Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

 - (b) there is some other compelling reason for allowing a second appeal to proceed.

CHAPTER 6

SPECIAL JURISDICTION

40 Judicial review cases

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where a petition is made to the Court of Session for judicial review.
- (2) The Court may by order remit the petition to the Upper Tribunal if—
 - (a) both of conditions A and B are met, and
 - (b) having regard to the functions and expertise of the Tribunal in relation to the subject-matter of the petition, the Court considers that it is appropriate to do so.
- (3) Condition A is that the petition does not seek anything other than the exercise of the Court’s judicial review function.
- (4) Condition B is that the petition falls within a category specified by an Act of Sederunt made by the Court for the purpose of this subsection.

41 Procedural steps where petition remitted

- (1) This section applies where the Court of Session remits a petition for judicial review under section 40(2).
- (2) It is for the Upper Tribunal to determine—
 - (a) whether the petition has been made timeously, and
 - (b) whether to grant permission for the petition to proceed under section 27B of the Court of Session Act 1988 (“the 1988 Act”) (requirement for permission).
- (3) Accordingly—
 - (a) the Upper Tribunal has the same powers in relation to the petition as the Court of Session would have had in relation to it under sections 27A to 27C of the 1988 Act,
 - (b) sections 27C and 27D of that Act apply in relation to a decision of the Upper Tribunal under section 27B(1) of that Act as they apply in relation to such a decision of the Court of Session.
- (4) The references in section 27C(3) and (4) of the 1988 Act (oral hearings where permission refused) to a different Lord Ordinary from the one who refused or granted permission are to be read as references to different members of the Tribunal from those of whom it was composed when it refused or granted permission.

42 Decision on remittal

- (1) The Upper Tribunal is to determine the issues raised in each petition remitted to it under section 40.
- (2) In relation to a petition so remitted, the Upper Tribunal—
 - (a) has the same powers as the Court of Session has on a petition to it for judicial review,
 - (b) is to apply the same principles as the Court applies in the exercise of its judicial review function.
- (3) An order made by the Upper Tribunal on a petition so remitted has the same effect as an order made by the Court of Session on a petition for judicial review (and the order is therefore enforceable accordingly).
- (4) Subsection (3) does not limit the operation of section 36 in connection with a determination under subsection (1).

43 Additional matters

- (1) Where a petition is remitted to the Upper Tribunal under section 40, any order made or step taken by the Court of Session in relation to the petition is to be treated as if made or taken by the tribunal (except the order by which the petition is so remitted (or an associated step)).
- (2) Tribunal rules may make further provision with respect to the exercise by the Upper Tribunal of its functions under this Chapter.

44 Meaning of judicial review

In this Chapter—

- (a) a reference to a petition to the Court of Session for judicial review is to an application to the supervisory jurisdiction of the Court,
- (b) a reference to the exercise of the Court of Session’s judicial review function is to the exercise of the Court’s supervisory jurisdiction (and includes the making of any order in connection with or in consequence of the exercise of that function).

CHAPTER 7

POWERS AND ENFORCEMENT

45 Venue for hearings

- (1) Each of the First-tier Tribunal and the Upper Tribunal may be convened at any time and place in Scotland to hear or decide a case or for any other purpose relating to its functions.
- (2) Subsection (1) is subject to any provision made by tribunal rules as to the question of when and where in Scotland the Tax Tribunals are to be convened (and such rules may allow the President of the Tax Tribunals to determine the question).

46 Conduct of cases

- (1) In relation to the things mentioned in subsection (3), each of the First-tier Tribunal and the Upper Tribunal has such powers, rights, privileges and other authority with respect to any case before it as are provided for in tribunal rules.
- (2) Rules making provision for the purpose of subsection (1) may (in particular) do so in relation to any kind of authority by reference to any authority of a relevant description exercisable by the sheriff or the Court of Session.
- (3) The things are—
 - (a) the attendance or examination of witnesses,
 - (b) the recovery, production or inspection of relevant materials,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (b) a judicial member of the Upper Tribunal is to a person who is authorised for the purpose of section 27(2),
 - (c) an ordinary member of the First-tier Tribunal is to a person who is appointed under paragraph 2(1) of schedule 2,
- the “Lord President” means the Lord President of the Court of Session.

PART 5

THE GENERAL ANTI-AVOIDANCE RULE

Introductory

62 The general anti-avoidance rule: introductory

- (1) This Part has effect for the purpose of counteracting tax advantages arising from tax avoidance arrangements that are artificial.
- (2) The rules in this Part are collectively to be known as “the general anti-avoidance rule”.

Artificial tax avoidance arrangements

63 Tax avoidance arrangements

- (1) An arrangement (or series of arrangements) is a tax avoidance arrangement if, having regard to all the circumstances, it would be reasonable to conclude that obtaining a tax advantage is the main purpose, or one of the main purposes, of the arrangement.
- (2) An “arrangement”—
 - (a) includes any transaction, scheme, action, operation, agreement, grant, understanding, promise, undertaking or event (whether legally enforceable or not), and
 - (b) may comprise one or more stages or parts.

64 Meaning of “artificial”

- (1) A tax avoidance arrangement is artificial if condition A or B is met.
- (2) Condition A is met if the entering into or carrying out of the arrangement is not a reasonable course of action in relation to the tax provisions in question having regard to all the circumstances, including—
 - (a) whether the substantive results of the arrangement are consistent with—
 - (i) any principles on which those provisions are based (whether express or implied), and
 - (ii) the policy objectives of those provisions,
 - (b) whether the arrangement is intended to exploit any shortcomings in those provisions.
- (3) Condition B is met if the arrangement lacks economic or commercial substance.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (4) Each of the following is an example of something which might indicate that a tax avoidance arrangement lacks economic or commercial substance—
- (a) whether the arrangement is carried out by a person in a manner which would not normally be employed in reasonable business conduct,
 - (b) whether the legal characterisation of the steps in the arrangement is inconsistent with the legal substance of the arrangement as a whole,
 - (c) whether the arrangement includes elements which have the effect of offsetting or cancelling each other,
 - (d) whether transactions are circular in nature,
 - (e) whether the arrangement results in a tax advantage that is not reflected in the business risks undertaken by the taxpayer.
- (5) The fact that—
- (a) a tax avoidance arrangement accords with established practice, and
 - (b) Revenue Scotland had, at the time the arrangement was entered into, indicated its acceptance of that practice,
- is an example of something that might indicate that the arrangement is not artificial.
- (6) The examples given in subsections (4) and (5) are not exhaustive.
- (7) Where a tax avoidance arrangement forms part of any other arrangements, regard must also be had to those other arrangements.

