

Glasgow Commonwealth Games Act 2008

2008 asp 4

Enforcement

24 Power to enter and search

- (1) An enforcement officer may, without warrant, enter any place and may search any place (and any vehicle, vessel, container or other thing at that place)—
 - (a) where the officer reasonably believes a Games offence has been or is being committed, or
 - (b) which the officer reasonably believes has been or is being used in connection with a Games offence.
- (2) An enforcement officer may take to a place entered by virtue of this section any other person, or any equipment, as may be reasonably required for the purposes of assisting the officer.
- (3) An enforcement officer who enters a place in pursuance of this section must take reasonable steps to leave the place at least as effectively secured against unauthorised entry as the officer found it.
