74 Arrangements on still-birth

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) a still-birth occurs other than in consequence of the termination of a woman's pregnancy by virtue of section 1(1)(b), (c) or (d) of the Abortion Act 1967, and
 - (b) it appears to the appropriate health body that no arrangements have been or are being made by virtue of section 72(2) for the remains of the fetus to be buried or cremated.
- (2) The nearest relative of the still-born child may make arrangements for the remains of the still-born child to be buried or cremated.
- (3) The nearest relative, in relation to the still-born child, is the person who immediately before the still-birth was—
- (a) the still-born child's parent,
 - (b) the still-born child's brother or sister,
 - (c) the still-born child's grandparent,
 - (d) the still-born child's uncle or aunt,
 - (e) the still-born child's cousin,
 - (f) the still-born child's niece or nephew.
- (4) The nearest relative—
- (a) may authorise the appropriate health body to make arrangements for the remains of the still-born child to be buried or cremated—
 - (i) in a way specified by the nearest relative, or
 - (ii) in a way specified by the body, but
 - (b) otherwise may not authorise any other person to make arrangements for the remains of the still-born child to be buried or cremated.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4)(a), the appropriate health body must inform the nearest relative if it would not be reasonably practicable for the body to arrange for the remains to be buried or cremated in a particular way.
- (6) The appropriate health body must keep a record of prescribed information.
- (7) Relationships in different paragraphs of subsection (3) rank in the order of those paragraphs and for the purposes of that subsection a relationship of the half-blood is to be treated as a relationship of the whole blood.
- (8) Where more than one person falls within a paragraph of subsection (3)—
- (a) each such person ranks equally for the purpose of the paragraph, and
 - (b) either (or any) person falling within the paragraph may be the nearest relative.

81 Individual authorised to make arrangements

- (1) This section applies if an individual is authorised under section 79(2)(b) to make arrangements for the remains of a fetus to be buried or cremated.
- (2) If the individual does not wish to make the arrangements—
 - (a) the individual may authorise the appropriate health authority to make arrangements for the remains to be buried or cremated—
 - (i) in a way specified by the individual, or
 - (ii) in a way specified by the authority, but
 - (b) otherwise may not authorise any other person to make arrangements for the remains to be buried or cremated.
- (3) If by virtue of section 79(2)(b)(i) the individual is authorised to make arrangements for the remains to be buried or cremated in a way specified by the woman, the individual must specify that way under subsection (2)(a)(i).
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2)(a), the appropriate health authority must inform the individual if it would not be reasonably practicable for the authority to arrange for the remains to be buried or cremated in a particular way.
- (5) If an appropriate health authority is authorised by an individual under subsection (2)(a), it must—
 - (a) record the authorisation in the prescribed form, and
 - (b) take reasonable steps to secure the individual's signature.
- (6) Subsection (7) applies if—
 - (a) under section 79(7)(a) or 80(4)(a) the appropriate health authority has recorded a decision under section 79(2)(b) to authorise an individual, and
 - (b) the individual—
 - (i) does not inform the authority that the individual has made arrangements for the remains to be buried or cremated, and
 - (ii) does not authorise the authority under subsection (2)(a) to make those arrangements.
- (7) The appropriate health authority must—
 - (a) record those facts in the prescribed form, and
 - (b) take reasonable steps to secure the individual's signature.
- (8) In this section, “appropriate health authority” has the meaning given by section 79(9).

83 Appropriate health authority authorised to make arrangements

- (1) This section applies where by virtue of section 79(2)(c), 80(2) or 81(2)(a) an appropriate health authority is authorised to make arrangements for remains to be buried or cremated.
- (2) After the expiry of the 7-day period, the appropriate health authority—
 - (a) must make arrangements for the remains to be buried or cremated, and
 - (b) if by virtue of section 79(2)(c)(i), 80(2) or 81(2)(a)(i) it is authorised to do so in a specified way, must do so in that way.
- (3) Subsections (4) and (5) apply if the person who authorised the appropriate health authority to make the arrangements for the disposal of the remains informs the authority that the person has decided that the authority may make the arrangements before the expiry of the 7-day period.
- (4) The appropriate health authority must—
 - (a) record the person's decision in the appropriate form, and
 - (b) take reasonable steps to secure the person's signature.
- (5) The appropriate health authority—
 - (a) may make arrangements for the remains to be buried or cremated before the expiry of the 7-day period, and
 - (b) if by virtue of section 79(2)(c)(i), 80(2) or 81(2)(a)(i) it is authorised to do so in a specified way, must do so in that way.
- (6) In this section—

