

Social Security Administration and Tribunal Membership (Scotland) Act 2020

2020 asp 18

The Bill for this Act of the Scottish Parliament was passed by the Parliament on 29th September 2020 and received Royal Assent on 10th November 2020

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to modify the Social Security (Scotland) Act 2018 in relation to the appointment of persons to act on behalf of applicants; the provision of information in connection with the determination of eligibility for assistance; the duty to inform about possible eligibility for assistance; the operation of top-up assistance; the diagnosis of terminal illness for disability assistance purposes; and the recovery of assistance given in error; and to modify the Tribunals (Scotland) Act 2014 in relation to the eligibility of judicial office-holders to sit in the First-tier Tribunal and the Upper Tribunal.

PART 1

SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

Appointees

1 Appointment of person to act on behalf of child

- (1) The Social Security (Scotland) Act 2018 is modified as follows.
- (2) After section 85 insert—

“Appointees

85A Appointment of person to act on behalf of child

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may appoint a person (an “appointee”) to act on behalf of a child in connection with the determination of the child's entitlement to assistance under section 24 or regulations under section 79.

Status: Point in time view as at 13/05/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Administration and Tribunal Membership (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) An appointment under subsection (1) may, if the Scottish Ministers consider it appropriate, include an appointment of the person to receive such assistance on the child's behalf.
- (3) The Scottish Ministers may only appoint an appointee if it appears to them that there is no person who—
 - (a) has authority to act on behalf of the child,
 - (b) resides with, and has care of, the child, and
 - (c) is willing, and practicably able, to act on the child's behalf in relation to the matter mentioned in subsection (1).
- (4) An individual who is under 16 years may not be appointed as an appointee.
- (5) Where an appointee is appointed under subsection (1) to act on behalf of a child—
 - (a) the appointee can do anything that a person with authority (however arising) to act on behalf of the child in relation to the determination of the child's entitlement to assistance could do in connection with the determination of the child's entitlement to assistance (including making an application for assistance),
 - (b) the Scottish Ministers may request that the appointee provide them with information that the Ministers may otherwise request under section 54 or (as the case may be) the regulations under section 79 (and in the case of section 54, subsections (2) and (3) of that section apply to that request as they apply to a request made to the child),
 - (c) any information that would be given to the child under or by virtue of Part 2 or (as the case may be) the regulations, must be given to the appointee instead.
- (6) The Scottish Ministers may terminate an appointment under subsection (1) at any time.
- (7) In this section, “child” means an individual who is under 16 years.”.

2 Appointment of person to act on behalf of individual

- (1) The Social Security (Scotland) Act 2018 is modified as follows.
- (2) Section 58 is repealed.
- (3) In section 85A (as inserted by section 1), after subsection (5) insert—
 - “(5A) The Scottish Ministers must consider whether to make an appointment under subsection (1), or to terminate such an appointment, if requested to do so by—
 - (a) the child, or
 - (b) anyone else who appears to the Ministers to—
 - (i) have authority to act on behalf of the child,
 - (ii) reside with, and have care of, the child, or
 - (iii) have an interest in the welfare or financial affairs of the child.
 - (5B) Subsection (5C) applies where the Scottish Ministers are deciding whether to make or terminate an appointment under subsection (1).

Status: Point in time view as at 13/05/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Administration and Tribunal Membership (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

(5C) In making the decision the Scottish Ministers must, insofar as practicable, have regard to the views of—

- (a) the child,
- (b) anyone who is a relevant person in relation to the child within the meaning of section 200 of the Children's Hearings (Scotland) Act 2011, and
- (c) anyone else who appears to the Ministers to have an interest in the welfare or financial affairs of the child.”.

