioned in section 16(1) (“private rented housing”).
- (2) The scheme under subsection (1) must provide—
 - (a) that a local authority may apply to the Scottish Ministers for an area to be designated as an Enhanced Enforcement Area where it considers that the area is characterised by—
 - (i) an overprovision or a concentration of private rented housing that appears to the local authority to be—
 - (A) of a poor environmental standard,
 - (B) overcrowded, and
 - (ii) a prevalence of antisocial behaviour, as defined by section 81(4) of the 2004 Act,
 - (b) where the Scottish Ministers agree to designate an area as an Enhanced Enforcement Area, that the local authority will acquire such additional discretionary powers as the Scottish Ministers consider necessary or expedient, to be exercised for prescribed purposes, including in relation to—
 - (i) the checks it may carry out before entering a relevant person on the register of landlords that it maintains under Part 8 of the 2004 Act,
 - (ii) authority to inspect dwellings let by a landlord who is entered on that register,
 - (c) where the Scottish Ministers agree to designate an area as an Enhanced Enforcement Area, that—