“7-day period” means the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which authorisation is given by virtue of section 79(2)(c), 80(2) or 81(2)(a),

84 Duty of appropriate health authority

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) section 79(1) applies in relation to a woman,

Status: Point in time view as at 04/04/2019. This version of this part contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Burial and Cremation (Scotland) Act 2016, PART 3. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the relevant period has expired, and
 - (c) it appears to the appropriate health authority that no arrangements have been or are being made by virtue of section 79, 80 or 81 for the remains of the fetus to be buried or cremated.
- (2) As soon as is reasonably practicable after the expiry of the relevant period, the appropriate health authority must consider whether it would be in the best interests of the woman for the authority to contact the woman for the purpose of seeking to establish—
- (a) whether the woman wishes to decide who should make arrangements for the remains to be buried or cremated, and
 - (b) in the event that the woman would wish to authorise the authority to make those arrangements, whether the woman would wish to specify the way in which the authority should make the arrangements.
- (3) If the appropriate health authority determines by virtue of subsection (2) that it would not be in the best interests of the woman for the authority to contact her for the purpose mentioned in that subsection, the authority may make arrangements for the remains to be buried or cremated.
- (4) If the appropriate health authority determines by virtue of subsection (2) that it would be in the best interests of the woman for the authority to contact her for the purpose mentioned in that subsection, the authority must take reasonable steps to contact the woman for that purpose.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies if by virtue of subsection (2)—
- (a) the appropriate health authority is authorised by the woman to make arrangements for the remains to be buried or cremated, and
 - (b) the woman has specified the way in which the authority should make those arrangements.
- (6) The authority may—
- (a) make arrangements for the remains to be buried or cremated, and
 - (b) except where it would not be reasonably practicable to do so, must do so in the way specified by the woman.
- (7) Subsection (8) applies if, at any time after having contacted or taken reasonable steps to contact the woman under subsection (4), it appears to the appropriate health authority—
- (a) that no arrangements have been or are being made for the remains to be buried or cremated, and
 - (b) that in all the circumstances of the case it would be in the woman's best interests for the authority to make those arrangements.
- (8) The authority may make arrangements for the remains to be buried or cremated.
- (9) In this section—
- “appropriate health authority” has the meaning given by section 79(9),

Local authority functions

87 Burial or cremation: duty of local authority

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a person dies or is found dead within the area of a local authority, and
 - (b) it appears to the authority that no arrangements have been or are being made under section 65(2) or 66(2) or otherwise for the remains to be buried or cremated.

Status: Point in time view as at 04/04/2019. This version of this part contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Burial and Cremation (Scotland) Act 2016, PART 3. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The local authority must make arrangements for the remains to be buried or cremated (but subject to subsections (3) and (4)).
- (3) If the person is a child who, immediately before the death, was being looked after by another local authority, that other local authority must make arrangements for the remains to be buried or cremated.
- (4) If the person is not a child and, immediately before the death, the person was in the care of, or receiving assistance from, another local authority, that other local authority must make arrangements for the remains to be buried or cremated.
- (5) In making arrangements under subsection (2), (3) or (4), the local authority must, so far as known to the authority, have regard to—
 - (a) any wishes that the person expressed as to means of disposal of the person's remains, and
 - (b) whether the person was of a particular religion or belief.
- (6) The local authority may recover from the estate of the person expenses incurred under subsection (2), (3) or (4).
- (7) In this section—
 - “belief” has the meaning given by section 10(2) of the Equality Act 2010,
 - “child” has the meaning given by section 93(2)(a) of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995,
 - “religion” has the meaning given by section 10(1) of the Equality Act 2010.