65 Meaning of “tax advantage”

- (1) A “tax advantage” includes in particular—
- (a) relief or increased relief from tax,
 - (b) repayment or increased repayment of tax,
 - (c) avoidance or reduction of a charge to tax or an assessment to tax,
 - (d) avoidance of a possible assessment to tax, and
 - (e) deferral of a payment of tax or advancement of a repayment of tax.
- (2) In determining whether a tax avoidance arrangement has resulted in a tax advantage, regard may be had to the amount of tax that would have been payable in the absence of the arrangement.

Counteracting tax advantages

66 Counteracting tax advantages

- (1) Revenue Scotland may make such adjustments as it considers just and reasonable to counteract the tax advantages that would (ignoring this Part) arise from a tax avoidance arrangement that is artificial.
- (2) The adjustments may be made in respect of the tax in question or any other devolved tax.
- (3) The adjustments that may be made include (but are not restricted to) those that impose or increase a liability to tax in any case where (ignoring this Part) there would be no liability or a smaller liability, and tax is to be charged in accordance with any such adjustment.

- (4) Any adjustments required to be made under this section (whether by Revenue Scotland or the person to whom the tax advantage would arise) may be made by—
- (a) the amendment of a return (see sections 83, 87 and 93),
 - (b) the correction of a return (see section 84),
 - (c) the making of a Revenue Scotland determination (see section 95),
 - (d) the making of a tax return (see section 97),
 - (e) the making of a Revenue Scotland assessment (see section 100),
 - (f) the entering into of a contract settlement (see section 118), or
 - (g) such other method as Revenue Scotland considers appropriate.
- (5) No steps may be taken by Revenue Scotland unless the procedural requirements of sections 68 and 69 have been complied with.
- (6) The power to make adjustments by virtue of this section is subject to any time limit imposed by or under Part 6, any other provision of this Act or any other enactment.

67 Proceedings in connection with the general anti-avoidance rule

- (1) In proceedings before a court or tribunal in connection with the general anti-avoidance rule, Revenue Scotland must show—
- (a) that there is a tax avoidance arrangement that is artificial, and
 - (b) that the adjustments made to counteract the tax advantages arising from the tax avoidance arrangement are just and reasonable.
- (2) In determining any issue in connection with the general anti-avoidance rule, a court or tribunal must take into account any guidance published by Revenue Scotland about the general anti-avoidance rule (at the time the tax avoidance arrangement was entered into).
- (3) In determining any issue in connection with the general anti-avoidance rule, a court or tribunal may take into account—
- (a) guidance, statements or other material (whether by Revenue Scotland or anyone else) that was in the public domain at the time the tax avoidance arrangement was entered into, and
 - (b) evidence of established practice at that time.

68 Notice to taxpayer of proposed counteraction of tax advantage

- (1) If a designated officer considers—
- (a) that a tax advantage has arisen to a person (“the taxpayer”) from a tax avoidance arrangement that is artificial, and
 - (b) that the advantage should be counteracted under section 66,
- the officer must give the taxpayer a notice to that effect.
- (2) The notice must—
- (a) specify the tax avoidance arrangement and the tax advantage,
 - (b) explain why the officer considers that a tax advantage has arisen to the taxpayer from a tax avoidance arrangement that is artificial,
 - (c) set out the counteraction that the officer considers should be taken, and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (d) inform the taxpayer of the period under subsection (4) for making representations.
- (3) The notice may set out the steps that the taxpayer may take to avoid the proposed counteraction.
- (4) If a notice is given to a taxpayer under subsection (1), the taxpayer has 45 days beginning with the day on which the notice is given to send representations to the designated officer in response to the notice.
- (5) The designated officer may, on a request made by the taxpayer, extend the period during which representations may be made.
- (6) The designated officer must take into account any representations made by the taxpayer.

69 Final notice to taxpayer of counteraction of tax advantage

- (1) The designated officer must, after the expiry of the period in which representations may be made under section 68, give the taxpayer a notice setting out whether the tax advantage arising from the tax avoidance arrangement is to be counteracted under the general anti-avoidance rule.
- (2) If the notice states that a tax advantage is to be counteracted, the notice must also set out—
 - (a) the adjustments required to give effect to the counteraction, and
 - (b) if relevant, any steps that the taxpayer is required to take to give effect to it and the period within which those steps must be taken.

70 Counteraction of tax advantages: payment of tax charged etc.

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a designated officer gives a taxpayer a notice under section 69, and
 - (b) the notice sets out the adjustments required to give effect to the counteraction of a tax advantage.
- (2) The taxpayer must pay any amount, or additional amount, of tax chargeable or penalty or interest imposed as a result of the adjustments before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the date on which the notice is issued.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies in place of any other provision of this Act or any other enactment which specifies a time limit for the payment of tax, penalty or interest.

71 Assumption of tax advantage

- (1) A designated officer may give a notice under section 68 or 69 where the officer considers that a tax advantage might have arisen to the taxpayer.
- (2) Accordingly, any notice given by a designated officer under section 68 or 69 may be expressed to be given on the assumption that the tax advantage does arise (without agreeing that it does).

General anti-avoidance rule: commencement and transitional provision

72 General anti-avoidance rule: commencement and transitional provision

- (1) The general anti-avoidance rule has effect in relation to any tax avoidance arrangement entered into on or after the date on which this Part comes into force.
- (2) Where the tax avoidance arrangement forms part of any other arrangements entered into before that day, those other arrangements are to be ignored for the purposes of section 64(7), subject to subsection (3).
- (3) Account is to be taken of those other arrangements if, as a result, the tax avoidance arrangement would not be artificial.