(4) After section 85A insert—

“85B Appointment of person to act in other circumstances

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may appoint a person (an “appointee”) to act on behalf of an individual in connection with the determination of the individual's entitlement to assistance under section 24 or regulations under section 79.
- (2) An appointment under subsection (1) may, if the Scottish Ministers consider it appropriate, include an appointment of the person to receive such assistance on the individual's behalf.
- (3) The Scottish Ministers may only appoint an appointee if—
 - (a) the individual is 16 years or over and the conditions in subsection (4) are met, or
 - (b) it appears to them that subsection (6) or (7) applies.
- (4) The conditions are—
 - (a) the individual indicates (in such form as the Scottish Ministers require) that the individual agrees to the appointment, and
 - (b) an appropriate person certifies (in such form as the Scottish Ministers require) that in the person's opinion—
 - (i) the individual is not incapable within the meaning of the Adults with Incapacity (Scotland) Act 2000,
 - (ii) the individual understands the effect of the appointment,
 - (iii) the individual has not been subject to any undue influence in agreeing to the appointment, and
 - (iv) the person proposed to be appointed is suitable to act as the individual's appointee.
- (5) The Scottish Ministers are to make regulations defining “appropriate person” for the purposes of subsection (4)(b).
- (6) This subsection applies if—
 - (a) the individual is deceased, and
 - (b) there is no executor appointed on the individual's estate.
- (7) This subsection applies if, in relation to the matter mentioned in subsection (1)—
 - (a) the individual is incapable within the meaning of the Adults with Incapacity (Scotland) Act 2000,
 - (b) there is no guardian acting or appointed under that Act,

Status: Point in time view as at 13/05/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Administration and Tribunal Membership (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the individual's estate is not being administered by a judicial factor, and
 - (d) there is no other person who has authority to act on behalf of the individual and is willing to do so.
- (8) An individual who is under 16 years may not be appointed as an appointee.
- (9) Where an appointee is appointed under subsection (1) to act on behalf of an individual—
 - (a) the appointee can do anything that a relevant individual could do in connection with the determination of the individual's entitlement to assistance (including making an application for assistance),
 - (b) the Scottish Ministers may request that the appointee provide them with information that the Ministers may otherwise request under section 54 or (as the case may be) the regulations under section 79 (and in the case of section 54, subsections (2) and (3) of that section apply to that request as they apply to a request made to the individual),
 - (c) any information that would be given to the individual under or by virtue of Part 2 or (as the case may be) the regulations, must be given to the appointee instead.
- (10) In subsection (9)(a), “relevant individual” means—
 - (a) in the case of an appointment by virtue of subsection (3)(a), the individual in relation to whom the appointment is made,
 - (b) in the case of an appointment by virtue of subsection (6), an executor appointed on the individual's estate,
 - (c) in the case of an appointment by virtue of subsection (7), a person with authority (however arising) to act on behalf of the individual in relation to the determination of the individual's entitlement to assistance.
- (11) The Scottish Ministers may terminate an appointment under subsection (1) at any time.
- (12) The Scottish Ministers must—
 - (a) terminate an appointment made by virtue of subsection (3)(a) if the individual withdraws agreement to it,
 - (b) consider whether to terminate an appointment made by virtue of subsection (3)(a) if requested to do so by anyone who appears to the Ministers to have an interest in the welfare or financial affairs of the individual.
- (13) The Scottish Ministers must consider whether to terminate an appointment made by virtue of subsection (6) if requested to do so by anyone who appears to the Ministers to have an interest in the financial affairs of the individual.
- (14) The Scottish Ministers must consider whether to make an appointment by virtue of subsection (7), or to terminate such an appointment, if requested to do so by—
 - (a) the individual, or
 - (b) anyone else who appears to the Ministers to—
 - (i) have authority to act on behalf of the individual, or

Status: Point in time view as at 13/05/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Administration and Tribunal Membership (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) have an interest in the welfare or financial affairs of the individual.
- (15) Subsection (16) applies where the Scottish Ministers are deciding whether to make an appointment by virtue of subsection (7) or to terminate such an appointment.
- (16) In making the decision, the Scottish Ministers must, insofar as practicable, have regard to—
- (a) the wishes and feelings of the individual, and
 - (b) the views of anyone else who appears to the Ministers to have an interest in the welfare or financial affairs of the individual.”.
- (5) After section 85B (as inserted by subsection (4)) insert—

