

Housing (Amendment) (Scotland) Act 2018

Local authority influence over registered social landlords

9 Power to reduce local authority influence over registered social landlords

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision for the purpose of limiting or removing the ability of local authorities to exert influence over registered social landlords through—
 - (a) appointing or removing officers of registered social landlords,
 - (b) exercising or controlling voting rights.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may in particular—
 - (a) limit the number of officers that a local authority may appoint,
 - (b) prohibit a local authority from appointing officers,
 - (c) confer power on a registered social landlord to remove officers appointed by a local authority,
 - (d) prohibit a local authority from doing things that would result in it obtaining voting rights in a registered social landlord,
 - (e) require a local authority to take steps to reduce or get rid of any voting rights that it has in a registered social landlord.
- (3) Regulations under subsection (1) may override or modify any contractual or other rights (whenever created) or anything in a registered social landlord's constitution.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (1) may—
 - (a) confer a power on a registered social landlord to amend its constitution in consequence of provision made by the regulations,
 - (b) make provision about the procedure for exercising that power.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (1) may—
 - (a) make different provision for different purposes,
 - (b) include any incidental, supplementary, consequential, transitional, transitory or saving provision as Ministers consider appropriate,
 - (c) modify any enactment.
