- (ii) if the authority are satisfied that the young person lacks capacity to make the request, the young person's parent.
- (4) Where, in pursuance of a request referred to in subsection (2), an education authority establish that a child or young person has additional support needs, the authority must inform—
- [^{F3}(a)] the person who made the request of that fact[^{F4}, and
- (b) where that person is a child falling within subsection (3)(aa), the child's parent of that fact.]
- (5) Subsection (6) applies where a child or young person for whose school education an education authority are responsible comes to the attention of the authority as—
- (a) having, or appearing to have, additional support needs, or
- (b) having such needs and requiring, or appearing to require, a co-ordinated support plan.
- (6) Where this subsection applies, the education authority must, in accordance with the arrangements made by them under subsection (1), establish whether the child or young person does have additional support needs or, as the case may be, require a co-ordinated support plan, unless the authority consider it unreasonable to do so.
- (7) Subsections (2) and (6) are without prejudice to subsection (1).