“85C Guidelines for decisions about appointees

- (1) The Scottish Ministers—
- (a) must prepare guidelines governing their decisions in connection with appointments under sections 85A and 85B,
 - (b) may revise the guidelines,
 - (c) must make the latest version of the guidelines publicly available by such means as they consider appropriate.
- (2) The guidelines must, in particular, set out—
- (a) the steps that the Scottish Ministers will take to determine that a person is suitable for appointment,
 - (b) how a request that an appointment be made or terminated may be made and how it will be handled,
 - (c) the process by which persons with an interest in the making or termination of an appointment will be involved in those decisions,
 - (d) the steps that the Scottish Ministers will take to review appointments periodically (being in any case no more than 5 years) and the process by which that will occur,
 - (e) how concerns about the acts, or omissions, of an appointee may be raised and how any concerns raised will be handled.
- (3) In preparing or revising the guidelines, the Scottish Ministers must have regard (among other things) to the following considerations—
- (a) that an appointment in the case of a living individual should be made only if it appears to secure a benefit in respect of the individual that cannot reasonably be achieved without the appointment,
 - (b) that such an appointment should last for only so long as it continues to secure that benefit,
 - (c) that, so far as reasonably practicable, before decisions are made—
 - (i) persons who may be affected are consulted, and
 - (ii) due account is taken of their views (or, if they are incapable within the meaning of the Adults with Incapacity (Scotland) Act 2000, their wishes and feelings),
 - (d) that decisions should be made on the basis of good information,

Status: Point in time view as at 13/05/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Administration and Tribunal Membership (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

- (e) that decision-making processes should, so far as reasonably practicable, take account of the circumstances of individual cases,
 - (f) that persons who may be affected by decisions are given adequate information and support in relation to their involvement in the decision-making process.
- (4) In preparing or revising the guidelines, the Scottish Ministers must consult—
- (a) the Commissioner for Children and Young People in Scotland,
 - (b) the Mental Welfare Commission for Scotland,
 - (c) the Public Guardian (established by section 6 of the Adults with Incapacity (Scotland) Act 2000), and
 - (d) local authorities.”.
- (6) After section 85C (as inserted by subsection (5)) insert—

“85D Right to apply to First-tier Tribunal for review of certain decisions

- (1) A qualifying person may apply to the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland for a review of—
- (a) a decision under section 85A made following a request under subsection (5A) of that section,
 - (b) a decision under section 85B made following a request under subsection (12)(b), (13) or (14) of that section.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the following are qualifying persons—
- (a) the person who made the request, and
 - (b) any other person entitled to make the same request.
- (3) An application under subsection (1)—
- (a) may be made without the First-tier Tribunal's permission if the application is made within 31 days beginning with the day on which the decision concerned was made,
 - (b) may be made only with the First-tier Tribunal's permission if the application is made after the period mentioned in paragraph (a),
 - (c) may not be made after the period of one year beginning with the day on which the decision concerned was made.
- (4) The First-tier Tribunal may give permission under subsection (3)(b) for an application to be made only if satisfied that there is a good reason for the application not having been made sooner.
- (5) On application under subsection (1), the First-tier Tribunal is to review the decision concerned and may in consequence—
- (a) uphold the decision, or
 - (b) set the decision aside.
- (6) Where a decision is set aside by the First-tier Tribunal, it may (as it considers appropriate)—
- (a) reach its own view on what the decision should be and order the Scottish Ministers to make the decision accordingly, or
 - (b) order the Scottish Ministers to make the decision afresh.

Status: Point in time view as at 13/05/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Administration and Tribunal Membership (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) In reaching its own view on what a decision should be by virtue of subsection (6)(a), the First-tier Tribunal may reach such findings in fact as it considers appropriate.
- (8) In ordering the Scottish Ministers to make a decision afresh by virtue of subsection (6)(b), the First-tier Tribunal may give the Ministers such directions as it considers appropriate.
- (9) A decision by the First-tier Tribunal about—
- (a) the outcome of an application under subsection (1), or
 - (b) whether to give permission under subsection (3)(b) for an application to be made,
- is final.
- (10) Accordingly (and without prejudice to the generality of subsection (9)), any such decision by the First-tier Tribunal may be neither—
- (a) reviewed under section 43 of the Tribunals (Scotland) Act 2014, nor
 - (b) appealed against under section 46 of that Act.”.
- (7) After section 85D (as inserted by subsection (6)) insert—

“85E Guidance for appointees

- (1) A person appointed under section 85A or 85B must have regard to any guidance issued by the Scottish Ministers about the way in which the role of appointee should be carried out.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers must make guidance issued for the purpose of subsection (1) publicly available.”.
- (8) In section 96(3), for “and 43(5)” substitute “ , 43(5) and 85B(5) ”.

