PART 6

DEBTOR'S CONTRIBUTION

Common financial tool

89 Assessment of debtor's contribution

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations specify a method (the “common financial tool”) to be used to assess an appropriate amount of a living debtor's income (the “debtor's contribution”) to be paid to a trustee after the sequestration of the debtor's estate.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may in particular prescribe—
 - (a) a method for assessing a debtor's financial circumstances (including the debtor's assets, income, liabilities and expenditure),
 - (b) a method for determining a reasonable amount of expenditure for a debtor after the sequestration of the debtor's estate,
 - (c) the proportion of a debtor's income that is to constitute the debtor's contribution,
 - (d) that a method determined by another person must be used (with or without modification in accordance with regulations made under subsection (1)) as the common financial tool.
- (3) The common financial tool must ensure that the amount of reasonable expenditure for a debtor is not less than the total amount of any income received by the debtor by way of guaranteed minimum pension (within the meaning of the Pension Schemes Act 1993).
- (4) The common financial tool must ensure that an amount is allowed for—
 - (a) aliment for the debtor, and
 - (b) the debtor's relevant obligations.
- (5) The “debtor's relevant obligations” are any obligation of—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) aliment owed by the debtor (“obligation of aliment” having the meaning given by section 1(2) of the Family Law (Scotland) Act 1985),
 - (b) the debtor to make a periodical allowance to a former spouse or former civil partner, and
 - (c) the debtor to pay child support maintenance under the Child Support Act 1991.
- (6) The amount allowed for the debtor’s relevant obligations referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (5) need not be sufficient for compliance with a subsisting order or agreement as regards the aliment or periodical allowance.

Payments by debtor following sequestration

90 Debtor contribution order: general

- (1) AiB must make an order fixing the debtor’s contribution (a “debtor contribution order”)—
- (a) in the case of a debtor application, at the same time as awarding sequestration of the debtor’s estate,
 - (b) in the case of an award of sequestration following a petition under section 2(1)(b), after considering initial proposals for the debtor’s contribution provided by the trustee.
- (2) In a case referred to in subsection (1)(b), the trustee must send initial proposals for the debtor’s contribution within 6 weeks beginning with the date of the award of sequestration.
- (3) In making a debtor contribution order, AiB must use the common financial tool to assess the debtor’s contribution.
- (4) A debtor contribution order may fix the amount of the debtor’s contribution as zero.
- (5) A debtor contribution order may be made irrespective of sections 11 and 12 of the Welfare Reform and Pensions Act 1999.
- (6) A debtor contribution order may provide that a third person must pay to the trustee a specified proportion of money due to the debtor by way of income.
- (7) Where a third person pays a sum of money to the trustee in accordance with subsection (6), the third person is discharged from any liability to the debtor to the extent of the sum so paid.
- (8) AiB must, immediately following the making of a debtor contribution order, give written notice of the order to—
- (a) the debtor,
 - (b) the trustee, and
 - (c) any third person mentioned in the order.
- (9) A debtor contribution order must not take effect on a date before the expiry of 14 days beginning with the day of notification of the order.

91 Debtor contribution order: payment period and intervals

- (1) A debtor contribution order must contain provision requiring the debtor to pay the debtor’s contribution (if not zero)—

- (a) during the payment period, and
 - (b) at regular intervals determined by the person making or varying the order.
- (2) In subsection (1)(a), “payment period” means—
- (a) the 48 months beginning with the date of the first payment,
 - (b) such shorter period as is determined by the person making or varying the order, or
 - (c) such longer period as is—
 - (i) determined by the trustee where there is a period during which the debtor did not pay an amount required under the debtor contribution order, or
 - (ii) agreed by the debtor and the trustee.
- (3) The person making or varying the order may determine a shorter period under subsection (2)(b) only if, in the opinion of that person, the value of—
- (a) the debtor’s contribution during the shorter period, and
 - (b) any other estate of the debtor taken possession of by the trustee,
- would be sufficient to allow a distribution of the debtor’s estate to meet in full all of the debts mentioned in section 129.
- (4) AiB must, when making a debtor contribution order—
- (a) determine the date of the first payment, or
 - (b) in a case where the debtor’s contribution is fixed as zero, determine the date which is to be deemed the date of the first payment under the order.

