Part 1

Consumer Scotland Information-gathering

Section 10 – Failure by a designated regulator to comply with a section 9 notice

29. Section 10 provides that, should a designated regulator fail to give information to Consumer Scotland, that designated regulator can be required to produce a written statement explaining the reasons for the failure. Consumer Scotland has the power to publish this explanation.
30. This section can also be applied to others who are made subject to the information-gathering requirement using the power under section 9(2)(d) (see section 9(5)(a)).