Diagnosing terminal illness for disability assistance purposes

11 Persons who can give diagnosis

- (1) The Social Security (Scotland) Act 2018 is modified as follows.
- (2) In schedule 5—
 - (a) in paragraph 1—
 - (i) in sub-paragraph (2), for “a registered medical practitioner” substitute “an appropriate healthcare professional ”,
 - (ii) after sub-paragraph (2) insert—

“(2A) The regulations may provide that, in the situation mentioned in sub-paragraph (2B), an individual who is not resident in the United Kingdom is to be regarded as having a terminal illness despite the clinical judgement described in sub-paragraph (2) not having been formed with regard to the guidance mentioned in sub-paragraph (3).

(2B) The situation referred to in sub-paragraph (2A) is that it would not be reasonable in the circumstances to insist on a clinical judgement being provided that has been formed with regard to the guidance.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Administration and Tribunal Membership (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

- (2C) The regulations are to define “appropriate healthcare professional” for the purpose of determining entitlement to disability assistance on the basis of an individual having a terminal illness.
- (2D) In defining “appropriate healthcare professional” the regulations—
- (a) must provide that being a registered medical practitioner or registered nurse is a requirement for being an appropriate healthcare professional,
 - (b) may provide that being a registered member of a healthcare profession otherwise than as mentioned in paragraph (a) is a requirement for being an appropriate healthcare professional,
 - (c) may include additional requirements that a person must satisfy in order to be an appropriate healthcare professional, including by reference to a person's—
 - (i) skills, training, qualifications and experience,
 - (ii) professional relationship to the individual in question,
 - (iii) being authorised to act as an appropriate healthcare professional in relation to the individual in question by—
 - (A) a Health Board constituted under section 2(1)(a) of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978,
 - (B) a Special Health Board constituted under section 2(1)(b) of that Act,
 - (C) the Scottish Ministers.
 - (d) may make different provision about the requirements for being an appropriate healthcare professional for the purposes of determining the entitlement to disability assistance of individuals who are resident in the United Kingdom and those who are not.”
- (iii) for sub-paragraph (3), substitute—

“(3) The Chief Medical Officer of the Scottish Administration is—

- (a) to prepare and from time to time revise, and
 - (b) to make publicly available by such means as the Chief Medical Officer considers appropriate,
- guidance that sets out when a progressive disease can reasonably be expected to cause an individual's death for the purpose of determining entitlement to disability assistance.

Suspension of assistance

12 Power to suspend payment of assistance

- (1) The Social Security (Scotland) Act 2018 is modified as follows.
- (2) In section 51—
- (a) in subsection (2), the “and” at the end of paragraph (a) is repealed,
- (b) after paragraph (a) insert—
- “(aa) make provision, in accordance with schedule 11, about—
- (i) the circumstances in which an individual who has an entitlement to assistance in respect of a period under such a determination is not to become entitled to be given some or all of that assistance at the time at which the individual otherwise would in accordance with provision under paragraph (a), and
- (ii) in that event, how and when the individual is to become entitled to be given that assistance, and”,
- (c) after subsection (3), insert—
- “(3A) Schedule 11 makes provision about the exercise of the power conferred by subsection (2)(aa).”.
- (3) In section 54—
- (a) in subsection (1), for paragraphs (a) and (b) substitute—
- “(a) the Scottish Ministers are either—
- (i) determining an individual's entitlement to assistance (whether under section 37 or 43), or
- (ii) considering whether regulations under section 52 require them to make a determination of an individual's entitlement to assistance without receiving an application, and
- (b) they require further information in order to satisfy themselves about any matter material to the making of the determination of entitlement or (as the case may be) to their consideration of whether they are required to make a determination without receiving an application,”,
- (b) after subsection (1) insert—
- “(1A) If—
- (a) the Scottish Ministers are either—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Administration and Tribunal Membership (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

- (i) determining the individual's entitlement to a type of assistance that the individual has ongoing entitlement to, or
 - (ii) considering whether regulations under section 52 require them to make a determination of the individual's entitlement to assistance without receiving an application,
- (b) the individual fails to provide the requested information by the end of the period specified under subsection (1), and
 - (c) it is the first time that the individual has failed to provide the Scottish Ministers with the requested information within a specified period since they began making the determination or considering the matter mentioned in paragraph (a)(ii), the Scottish Ministers may issue a decision to suspend the assistance to the individual in accordance with regulations under section 51(2) (aa).

