General

3.—(1) Costs in respect of work done in relation to a diversionary youth conference under a criminal aid certificate granted under Article 28A of the Order, or in relation to attendance at a court-ordered youth conference under a criminal aid certificate granted under Articles 28, 29 or 30 of the Order, shall be paid by way of standard fees determined by the Commission in accordance with these Rules.

(2) Any costs payable to a solicitor or counsel under these Rules in relation to attendance at a court-ordered youth conference shall be paid together with those costs which are payable to that solicitor or counsel under rule 10 of the Legal Aid in Criminal Proceedings (Costs) Rules (Northern Ireland) 1992<sup>(4)</sup> in respect of the court proceedings for the offence in question.

Claims for costs by solicitors

4.—(1) Subject to rule 9, no claim by a solicitor for costs in respect of work done under a criminal aid certificate in respect of a youth conference shall be entertained unless the solicitor submits it within three months of the conclusion of the proceedings to which the criminal aid certificate relates.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), a claim for costs shall be submitted to the Commission in such form and manner as the Lord Chancellor may direct and shall be accompanied by the criminal aid certificate.

(3) A claim shall state the dates on which the youth conference took place, the time taken where appropriate, the sums claimed and whether the work was done for more than one assisted person.

(4) Where there are any special circumstances which should be drawn to the attention of the Commission, the solicitor shall specify them.

(5) The solicitor shall supply such further particulars, information and documents as the Commission may require.

Determination of solicitors' fees

5.—(1) The Commission shall consider the claim, any further particulars, information or documents submitted by the solicitor under rule 4 and any other relevant information, including such information which it may have received from the youth conference co-ordinator regarding the duration and participants at the youth conference.

(2) Subject to paragraph (1), the Commission shall allow fees for work allowed by it under this rule in accordance with Schedule 1.

(4) S.R. 1992 No. 314, to which there are amendments not relevant to these Rules

Claims for fees by counsel

6.—(1) Subject to rule 9, no claim by counsel for fees for work done under a criminal aid certificate in respect of a youth conference shall be entertained unless counsel submits it within three months of the conclusion of the proceedings to which the criminal aid certificate relates.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), a claim for fees shall be submitted to the Commission in such form and manner as the Lord Chancellor may direct.

(3) A claim shall state the dates on which the youth conference took place, the time taken where appropriate, the sums claimed and whether the work was done for more than one assisted person.

(4) Where there are any special circumstances which should be drawn to the attention of the Commission, counsel shall specify them.

(5) Counsel shall supply such further particulars, information and documents as the Commission may require.

Determination of counsel's fees

7.—(1) The Commission shall consider the claim, any further particulars, information or documents submitted by counsel under rule 6 and any other relevant information, including such information which it may have received from the youth conference co-ordinator regarding the duration and participants at the youth conference.

(2) Subject to paragraph (1), the Commission shall allow fees for work allowed by it under this rule in accordance with Schedule 2.

Payment of costs

8.—(1) Having determined the costs payable to a solicitor or counsel in accordance with these Rules, the Commission shall, subject to rule 3(2), notify the solicitor or counsel of the costs so determined and authorise payment accordingly.

(2) Where the costs payable under paragraph (1) are increased as a result of a review pursuant to these Rules, the Commission shall, subject to rule 3(2), authorise payment of the increase.

(3) Any payment in respect of counsel's fees determined under rule 7 shall be paid to counsel direct.

Time limits

9.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the time limit within which a solicitor's or counsel's claim is required to be submitted under rule 4(1) or rule 6(1) may, for good reason, be extended by the Commission.

(2) Where a solicitor or counsel without good reason has failed (or, if an extension were not granted, would fail) to comply with a time limit referred to in paragraph (1), the Commission may, in exceptional circumstances, extend the time limit and shall consider whether it is reasonable in the circumstances to reduce the costs; provided that costs shall not be reduced unless the solicitor or counsel has been allowed reasonable opportunity to show cause orally or in writing why the costs should not be reduced.

SCHEDULE 1

Rule 5

Solicitors' Fees

STANDARD FEES FOR YOUTH CONFERENCES

Allowance of standard fees

1.—(1) The Commission shall allow the standard fee for the youth conference which has been claimed by a solicitor (together with the appropriate standard fee for travelling and waiting) unless –

- (a) where the principal standard fee has been claimed, the conference lasted no more than one hour in which case the lower standard fee shall be allowed, or
- (b) where a fee in excess of the principal standard fee has been claimed, in which case (if the conference lasted in excess of two hours) an additional fee of £44.75 per hour shall be allowed.

