EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Fair Employment Tribunal (Rules of Procedure) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2005 (S.R. 2005 No. 151) (“the 2005 Regulations”), the most substantive amendments to which have previously been made by S.R. 2005 No. 579.

The Regulations make consequential amendments arising out of the Employment Act (Northern Ireland) 2011, which repeals aspects of the statutory dispute resolution procedures introduced under Part 4 the Employment (Northern Ireland) Order 2003 and makes changes in respect of conciliation by the Labour Relations Agency. Additionally, the Regulations make procedural changes to tribunal practice, including in relation to responses, default judgements, matters to be heard without a hearing and withdrawal of proceedings, as well as applying minor clarifications to the main Regulations.

Regulation 2(5) makes changes to the procedure specified under rule 4 of Schedule 1 to the 2005 Regulations which is used by the Fair Employment Tribunal when considering the acceptance of a response to a claim.

Regulation 2(7) amends rule 7 to modify the procedure relating to default judgements.

Regulation 2(11) adds a new rule 21A, to provide for the automatic dismissal of proceedings following receipt of notification that the Labour Relations Agency has concluded a conciliated settlement of the case.

Regulation 2(12) provides that a preliminary consideration of an application under rule 29 to review a default judgement can take place without a hearing, and that the parties may consent in writing to the review of the application taking place without a hearing.

Regulation 3 provides for transitional arrangements in relation to these Regulations. Paragraph (1) harmonises arrangements for the repeal of aspects of the statutory dispute resolution procedures in the Employment (Northern Ireland) Order 2003 with the similar provisions of the Employment Act (Northern Ireland) 2011 (Commencement No. 1, Transitional Provisions and Savings) Order (Northern Ireland) 2011 (S.R. 2011 No. 159 (C. 8)). Paragraphs (2) to (4) provide for transitional arrangements in relation to default judgements, the automatic dismissal of proceedings where a Labour Relations Agency settlement has been reached and the power of a chairman to review a default judgement on his own initiative.

An impact assessment dealing with policy changes taken forward in the Employment Act (Northern Ireland) 2011, aspects of which these Regulations implement in relation to the Fair Employment Tribunal, is available from the Department for Employment and Learning, Adelaide House, 39-49 Adelaide Street, Belfast BT2 8FD or from www.delni.gov.uk.