92 Debtor contribution order: review and appeal

- (1) The debtor, the trustee or any other interested person may apply to AiB for a review of a debtor contribution order.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) must be made within 14 days beginning with the day on which the order is made.
- (3) If an application under subsection (1) is made, the order is suspended until the determination of that review by AiB.
- (4) If an application under subsection (1) is made, AiB must—
 - (a) take into account any representations made by an interested person within 21 days beginning with the day on which the application is made, and
 - (b) confirm, amend or revoke the order within 28 days beginning with that day.
- (5) The trustee or the debtor may, within 14 days beginning with the date of any decision of AiB under subsection (4)(b), appeal to the sheriff against that decision.

93 Effect of debtor contribution order

- (1) The debtor must pay to the trustee any debtor’s contribution (if not zero)—
 - (a) as fixed by AiB in making the debtor contribution order, or
 - (b) as varied in accordance with section 95.
- (2) The requirement to pay the debtor’s contribution applies irrespective of the debtor’s discharge.

- (3) If the value of the debtor’s estate and income when taken possession of by the trustee is sufficient to allow a distribution of the debtor’s estate to meet in full all of the debts mentioned in section 129, any debtor contribution order ceases to have effect.

94 Deductions from debtor’s earnings and other income

- (1) Subsections (2) to (6) apply where, under a debtor contribution order—
- (a) the debtor is required to pay to the trustee an amount from the debtor’s earnings or other income, or
 - (b) in accordance with section 90(6), a third person is required to pay to the trustee money otherwise due to the debtor by way of income.

 - (c) in the case mentioned in subsection (1)(b), is the third person who is required to pay the income to the trustee.
- (4) The trustee may give the person mentioned in subsection (3) an instruction of the type mentioned in subsection (2) if the debtor fails—
- (a) to comply with the requirements imposed by that subsection, and
 - (b) to pay the debtor’s contribution in respect of 2 payment intervals applying by virtue of the debtor contribution order.
- (5) A person mentioned in subsection (3) must comply with an instruction provided in accordance with subsection (2) or (4).
- (6) Where the person by whom the debtor is employed or another third person pays a sum of money to the trustee in accordance with this section, that person is discharged from any liability to the debtor to the extent of the sum so paid.
- (7) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision about instructions to be provided under this section, including in particular—
- (a) the form in which an instruction must be made,
 - (b) the manner in which an instruction provided in accordance with subsection (2) or (4) affects the recipient of that instruction, and
 - (c) the consequence of any failure of a recipient of an instruction provided in accordance with subsection (2) or (4) to comply with the duty imposed by subsection (5).

 - (b) any refusal of an application as respects such an order.
- (5) The persons are—
- (a) the debtor,
 - (b) AiB (if the trustee is not AiB),
 - (c) any third person required to make a payment under the debtor contribution order or under section 94(5), and
 - (d) any other interested person.

96 Payment break

- (1) The trustee may, on the application of the debtor, extend the payment period of a debtor contribution order by granting a payment break.
- (2) A “payment break” is a period not exceeding 6 months during which payments under the debtor contribution order are deferred.
- (3) A debtor may apply for a payment break if—
- (a) there has been a reduction of at least 50% in the debtor’s disposable income (as determined using the common financial tool) as a result of any of the circumstances mentioned in subsection (4) arising in relation to the debtor, and

- (5) An application for a payment break must specify the period during which the debtor wishes payments to be deferred.
- (6) If, in the opinion of the trustee, a payment break is fair and reasonable, the trustee may grant it on such conditions and for such period as the trustee thinks fit.
- (7) The trustee must notify in writing the grant of a payment break to—
 - (a) the debtor,
 - (b) AiB (if the trustee is not AiB), and
 - (c) any third person required to make a payment under the debtor contribution order.
- (8) If the trustee decides not to grant a payment break, the trustee must notify the debtor of that decision and of the reasons for that decision.