77 Reasonable excuse for failure to keep and preserve records

- (1) If P satisfies Revenue Scotland or (on appeal) the tribunal that there is a reasonable excuse for a failure to comply with section 74, liability to a penalty under section 76 does not arise in relation to that failure.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)—

- (4) A correction under this section must be made by the end of the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which the return was made.
- (5) A correction under this section has no effect if the taxpayer rejects it by—
 - (a) during the amendment period, amending the return so as to reject the correction, or
 - (b) after that period, giving a notice rejecting the correction.
- (6) A notice under subsection (5)(b) must be given to Revenue Scotland before the end of the period of 3 months beginning with the date of issue of the notice of correction.

REVENUE SCOTLAND ENQUIRIES

Notice and scope of enquiry

85 Notice of enquiry

- (1) A designated officer may enquire into a tax return if subsection (2) has been complied with.
- (2) Notice of the intention to make an enquiry must be given—
 - (a) to the person by whom or on whose behalf the return was made (“the relevant person”),
 - (b) before the end of the period of 3 years after the relevant date.
- (3) The relevant date is—
 - (a) the filing date, if the return was made on or before that date, or
 - (b) the date on which the return was made, if the return was made after the filing date.
- (4) A return that has been the subject of one notice under this section may not be the subject of another, except a notice given in consequence of an amendment of the return under section 83.
- (5) A notice under this section is referred to as a “notice of enquiry”.

86 Scope of enquiry

- (1) An enquiry extends to anything contained in the tax return, or required to be contained in the return, that relates—
 - (a) to the question whether the relevant person is chargeable to the devolved tax to which the return relates, or
 - (b) to the amount of tax chargeable on the relevant person.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if the notice of enquiry is given as a result of the amendment of a return under section 83 after an enquiry into the return has been completed.
- (3) The enquiry is limited to—
 - (a) matters to which the amendment relates, and
 - (b) matters affected by the amendment.

Amendment of return during enquiry

87 Amendment of self-assessment during enquiry to prevent loss of tax

- (1) If, at a time when an enquiry is in progress into a tax return, a designated officer forms the opinion—
 - (a) that the amount stated in the self-assessment contained in the return as the amount of tax payable is insufficient, and
 - (b) that unless the assessment is immediately amended there is likely to be a loss of tax to the Crown,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

the officer may by notice to the relevant person amend the assessment to make good the deficiency.

- (2) If the enquiry is one that is limited by section 86(2) and (3) to matters arising from an amendment of the return, subsection (1) applies only so far as the deficiency is attributable to the amendment.
- (3) Where a designated officer gives notice under subsection (1), section 83 does not apply.
- (4) The taxpayer must pay any amount, or additional amount, of tax chargeable as a result of an amendment under this section immediately on receipt of notice of the amendment.
- (5) For the purposes of this section and section 88 the period during which an enquiry is in progress is the whole of the period—
 - (a) beginning with the day on which the notice of enquiry is given, and
 - (b) ending with the day on which the enquiry is completed.

Referral during enquiry

88 Referral of questions to appropriate tribunal during enquiry

- (1) At any time when an enquiry is in progress into a tax return any question arising in connection with the subject-matter of the return may be referred to the appropriate tribunal for determination.
- (2) Notice of the referral must be given to the appropriate tribunal jointly by the relevant person and a designated officer.
- (3) More than one notice of referral may be given under this section in relation to an enquiry.

89 Withdrawal of notice of referral

A designated officer or the relevant person may withdraw a notice of referral under section 88.

90 Effect of referral on enquiry

- (1) While proceedings on a referral under section 88 are in progress in relation to an enquiry—
 - (a) no closure notice may be given in relation to the enquiry, and
 - (b) no application may be made for a direction to give a closure notice.
- (2) Proceedings on a referral are “in progress” where—
 - (a) notice of referral has been given and has not been withdrawn, and
 - (b) the question referred has not been finally determined.
- (3) A question referred has been “finally determined” when—
 - (a) it has been determined by the appropriate tribunal, and
 - (b) there is no further possibility of the determination being varied or set aside (disregarding any power to grant permission to appeal out of time).

91 Effect of determination

- (1) A determination under section 88 is binding on the parties to the referral in the same way, and to the same extent, as a decision on a preliminary plea in an appeal.
- (2) The designated officer conducting the enquiry must take the determination into account—
 - (a) in reaching conclusions on the enquiry, and
 - (b) in the formulation of any amendments of the tax return that may be required to give effect to those conclusions.
- (3) The question determined may not be reopened on an appeal, except to the extent that it could be reopened if it had been determined as a preliminary plea in that appeal.

92 “Appropriate tribunal”

- (1) Where the question to be referred under section 88 is of the market value of any land, the appropriate tribunal is the Lands Tribunal for Scotland.
- (2) In any other case a referral under section 88 is to be made to—
 - (a) the First-tier Tribunal,
 - (b) where determined by or under tribunal rules, the Upper Tribunal, or
 - (c) any other court or tribunal specified by the Scottish Ministers by order.
- (3) References to the “appropriate tribunal” in sections 88 and 90 are to be read accordingly.

Completion of enquiry

93 Completion of enquiry

- (1) An enquiry under section 85 is completed—
 - (a) when a designated officer informs the relevant person by a notice (a “closure notice”) that the enquiry is complete and states the conclusions reached in the enquiry, or
 - (b) no closure notice having been given, 3 years after the relevant date.
- (2) A closure notice must be given no later than 3 years after the relevant date.
- (3) A closure notice must either—
 - (a) state that in the officer's opinion no amendment of the tax return is required, or
 - (b) make the amendments of the return required to give effect to the officer's conclusions.
- (4) Where a closure notice is given which makes amendments of a return as mentioned in subsection (3)(b), section 83 does not apply.
- (5) A closure notice takes effect when it is issued.
- (6) The taxpayer must pay any amount, or additional amount, of tax chargeable as a result of an amendment made by a closure notice before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which the notice is given.
- (7) In subsections (1) and (2) “relevant date” has the same meaning as in section 85.

