13 Meaning of “national forest estate”

In this Act, the “national forest estate” means land in Scotland—

- (a) that was at the disposal of the Forestry Commissioners under the Forestry Act 1967 immediately before the date on which this section comes into force, and
- (b) that is, for the time being, owned by the Scottish Ministers.

Forestry information

14 Duty to publish information on forestry

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must gather and publish in such manner as they consider appropriate information on forest holdings in Scotland that do not fall within forested land as defined in section 12.
- (2) The information to be gathered must include in particular information on the—
 - (a) area, and
 - (b) proprietorship,
 of such forest holdings.
- (3) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision about the information to be gathered for the purposes of this section.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (3) may in particular make provision about whether the information is to be in the form of a statistically representative sample of, or comprehensive information on, all such forest holdings.
- (5) Information under this section must be—
 - (a) first published no later than 3 years after the day of Royal Assent,
 - (b) subsequently published no later than 5 years after the date of the previous such publication.

Management of land to further sustainable development

15 Management of land to further sustainable development

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must manage land mentioned in subsection (2) for the purpose of furthering the achievement of sustainable development.
- (2) The land referred to in subsection (1) is—
 - (a) land in the national forest estate that is not forested, and
 - (b) other land that is not forested that is—
 - (i) owned by the Scottish Ministers having been acquired under section 18(1) or 19(1),
 - (ii) managed by the Scottish Ministers having been acquired under section 18(1) or 19(1), or