- (1B) Where the Scottish Ministers issue such a decision, they must, at the same time, request that the individual provide them with the information within such further period as they specify.”,
- (c) in subsection (2), for “specified period” substitute “the period specified under subsection (1) or (1B)”,
- (d) after subsection (3) insert—

“(4) The reference in subsection (1A)(a) to an individual having ongoing entitlement to a type of assistance is to an individual being entitled to be given the type of assistance in question under section 24 under a determination made on the basis that the individual has ongoing entitlement to that type of assistance.”.

- (4) After schedule 10, insert—

“SCHEDULE 11

(introduced by section 51)

SUSPENSION OF ASSISTANCE

Circumstances in which assistance may be suspended

- 1 (1) The regulations may provide for an individual's assistance to be suspended in the following circumstances only—
 - (a) under section 54(1A) the Scottish Ministers have issued a decision to suspend assistance to the individual due to a failure to provide information which the individual is yet to provide,
 - (b) where the Scottish Ministers have made arrangements (whether under section 85A, 85B or otherwise) for a person to receive the assistance on the individual's behalf, and the Ministers consider that it is necessary to suspend the assistance—
 - (i) in order to protect the individual from the risk of financial abuse,

Status: Point in time view as at 13/05/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Administration and Tribunal Membership (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) because the person with whom the Ministers have made arrangements is unable to continue to receive the assistance, or
- (iii) for any other reason specified in the regulations, or
- (c) the individual has requested that the Scottish Ministers temporarily stop giving the assistance in question and is yet to request that they resume doing so.

- (2) For the purpose of sub-sub-paragraph (1)(b), “financial abuse” includes—
- (a) having money or other property stolen,
 - (b) being defrauded,
 - (c) being put under pressure in relation to money or other property,
 - (d) having money or other property misused.

Safeguards: requirement to consider financial circumstances before suspension

- 2 The regulations must require the Scottish Ministers, before suspending the assistance given to an individual, to have regard to the financial circumstances of the individual.

Safeguards: right to review suspension

- 3 The regulations must confer a right on an individual whose assistance has been suspended to require the Scottish Ministers to review their decision to suspend the individual's assistance.

Safeguards: information to be given following suspension

- 4 (1) The regulations must require the Scottish Ministers to inform an individual whose assistance they have suspended—
- (a) of their decision to suspend the individual's assistance,
 - (b) of the reasons for their decision,
 - (c) of any steps which might be taken by the individual in order for the Scottish Ministers to consider ending the suspension, and
 - (d) of the individual's right in accordance with the regulations to require the Scottish Ministers to review their decision to suspend the individual's assistance.
- (2) The regulations must provide that the Scottish Ministers are to fulfil the duty described by sub-paragraph (1) in a way that leaves the individual with a record of the information which the individual can show to, or otherwise share with, others.

Safeguards: effect of suspension ending

- 5 The regulations must provide that when—
- (a) the suspension of an individual's assistance ends, and
 - (b) under the latest determination of the individual's entitlement to the type of assistance in question, the individual would have become entitled to be given assistance during the period of the suspension,

Status: Point in time view as at 13/05/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Administration and Tribunal Membership (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details) the individual is immediately to be given under section 24 the assistance that the individual would have become entitled to be given under the determination during that period.

Generality of enabling power unaffected

- 6 Nothing in this schedule is to be taken to limit the provision that may be included in the regulations except to the extent stated.

Interpretation

- 7 In this schedule—
- (a) references to an individual's assistance being suspended are to an individual, by virtue of the regulations, not becoming entitled to be given some or all of the assistance in respect of a period that the individual otherwise would at the time, or times, prescribed by regulations under section 51(2)(a),
 - (b) “the regulations” means regulations under section 51(1).”.