94 Direction to complete enquiry

- (1) The relevant person may apply to the tribunal for a direction that a closure notice is to be given within a specified period.
- (2) The tribunal hearing the application must give a direction unless satisfied that Revenue Scotland has reasonable grounds for not giving a closure notice within that period.
- (3) In this paragraph “the tribunal” means—
 - (a) the First-tier Tribunal, or
 - (b) where determined by or under tribunal rules, the Upper Tribunal.

CHAPTER 5

REVENUE SCOTLAND DETERMINATIONS

95 Determination of tax chargeable if no return made

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) Revenue Scotland has reason to believe that a person (“P”) is chargeable to a devolved tax,
 - (b) P has not made a tax return in relation to that liability, and
 - (c) the relevant filing date has passed.
- (2) “The relevant filing date” means the date by which Revenue Scotland believes a return was required to be made.
- (3) Revenue Scotland may make a determination (a “Revenue Scotland determination”) to the best of its information and belief of the amount of tax to which P is chargeable.
- (4) Notice of the determination must be given to P and must state the date on which it is issued.
- (5) P must pay the tax chargeable as a result of the determination immediately on receipt of notice of the determination.
- (6) No Revenue Scotland determination may be made more than 5 years after the relevant date.
- (7) The relevant date is—
 - (a) the relevant filing date, or
 - (b) such other date as the Scottish Ministers may by order prescribe.

96 Determination to have effect as a self-assessment

- (1) A Revenue Scotland determination has effect for enforcement purposes as if it were a self-assessment made by P.
- (2) In subsection (1) “for enforcement purposes” means for the purposes of Part 10.
- (3) Nothing in this section affects any liability of a person to a penalty for failure to make a tax return.

97 Determination superseded by actual self-assessment

- (1) If, after a Revenue Scotland determination has been made, P makes a tax return with respect to the tax in question, the self-assessment included in that return supersedes the determination.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a return made—
 - (a) more than 5 years after the power to make the determination first became exercisable, or
 - (b) more than 3 months after the date of the determination,whichever is the later.
- (3) Where—
 - (a) proceedings have been begun for the recovery of any tax charged by a Revenue Scotland determination, and
 - (b) before the proceedings are concluded the determination is superseded by a self-assessment,the proceedings may be continued as if they were proceedings for the recovery of so much of the tax charged by the self-assessment as is due and payable and has not yet been paid.

REVENUE SCOTLAND ASSESSMENTS

Assessment of loss of tax or of excessive repayment

98 Assessment where loss of tax

- (1) This section applies if a designated officer comes to the view honestly and reasonably that—
 - (a) an amount of devolved tax that ought to have been assessed as tax chargeable on a person has not been assessed,
 - (b) an assessment of the tax chargeable on a person is or has become insufficient, or
 - (c) relief has been claimed or given that is or has become excessive.
- (2) The designated officer may make an assessment of the amount, or additional amount, that ought in the officer's opinion to be charged in order to make good to the Crown the loss of tax.

99 Assessment to recover excessive repayment of tax

- (1) If an amount of tax has been, but ought not to have been, repaid to a person that amount may be assessed and recovered as if it were unpaid tax.
- (2) If the repayment was made with interest, the amount assessed and recovered may include the amount of interest that ought not to have been paid.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

100 References to “Revenue Scotland assessment”

 - (b) the return was in fact made on the basis prevailing, or in accordance with the practice generally prevailing, at the time it was made.

103 Time limits for Revenue Scotland assessments

- (1) The general rule is that no Revenue Scotland assessment may be made more than 5 years after the relevant date.
- (2) An assessment of a person in any case involving a loss of tax or a situation brought about deliberately by the taxpayer or a related person may be made up to 20 years after the relevant date.
- (3) An assessment under section 99 (assessment to recover excessive repayment of tax) is not out of time if it is made within the period of 12 months beginning with the date on which the repayment in question was made.
- (4) If the taxpayer has died—
 - (a) any assessment on the personal representatives must be made within 3 years after the death, and
 - (b) an assessment is not to be made by virtue of subsection (1) in respect of a relevant date more than 5 years before the death.

Defence of unjustified enrichment

109 Defence to certain claims for relief under section 107 or 108

It is a defence to a claim for relief made under section 107 or 108 that repayment or, as the case may be, discharge of the amount would unjustly enrich the claimant.

110 Unjustified enrichment: further provision

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) there is an amount paid by way of tax which (apart from section 109) would fall to be repaid or discharged to any person (“the taxpayer”), and
 - (b) the whole or a part of the cost of the payment of that amount to Revenue Scotland has, for practical purposes, been borne by a person other than the taxpayer.
- (2) Where, in a case to which this section applies, loss or damage has been or may be incurred by the taxpayer as a result of mistaken assumptions made in the taxpayer’s case about the operation of any provisions relating to a tax, that loss or damage is to be disregarded, except to the extent of the quantified amount, in the making of any determination—
 - (a) of whether or to what extent the repayment or discharge of an amount to the taxpayer would enrich the taxpayer, or
 - (b) of whether or to what extent any enrichment of the taxpayer would be unjust.
- (3) In subsection (2) “the quantified amount” means the amount (if any) which is shown by the taxpayer to constitute the amount that would appropriately compensate the taxpayer for loss or damage shown by the taxpayer to have resulted, for any business carried on by the taxpayer, from the making of the mistaken assumptions.
- (4) The reference in subsection (2) to provisions relating to a tax is a reference to any provisions of—
 - (a) any enactment, subordinate legislation or EU legislation (whether or not still in force) which relates to that tax or to any matter connected with it, or
 - (b) any notice published by Revenue Scotland under or for the purposes of any such enactment or subordinate legislation.

