“woman” includes a person who has the protected characteristic of gender reassignment (within the meaning of section 7 of the Equality Act 2010) if, and only if, the person is living as a woman and is proposing to undergo, is undergoing or has undergone a process (or part of a process) for the purpose of becoming female.

3 Duty when appointing non-executive members

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where there is—
 - (a) a vacancy in a position of non-executive member of a public board,
 - (b) more than one candidate for the position,
 - (c) at least one candidate who is a woman, and
 - (d) at least one candidate who is not a woman.
- (2) The appointing person must, in making the appointment to fill the vacancy, act in accordance with section 4 with a view to achieving (or making progress towards achieving) the gender representation objective immediately after the appointment takes effect.

- (2) If no particular candidate is best qualified for the appointment, the appointing person must identify candidates it considers are equally qualified.

- (4) The appointing person—
 - (a) must consider whether the appointment of a candidate identified under subsection (2) who is not a woman is justified on the basis of a characteristic or situation particular to that candidate, and

- (2) A public authority to which a public board relates must take such steps as it considers appropriate to encourage women to apply to become non-executive members of the public board.
- (3) For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in subsections (1) and (2) prevents an appointing person or a public authority from taking such steps as it considers appropriate to encourage persons with other protected characteristics (within the meaning of section 4 of the Equality Act 2010) to apply to become non-executive members of the public board.

6 Duty to take steps towards achieving objective

- (1) This section applies whenever the gender representation objective is not achieved in relation to a public board.