(2) A solicitor who has been allowed a lower fee than that claimed may –

- (a) accept the lower fee, or
- (b) request the Commission in writing to review its decision.

(3) Where the Commission is requested to review its decision under sub-paragraph (2)(b), the Commission shall either –

- (a) allow the fee claimed; or
- (b) request the solicitor to provide a detailed claim in the form directed by the Commission, and then redetermine the solicitor's fees.

(4) Where a solicitor fails to make a request under sub-paragraph (2)(b) or to supply a detailed claim for the purpose of sub-paragraph (3)(b) within 6 weeks of the decision to allow the lower fee or the request to supply a detailed claim, whichever is the later, the decision to allow the lower fee shall be deemed to be confirmed.

Standard fees

2.—(1) The classes of work for which standard fees shall be payable are those specified in sub-paragraph (2).

(2) The classes of work specified for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) are –

- (a) all preparation work (since the date of grant of the criminal aid certificate under Article 28A of the Order) and attendance at a diversionary youth conference;
- (b) attendance at a court-ordered youth conference;
- (c) travelling and waiting.

(3) The standard fees payable under this Schedule are the fees specified in the Tables below.

An apprentice or a pupil to solicitor or fee-earner of equivalent experience	£12.50 per hour

(4) Subject to sub-paragraph (5), fees for attendance at a youth conference shall be paid as specified in the above Tables in respect of the period of time beginning 15 minutes before the case was listed for the first occasion and ending –

- (a) where the client was present at the youth conference, 15 minutes after the conference finally ended, or
- (b) where the client failed to attend, when the meeting ended on that day, and, save in exceptional circumstances, shall not be payable during any luncheon adjournment.

(5) Where a solicitor attends a youth conference centre for the purposes of more than one case, the solicitor may claim the waiting fee in respect of the second or subsequent case only for the time actually spent waiting in addition to the time for which payment is made under sub-paragraph (4).

(6) Where a solicitor acts for more than one child, the Commission shall allow whichever of the appropriate standard fees is the greater and increase that fee by 20% for each additional child, but no percentage increase shall be made to the standard fee for travelling and waiting.

(7) Where a solicitor acts for a child in respect of more than one proceeding which is dealt with by way of a youth conference, the Commission shall allow whichever of the appropriate standard fees is the greater and increase that fee by 20% for each additional proceeding as the case may be.

Review

3. Irrespective of any dispute under paragraph 1 as to whether the principal standard fee should have been allowed instead of the lower standard fee, where a solicitor contends that the provisions of paragraph 2(6) or (7) have been incorrectly applied, he may, within 6 weeks of receipt of notification of the decision, make a written request setting out his reasons why the decision should be reviewed and, if the Commission confirms its decision, written reasons shall be given.

SCHEDULE 2

Rule 7

Counsel's Fees

STANDARD FEES FOR YOUTH CONFERENCES

Allowance of standard fees

1.—(1) The Commission shall allow the standard fee for the youth conference which has been claimed by counsel (together with the appropriate standard fee for travelling) unless –

- (a) where the principal standard fee has been claimed, the conference lasted no more than one hour in which case the lower standard fee shall be allowed, or
- (b) where a fee in excess of the principal standard fee has been claimed, in which case (if the conference lasted in excess of two hours) an additional fee of £29.25 per hour shall be allowed.

(2) Counsel who has been allowed a lower fee than that claimed may –

- (a) accept the lower fee; or
- (b) request the Commission in writing to review its decision.

(3) Where the Commission is requested to review its decision under sub-paragraph (2)(b), the Commission shall either –

- (a) allow the fee claimed; or
- (b) request the counsel to provide a detailed claim in the form directed by the Commission, and then redetermine counsel's fees.

(4) Where counsel fails to make a request under sub-paragraph (2)(b) or to supply a detailed claim for the purpose of sub-paragraph (3)(b) within 6 weeks of the decision to allow the lower fee or the request to supply a detailed claim, whichever is the later, the decision to allow the lower fee shall be deemed to be confirmed.

Standard fees

2.—(1) The classes of work for which standard fees shall be payable are those specified in sub-paragraph (2).

(2) The classes of work specified for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) are –

- (a) all preparation work (since the date of grant of the criminal aid certificate under Article 28A of the Order) and attendance at a diversionary youth conference;
- (b) attendance at a court-ordered youth conference;
- (c) travelling.

(3) The standard fees payable under this Schedule are the fees specified in the Tables below.