111 Unjustified enrichment: reimbursement arrangements

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision for reimbursement arrangements made by any person to be disregarded for the purposes of section 109 except where the arrangements—
 - (a) contain such provision as may be required by the regulations, and
 - (b) are supported by such undertakings to comply with the provisions of the arrangements as may be required by the regulations to be given to Revenue Scotland.
- (2) In this section “reimbursement arrangements” means any arrangements for the purposes of a claim under section 107 or 108 which—
 - (a) are made by any person for the purpose of securing that the person is not unjustly enriched by the repayment or discharge of any amount in pursuance of the claim, and
 - (b) provide for the reimbursement of persons who have for practical purposes borne the whole or any part of the cost of the original payment of that amount to Revenue Scotland.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) above, the provision that may be required by regulations under this section to be contained in reimbursement arrangements includes—
 - (a) provision requiring a reimbursement for which the arrangements provide to be made within such period after the repayment to which it relates as may be specified in the regulations,
 - (b) provision for the repayment of amounts to Revenue Scotland where those amounts are not reimbursed in accordance with the arrangements,
 - (c) provision requiring interest paid by Revenue Scotland on any amount repaid by it to be treated in the same way as that amount for the purposes of any requirement under the arrangements to make reimbursement or to repay Revenue Scotland,
 - (d) provision requiring such records relating to the carrying out of the arrangements as may be described in the regulations to be kept and produced to Revenue Scotland, or to a designated officer.
- (4) Regulations under this section may impose obligations on such persons as may be specified in the regulations—
 - (a) to make the repayments to Revenue Scotland that they are required to make in pursuance of any provisions contained in any reimbursement arrangements by virtue of subsection (3)(b) or (c),
 - (b) to comply with any requirements contained in any such arrangements by virtue of subsection (3)(d).
- (5) Regulations under this section may make provision for the form and manner in which, and the times at which, undertakings are to be given to Revenue Scotland in accordance with the regulations and any such provision may allow for those matters to be determined by Revenue Scotland in accordance with the regulations.

112 Reimbursement arrangements: penalties

- (1) Regulations under section 111 may make provision for penalties where a person breaches an obligation imposed by virtue of section 111(4).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) The regulations may in particular make provision including provision—
 - (a) about the circumstances in which a penalty is payable,
 - (b) about the amounts of penalties,
 - (c) for fixed penalties, daily penalties and penalties calculated by reference to the amount of repayments which the person would have been liable to make to Revenue Scotland if the obligation had been breached,
 - (d) about the procedure for issuing penalties,
 - (e) about appealing penalties,
 - (f) about enforcing penalties.
- (3) But the regulations may not create criminal offences.
- (4) Regulations made by virtue of this section may amend any enactment (including this Act).

- (6) Case E is where the claimant knew, or ought reasonably to have known, of the grounds for the claim before the latest of the following—

 - (b) the date on which the claimant withdrew a relevant appeal to a court or tribunal,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (5) The powers in this section also apply after a decision of a tribunal or a court in relation to the penalty.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

178 Reasonable excuse for failure to make return or pay tax

- (1) If P satisfies Revenue Scotland or (on appeal) the tribunal that there is a reasonable excuse for a failure to make a return, liability to a penalty under sections 159 to 167 does not arise in relation to that failure.
- (2) If P satisfies Revenue Scotland or (on appeal) the tribunal that there is a reasonable excuse for a failure to make a payment, liability to a penalty under sections 168 to 173 does not arise in relation to that failure.
- (3) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2)—
 - (a) an insufficiency of funds is not a reasonable excuse unless attributable to events outside P's control,
 - (b) where P relies on any other person to do anything, that is not a reasonable excuse unless P took reasonable care to avoid the failure, and
 - (c) where P had a reasonable excuse for the failure but the excuse has ceased, P is to be treated as having continued to have the excuse if the failure is remedied without unreasonable delay after the excuse ceased.

179 Assessment of penalties under Chapter 2

- (3) An assessment of a penalty under this Chapter—
 - (a) is to be treated for enforcement purposes as an assessment to tax, and
 - (b) may be combined with an assessment to tax.
- (4) In relation to penalties under sections 159 to 167—
 - (a) a supplementary assessment may be made in respect of a penalty if an earlier assessment operated by reference to an underestimate of the liability to tax which would have been shown in a return,
 - (b) a replacement assessment may be made in respect of a penalty if an earlier assessment operated by reference to an overestimate of the liability to tax which would have been shown in a return.
- (5) In relation to penalties under sections 168 to 173—
 - (a) a supplementary assessment may be made in respect of a penalty if an earlier assessment operated by reference to an underestimate of an amount of tax which was owing,
 - (b) if an assessment in respect of a penalty is based on an amount of tax owing that is found by Revenue Scotland to be excessive, Revenue Scotland may by notice to P amend the assessment so that it is based on the correct amount.
- (6) An amendment made under subsection (5)(b)—
 - (a) does not affect when the penalty must be paid,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (b) may be made after the last day on which the assessment in question could have been made under section 180.

180 Time limit for assessment of penalties under Chapter 2

- (1) An assessment of a penalty under this Chapter in respect of any amount must be made on or before the later of date A and (where it applies) date B.
- (2) Date A is the last day of the period of 2 years beginning with—

 - (b) in the case of failure to pay tax—
 - (i) the end of the appeal period for the assessment of the amount of tax in respect of which the penalty is assessed, or
 - (ii) if there is no such assessment, the date on which that amount of tax is ascertained.
- (4) In subsection (3)(a)(i) and (b)(i) “appeal period” means the period during which—

CHAPTER 3

PENALTIES RELATING TO INACCURACIES

Penalties for inaccuracies in taxpayer documents

182 Penalty for inaccuracy in taxpayer document

- (1) A penalty is payable by a person (“P”) where—
 - (a) P gives Revenue Scotland a document of a kind mentioned in the table below, and
 - (b) conditions A and B below are met.
- (2) Condition A is that the document contains an inaccuracy which amounts to, or leads to—
 - (a) an understatement of a liability to tax,
 - (b) a false or inflated statement of a loss, exemption or relief, or
 - (c) a false or inflated claim for relief or to repayment of tax.
- (3) Condition B is that the inaccuracy was—
 - (a) deliberate on P’s part (“a deliberate inaccuracy”), or
 - (b) careless on P’s part (“a careless inaccuracy”).
- (4) An inaccuracy is careless if it is due to a failure by P to take reasonable care.
- (5) An inaccuracy in a document given by P to Revenue Scotland, which was neither deliberate nor careless on P’s part when the document was given, is to be treated as careless if P—
 - (a) discovered the inaccuracy at some later time, and
 - (b) did not take reasonable steps to inform Revenue Scotland.
- (6) Where a document contains more than one inaccuracy, a penalty is payable for each inaccuracy.

