SCHEDULE 1

Paragraph 2(4)

Form O3	Form of notice to be served on defender in ordinary action where time to pay direction or time order may be applied for
Rule 3.3(3), 7.3(2) and 18.5(1)(a)	ACTION RAISED BY
	PURSUER	DEFENDER
	AT	SHERIFF COURT
	(Including address)
	COURT REF. NO.
	DATE OF EXPIRY OF PERIOD OF NOTICE THIS SECTION MUST BE COMPLETED BY THE PURSUER BEFORE SERVICE
	(1) Time to pay directions The Debtors (Scotland) Act 1987 gives you the right to apply to the court for a “time to pay direction” which is an order permitting you to pay any sum of money you are ordered to pay to the pursuer (which may include interest and court expenses) either by way of instalments or deferred lump sum. A deferred lump sum means that you must pay all the amount at one time within a period specified by the court. When making a time to pay direction the court may recall or restrict an arrestment made on your property by the pursuer in connection with the action or debt (for example, your bank account may have been frozen).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

	(2) Time Orders The Consumer Credit Act 1974 allows you to apply to the court for a “time order” during a court action, to ask the court to give you more time to pay a loan agreement. A time order is similar to a time to pay direction, but can only be applied for where the court action is about a credit agreement regulated by the Consumer Credit Act. The court has power to grant a time order in respect of a regulated agreement to reschedule payment of the sum owed. This means that a time order can change: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the amount you have to pay each month</li> <li>• how long the loan will last</li> <li>• in some cases, the interest rate payable</li> </ul> A time order can also stop the creditor taking away any item bought by you on hire purchase or conditional sale under the regulated agreement, so long as you continue to pay the instalments agreed.
	HOW TO APPLY FOR A TIME TO PAY DIRECTION OR TIME ORDER WHERE YOU ADMIT THE CLAIM AND YOU DO NOT WANT TO DEFEND THE ACTION <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The appropriate application forms are attached to this notice. If you want to make an application you should lodge the completed application with the sheriff clerk at the above address before the expiry of the period of notice, the date of which is given above. No court fee is payable when lodging the application.</li> <li>2. Before completing the application please read carefully the notes on how to complete the application. In the event of difficulty you may contact the court’s civil department at the address above or any sheriff clerk’s office, solicitor, Citizens Advice Bureau or other advice agency. Written guidance can also be obtained from the Scottish Court Service website (www.scotcourts.gov.uk).</li> </ol>
	NOTE Where this form is being served on a defender along with Form O9 (notice to additional defender) the reference to “date of expiry of period of notice” should be amended to “date for lodging of defences or an application for a time to pay direction or time order” and the reference to “before the expiry of the period of notice” should be amended to “on or before the date for lodging of defences or an application for a time to pay direction or time order”.

	WHAT WILL HAPPEN NEXT
	If the pursuer objects to your application, a hearing will be fixed and the court will advise you in writing of the date and time. If the pursuer does not object to your application, a copy of the court order for payment (called an extract decree) will be served on you by the pursuer's solicitor advising when instalment payments should commence or deferred payment be made.

SCHEDULE 2

Paragraph 3(5)

Form 5	Form of notice to be served on defender where time to pay direction or time order may be applied for
Rule 2.7(6) and 2.22(2)(b)	ACTION RAISED BY
	PURSUER	DEFENDER
	AT	SHERIFF COURT
	(Including address)
	COURT REF. NO.
	THIS SECTION MUST BE COMPLETED BY THE PURSUER BEFORE SERVICE
	(1) Time to pay directions The Debtors (Scotland) Act 1987 gives you the right to apply to the court for a “time to pay direction” which is an order permitting you to pay any sum of money you are ordered to pay to the pursuer (which may include interest and court expenses) either by way of instalments or deferred lump sum. A deferred lump sum means that you must pay all the amount at one time within a period specified by the court. When making a time to pay direction the court may recall or restrict an arrestment made on your property by the pursuer in connection with the action or debt (for example, your bank account may have been frozen).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

	(2) Time Orders The Consumer Credit Act 1974 allows you to apply to the court for a “time order” during a court action, to ask the court to give you more time to pay a loan agreement. A time order is similar to a time to pay direction, but can only be applied for where the court action is about a credit agreement regulated by the Consumer Credit Act. The court has power to grant a time order in respect of a regulated agreement to reschedule payment of the sum owed. This means that a time order can change: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the amount you have to pay each month</li> <li>• how long the loan will last</li> <li>• in some cases, the interest rate payable</li> </ul> A time order can also stop the creditor taking away any item bought by you on hire purchase or conditional sale under the regulated agreement, so long as you continue to pay the instalments agreed.
	HOW TO APPLY FOR A TIME TO PAY DIRECTION OR TIME ORDER WHERE YOU ADMIT THE CLAIM AND YOU DO NOT WANT TO DEFEND THE ACTION <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The appropriate application forms are attached to this notice. After completing the appropriate form it should be returned to the Sheriff Court at least fourteen days before the date of the first hearing or expiry of the period of notice or otherwise, as the case may be, in the warrant of citation. The address of the court is shown on page 1 of the application. No court fee is payable when lodging the application.</li> <li>2. Before completing the application please read carefully the notes on how to complete the application. In the event of difficulty you may contact the court’s civil department at the address above or any sheriff clerk’s office, solicitor, Citizens Advice Bureau or other advice agency. Written guidance can also be obtained from the Scottish Court Service website (www.scotcourts.gov.uk).</li> </ol>
	WHAT WILL HAPPEN NEXT
	If the pursuer objects to your application, a hearing will be fixed and the court will advise you in writing of the date and time. If the pursuer does not object to your application, a copy of the court order for payment (called an extract decree) will be served on you by the pursuer’s solicitor advising when instalment payments should commence or deferred payment be made.

