2014 asp 8

PART 2

COMMISSIONER FOR CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE IN SCOTLAND

5 Investigations by the Commissioner

(1) The Commissioner for Children and Young People (Scotland) Act 2003 is amended as follows.

(2) In section 7—

(a) for subsections (1) and (2), substitute—

“(1) The Commissioner may carry out an investigation into—

(a) whether, by what means and to what extent a service provider has regard to the rights, interests and views of children and young people in making decisions or taking actions that affect those children and young people (such an investigation being called a “general investigation”);

(b) whether, by what means and to what extent a service provider had regard to the rights, interests and views of a child or young person in making a decision or taking an action that affected that child or young person (such an investigation being called an “individual investigation”).

(2) The Commissioner may carry out a general investigation only if the Commissioner, having considered the available evidence on, and any information received about, the matter, is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the matter to be investigated raises an issue of particular significance to—

(a) children and young people generally; or

(b) particular groups of children and young people.

(2A) The Commissioner may carry out an investigation only if the Commissioner, having considered the available evidence on, and any