- (1) This section sets out the penalty payable under section 182.
- (2) For a deliberate inaccuracy, the penalty is 100% of the potential lost revenue.
- (3) For a careless inaccuracy, the penalty is 30% of the potential lost revenue.
- (4) In this section and sections 185 and 186 “potential lost revenue” has the meaning given in sections 187 to 190.

184 Suspension of penalty for careless inaccuracy under section 182

- (1) Revenue Scotland may suspend all or part of a penalty for a careless inaccuracy under section 182 by notice to P.
- (2) A notice must specify—
 - (a) what part of the penalty is to be suspended,
 - (b) a period of suspension not exceeding 2 years, and
 - (c) conditions of suspension to be complied with by P.
- (3) Revenue Scotland may suspend all or part of a penalty only if compliance with a condition of suspension would help P to avoid becoming liable to further penalties under section 182 for careless inaccuracy.
- (4) A condition of suspension may specify—
 - (a) action to be taken,
 - (b) a period within which it may be taken.
- (5) On the expiry of the period of suspension—
 - (a) if P satisfies Revenue Scotland that the conditions of suspension have been complied with, the suspended penalty or part is cancelled, and
 - (b) otherwise, the suspended penalty or part becomes payable.
- (6) If, during the period of suspension of all or part of a penalty under section 182, P becomes liable for another penalty under that section, the suspended penalty or part becomes payable.

Penalty for inaccuracy attributable to another person

185 Penalty for inaccuracy in taxpayer document attributable to another person

- (1) A penalty is payable by a person (“T”) where—
 - (a) another person (“P”) gives Revenue Scotland a document of a kind mentioned in the table in section 182,
 - (b) the document contains a relevant inaccuracy, and
 - (c) the inaccuracy was attributable—
 - (i) to T deliberately supplying false information to P (whether directly or indirectly), or
 - (ii) to T deliberately withholding information from P,with the intention of the document containing the inaccuracy.
- (2) A “relevant inaccuracy” is an inaccuracy which amounts to, or leads to—
 - (a) an understatement of a liability to tax,
 - (b) a false or inflated statement of a loss, exemption or relief, or
 - (c) a false or inflated claim for relief or to repayment of tax.
- (3) A penalty is payable by T under this section in respect of an inaccuracy whether or not P is liable to a penalty under section 182 in respect of the same inaccuracy.
- (4) The penalty payable under this section is 100% of the potential lost revenue.

Penalty for failure to notify under-assessment

186 Penalty for failure to notify under-assessment

- (1) A penalty is payable by a person (“P”) where—
 - (a) a Revenue Scotland assessment understates P’s liability to a devolved tax, and
 - (b) P has failed to take reasonable steps to notify Revenue Scotland, within the period of 30 days beginning with the date of the assessment, that it is an under-assessment.
- (2) In deciding what steps (if any) were reasonable, Revenue Scotland must consider—
 - (a) whether P knew, or should have known, about the under-assessment, and
 - (b) what steps it would have been reasonable to take to notify Revenue Scotland.
- (3) The penalty payable under this section is 30% of the potential lost revenue.
- (4) In this section—
 - (a) “Revenue Scotland assessment” includes “Revenue Scotland determination”, and
 - (b) accordingly, references to an under-assessment include an under-determination.

Penalties under Chapter 3: general

187 Potential lost revenue: normal rule

- (1) The “potential lost revenue” in respect of—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) an inaccuracy in a document (including an inaccuracy attributable to a supply of false information or withholding of information), or
 - (b) a failure to notify an under-assessment,
- is the additional amount due and payable in respect of tax as a result of correcting the inaccuracy or under-assessment.

- (2) The reference in subsection (1) to the additional amount due and payable includes a reference to—
- (a) an amount payable to Revenue Scotland having been erroneously paid by way of repayment of tax, and
 - (b) an amount which would have been repayable by Revenue Scotland had the inaccuracy or assessment not been corrected.

188 Potential lost revenue: multiple errors

- (1) Where P is liable to a penalty under section 182 in respect of more than one inaccuracy, and the calculation of potential lost revenue under section 187 in respect of each inaccuracy depends on the order in which they are corrected, careless inaccuracies are to be taken to be corrected before deliberate inaccuracies.
- (2) In calculating potential lost revenue where P is liable to a penalty under section 182 in respect of one or more understatements in one or more documents relating to a tax period, account is to be taken of any overstatement in any document given by P which relates to the same tax period.
- (3) In subsection (2)—
- (a) “understatement” means an inaccuracy that meets condition A in section 182, and
 - (b) “overstatement” means an inaccuracy that does not meet that condition.
- (4) For the purpose of subsection (2) overstatements are to be set against understatements in the following order—
- (a) understatements in respect of which P is not liable to a penalty,
 - (b) careless understatements,
 - (c) deliberate understatements.
- (5) In calculating for the purposes of a penalty under section 182 potential lost revenue in respect of a document given by or on behalf of P, no account is to be taken of the fact that a potential loss of revenue from P is or may be balanced by a potential overpayment by another person (except to the extent that an enactment requires or permits a person’s tax liability to be adjusted by reference to P’s).

