

Succession (Scotland) Act 2016

2016 asp 7

Estate administration

20 Confirmation of executors: power of Ministers to abolish requirement for executors dative to find caution S

The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision to the effect that persons appointed as executors dative are not in any circumstances to be required to find caution before confirmation is granted.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Succession (Scotland) Act 2016, Section 20.