189 Potential lost revenue: losses

- (1) Where an inaccuracy has the result that a loss is wrongly recorded for purposes of a devolved tax and the loss has been wholly used to reduce the amount due and payable in respect of tax, the potential lost revenue is calculated in accordance with section 187.
- (2) Where an inaccuracy has the result that a loss is wrongly recorded for purposes of a devolved tax and the loss has not been wholly used to reduce the amount due and payable in respect of tax, the potential lost revenue is—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) the potential lost revenue calculated in accordance with section 187 in respect of any part of the loss that has been used to reduce the amount due and payable in respect of tax, plus
 - (b) 10% of any part that has not.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) apply both—
- (a) to a case where no loss would have been recorded but for the inaccuracy, and
 - (b) to a case where a loss of a different amount would have been recorded (but in that case subsections (1) and (2) apply only to the difference between the amount recorded and the true amount).
- (4) The potential lost revenue in respect of a loss is nil where, because of the nature of the loss or P’s circumstances, there is no reasonable prospect of the loss being used to support a claim to reduce a tax liability (of any person).

190 Potential lost revenue: delayed tax

- (1) Where an inaccuracy resulted in an amount of tax being declared later than it should have been (“the delayed tax”), the potential lost revenue is—
- (a) 5% of the delayed tax for each year of the delay, or
 - (b) a percentage of the delayed tax, for each separate period of delay of less than a year, equating to 5% per year.
- (2) This section does not apply to a case to which section 189 applies.

- (a) ability to pay, or
 - (b) the fact that a potential loss of revenue from one taxpayer is balanced by a potential over-payment by another.
- (3) In subsection (1) the reference to reducing a penalty includes a reference to—
- (a) remitting a penalty entirely,
 - (b) suspending a penalty, and
 - (c) agreeing a compromise in relation to proceedings for a penalty.
- (4) In this section references to a penalty include references to any interest in relation to the penalty.
- (5) The powers in this section also apply after a decision of a tribunal or a court in relation to the penalty.

192 Reduction in penalty under this Chapter for disclosure

- (1) Revenue Scotland may reduce a penalty under this Chapter where a person makes a qualifying disclosure.
- (2) A “qualifying disclosure” means disclosure of—
- (a) an inaccuracy,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (b) a supply of false information or withholding of information, or
 - (c) a failure to disclose an under-assessment.
- (3) A person makes a qualifying disclosure by—
- (a) telling Revenue Scotland about it,
 - (b) giving Revenue Scotland reasonable help in quantifying the inaccuracy, the inaccuracy attributable to the supply of false information or withholding of information, or the under-assessment, and
 - (c) allowing Revenue Scotland access to records for the purpose of ensuring that the inaccuracy, the inaccuracy attributable to the supply of false information or withholding of information, or the under-assessment is fully corrected.
- (4) Reductions under this section may reflect—
- (a) whether the disclosure was prompted or unprompted, and
 - (b) the quality of the disclosure.
- (5) Disclosure of relevant information—
- (a) is “unprompted” if made at a time when the person making it has no reason to believe that Revenue Scotland has discovered or is about to discover the inaccuracy, the supply of false information or withholding of information, or the under-assessment, and
 - (b) otherwise, is “prompted”.
- (6) In relation to disclosure, “quality” includes timing, nature and extent.

193 Assessment of penalties under this Chapter

- (1) Where a person becomes liable to a penalty under this Chapter, Revenue Scotland must—
- (a) assess the penalty,
 - (b) notify the person, and
 - (c) state in the notice the period in respect of which the penalty is assessed.
- (2) A penalty under this Chapter must be paid before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which notification of the penalty is issued.
- (3) An assessment of a penalty under this Chapter—
- (a) is to be treated for enforcement purposes as an assessment to tax, and
 - (b) may be combined with an assessment to tax.
- (4) An assessment of a penalty under section 182 or 185 must be made before the end of the period of 12 months beginning with—
- (a) the end of the appeal period for the decision correcting the inaccuracy, or
 - (b) if there is no assessment to the tax concerned within paragraph (a), the date on which the inaccuracy is corrected.
- (5) An assessment of a penalty under section 186 must be made before the end of the period of 12 months beginning with—
- (a) the end of the appeal period for the assessment of tax which corrected the understatement, or
 - (b) if there is no assessment within paragraph (a), the date on which the understatement is corrected.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (6) In subsections (4) and (5) “appeal period” means the period during which—
 - (a) an appeal could be brought, or
 - (b) an appeal that has been brought has not been determined or withdrawn.

Penalties: failure to comply with time limit

200 Failure to comply with time limit

A failure by a person to do anything required to be done within a limited period of time does not give rise to liability to a penalty under section 195 or 196 if the person did it within such further time (if any) as a designated officer may have allowed.

Penalties under Chapter 4: general

201 Reasonable excuse for failure to comply or obstruction

- (1) Liability to a penalty under section 195 or 196 does not arise if the person satisfies Revenue Scotland or (on appeal) the tribunal that there is a reasonable excuse for the failure or the obstruction of a designated officer or of a person authorised by the officer.
- (2) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) an insufficiency of funds is not a reasonable excuse unless attributable to events outside the person's control,
 - (b) where the person relies on another person to do anything, that is not a reasonable excuse unless the first person took reasonable care to avoid the failure or obstruction, and
 - (c) where the person had a reasonable excuse for the failure or obstruction but the excuse has ceased, the person is to be treated as having continued to have the excuse if the failure is remedied, or the obstruction stops, without unreasonable delay after the excuse ceased.

202 Assessment of penalties under sections 195, 196 and 197

- (1) Where a person becomes liable for a penalty under section 195, 196 or 197 Revenue Scotland must—

 - (c) if notice of such an appeal is given, the date on which the appeal is determined or withdrawn.
- (4) An assessment of a penalty under section 197 must be made—
- (a) within the period of 12 months beginning with the date on which the inaccuracy first came to the attention of a designated officer, and

 - (c) the person has been told that an application may be made under this section for an increased daily penalty to be imposed.
- (2) If this section applies, a designated officer may make an application to the tribunal for an increased daily penalty to be imposed on the person.
- (3) If the tribunal decides that an increased daily penalty should be imposed, then for each applicable day on which the failure continues—
- (a) the person is not liable to a penalty under section 196 for the failure, and
 - (b) the person is liable instead to a penalty under this section of an amount determined by the tribunal.

- (4) The tribunal may not determine an amount exceeding £1,000 for each applicable day.

 - (d) before the end of the period of 12 months beginning with the relevant date, a designated officer makes an application to the Upper Tribunal for an additional penalty to be imposed on the person, and
 - (e) the Upper Tribunal decides that it is appropriate for an additional penalty to be imposed.
- (2) The person is liable to a penalty of an amount decided by the Upper Tribunal.
- (3) In deciding the amount of the penalty, the Upper Tribunal must have regard to the amount of tax which has not been, or is not likely to be, paid by the person.
- (4) Where a person becomes liable to a penalty under this section, Revenue Scotland must notify the person.
- (5) Any penalty under this section is in addition to the penalty or penalties under section 195 or 196.

OTHER ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES

Penalties for failure to register for tax etc.

209 Penalty for failure to register for tax etc.

- (1) A penalty is payable by a person (“P”) where—
 - (a) P fails to comply with a requirement imposed by or under section 22 or 23 of the LT(S) Act 2014 (“a relevant requirement”), and
 - (b) the failure was—

- (i) deliberate on P’s part (“a deliberate failure”), or
 - (ii) careless on P’s part (“a careless failure”).
- (2) A failure is careless if it is due to a failure by P to take reasonable care.
- (3) A failure by P to comply with a relevant requirement, which was neither deliberate nor careless on P’s part at an earlier time, is to be treated as careless if P—
- (a) discovered the failure at some later time, and
 - (b) did not take reasonable steps to inform Revenue Scotland.
- (4) Section 210 sets out the penalty under this section.

210 Amount of penalty for failure to register for tax etc.

- (1) This section sets out the penalty payable under section 209.
- (2) For a deliberate failure, the penalty is 100% of the potential lost revenue.
- (3) For a careless failure, the penalty is 30% of the potential lost revenue.
- (4) In the case of a relevant requirement relating to Scottish landfill tax, the potential lost revenue is the amount of the tax (if any) for which P is liable for the period—
- (a) beginning on the date with effect from which P is required in accordance with that requirement to be registered, and
 - (b) ending on the date on which Revenue Scotland received notification of, or otherwise became fully aware of, P’s liability to be registered.
- (5) In calculating potential lost revenue in respect of a failure to comply with a relevant requirement on the part of P no account is to be taken of the fact that a potential loss of revenue from P is or may be balanced by a potential over-payment by another person.

Penalties under Chapter 5: general

211 Interaction of penalties under section 209 with other penalties

The amount of a penalty for which P is liable under section 209 is to be reduced by the amount of any other penalty incurred by P (other than a penalty under Chapter 2), if the amount of the penalty is determined by reference to the same liability to tax.

212 Reduction in penalty under section 209 for disclosure

- (1) Revenue Scotland may reduce a penalty under section 209 where P discloses a failure to comply with a relevant requirement (“a relevant failure”).
- (2) P discloses a relevant failure by—
- (a) telling Revenue Scotland about it,
 - (b) giving Revenue Scotland reasonable help in quantifying any tax unpaid by reason of it, and
 - (c) allowing Revenue Scotland access to records for the purpose of checking how much tax is so unpaid.
- (3) Reductions under this section may reflect—
- (a) whether the disclosure was prompted or unprompted, and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

(b) the quality of the disclosure.

(4) Disclosure of a relevant failure—

(a) is “unprompted” if made at a time when P has no reason to believe that Revenue Scotland has discovered or is about to discover the failure, and

(b) otherwise, is “prompted”.

(5) In relation to disclosure, “quality” includes timing, nature and extent.

213 Special reduction in penalty under section 209

(1) Revenue Scotland may reduce a penalty under section 209 if it thinks it right to do so because of special circumstances.

(a) remitting a penalty entirely,

(b) suspending a penalty, and

(c) agreeing a compromise in relation to proceedings for a penalty.

(4) In this section references to a penalty include references to any interest in relation to the penalty.

(5) The powers in this section also apply after a decision of a tribunal or a court in relation to the penalty.

214 Reasonable excuse for failure to register for tax etc.

(1) If P satisfies Revenue Scotland or (on appeal) the tribunal that there is a reasonable excuse for a failure to comply with a relevant requirement, liability to a penalty under section 209 does not arise in relation to that failure.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)—

(a) an insufficiency of funds is not a reasonable excuse unless attributable to events outside P’s control,

(b) where P relies on any other person to do anything, that is not a reasonable excuse unless P took reasonable care to avoid the failure, and

(c) where P had a reasonable excuse for the failure but the excuse has ceased, P is to be treated as having continued to have the excuse if the failure is remedied without unreasonable delay after the excuse ceased.

215 Assessment of penalties under section 209

(1) Where P becomes liable to a penalty under section 209, Revenue Scotland must—

(a) assess the penalty,

(b) notify P, and

(c) state in the notice the period in respect of which the penalty is assessed.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) A penalty under section 209 must be paid before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which the notification of the penalty is issued.
- (3) An assessment of a penalty under section 209—
 - (a) is to be treated for enforcement purposes as an assessment to tax, and
 - (b) may be combined with an assessment to tax.
- (4) An assessment of a penalty under section 209 must be made within the period of 12 months beginning with—
 - (a) the end of the appeal period for the assessment of tax unpaid by reason of the failure to comply with the relevant requirement in respect of which the penalty is assessed, or
 - (b) if there is no such assessment, the date on which the amount of tax unpaid by reason of the failure is ascertained.
- (5) In subsection (4) “appeal period” means the period during which—
 - (a) an appeal could be brought, or
 - (b) an appeal that has been brought has not been determined or withdrawn.
- (6) Subject to subsection (4), a supplementary assessment may be made in respect of a penalty if an earlier assessment operated by reference to an underestimate of potential lost revenue.

216 Power to change penalty provisions in Chapter 5

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision (or further provision) about penalties under this Chapter.