RETURN DAY	20
CALLING DATE	20	at	am.

NOTE: The pursuer should complete boxes 1 to 6 on page 1, the statement of claim in box 7 on page 2 and section A on page 6 before service on the defender. The person serving the Summons will complete box 8, above.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

WHAT MUST I DO ABOUT THIS SUMMONS?

The RETURN DAY (on page 1 of this summons) is the deadline by which you need to reply to the court. You must send the correct forms back (see below for details) by this date if you want the court to hear your case. If you do not do this, in most cases there will not be a hearing about your case and the court will make a decision in your absence.

The CALLING DAY (on page 1 of this summons) is the date for the court hearing.

Note: If your case is about recovery of possession of heritable property (eviction) there will be a hearing even if you do not send back the forms, so you should attend court on the calling date. If you make an application for time to pay in such a case and the court accepts your application, it may still make an order for eviction, so you should attend court if you wish to defend the action for eviction.

You should decide whether you wish to dispute the claim and/or whether you owe any money or not, and how you wish to proceed. Then, look at the 5 options listed below. Find the one that covers your decision and follow the instructions given there.

If you are not sure what you need to do, contact the sheriff clerk's office before the return day. Written guidance can also be obtained from the Scottish Court Service website (www.scotcourts.gov.uk).

OPTIONS

1. ADMIT LIABILITY FOR THE CLAIM and settle it with the pursuer now.

If you wish to avoid the possibility of a court order passing against you, you should settle the claim (including any question of expenses) with the pursuer or his representative in good time before the return day. Please do not send any payment direct to the court. Any payment should be made to the pursuer or his representative.

2. ADMIT LIABILITY FOR THE CLAIM and make written application to pay by instalments or by deferred lump sum.

Complete Box 1 of section B on page 6 of this form and return pages 6, 8 and 9 to the court to arrive on or before the return day. You should then contact the court to find out whether or not the pursuer has accepted your offer. If he has not accepted it, the case will then call in court on the calling date, when the court will decide how the amount claimed is to be paid.

NOTE: If you fail to return pages 6, 8 and 9 as directed, or if, having returned them, you fail to attend or are not represented at the calling date if the case is to call, the court may decide the claim in your absence.

3. ADMIT LIABILITY FOR THE CLAIM and attend at court to make application to pay by instalments or deferred lump sum.

Complete Box 2 on page 6. Return page 6 to the court so that it arrives on or before the return day.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

You must attend personally, or be represented, at court on the calling date. Your representative may be a Solicitor, or someone else having your authority. It may be helpful if you or your representative bring pages 1 and 2 of this form to the court.

NOTE: If you fail to return page 6 as directed, or if, having returned it, you fail to attend or are not represented at the calling date, the court may decide the claim in your absence.

4. DISPUTE THE CLAIM and attend at court to do any of the following:

- Challenge the jurisdiction of the court or the competency of the action
- Defend the action (whether as regards the sum claimed or otherwise)
- State a counterclaim

Complete Box 3 on page 6. Return page 6 to the court so that it arrives on or before the return day. You must attend personally, or be represented, at court on the calling date.

Your representative may be a solicitor, or someone else having your authority. It may be helpful if you or your representative bring pages 1 and 2 of this form to the court.

NOTE: If you fail to return page 6 as directed, or if, having returned it, you fail to attend or are not represented at the calling date, the court may decide the claim in your absence.

WRITTEN NOTE OF PROPOSED DEFENCE

You must send to the court by the return day a written note of any proposed defence, or intimate that you intend to dispute the sum claimed or wish to dispute the court's jurisdiction. You must also attend or be represented at court on the calling date.

5. ADMIT LIABILITY FOR THE CLAIM and make written application for a time order under the Consumer Credit Act 1974.

Complete Box 4 on page 6 and return pages 6 and 10 to 12 to the court to arrive on or before the return day. You should then contact the court to find out whether or not the pursuer has accepted your offer. Where you have been advised that the pursuer has not accepted your offer then the case will call in court on the calling date. You should appear in court on the calling date as the court will decide how the amount claimed is to be paid.

NOTE: If you fail to return pages 6 and 10 to 12 as directed, or if, having returned them, you fail to attend or are not represented at the calling date if the case is to call, the court may decide the claim in your absence.

PLEASE NOTE

If you do nothing about this summons, the court will almost certainly, where appropriate, grant decree against you and order you to pay the pursuer the sum claimed, including any interest and expenses found due.

YOU ARE ADVISED TO KEEP PAGES 1 AND 2, AS THEY MAY BE USEFUL AT A LATER STAGE OF THE CASE.

Notes:

(1) Time to pay directions

The Debtors (Scotland) Act 1987 gives you the right to apply to the court for a “time to pay direction”. This is an order which allows you to pay any sum which the court orders you to pay either in instalments or by deferred lump sum. A “deferred lump sum” means that you will be ordered by the court to pay the whole amount at one time within a period which the court will specify.

If the court makes a time to pay direction it may also recall or restrict any arrestment made on your property by the pursuer in connection with the action or debt (for example, your bank account may have been frozen).

No court fee is payable when making an application for a time to pay direction.

If a time to pay direction is made, a copy of the court order (called an extract decree) will be sent to you by the pursuer telling you when payment should start or when it is you have to pay the lump sum.

If a time to pay direction is not made, and an order for immediate payment is made against you, an order to pay (called a charge) may be served on you if you do not pay.

(2) Determination of application

Under the 1987 Act, the court is required to make a time to pay direction if satisfied that it is reasonable in the circumstances to do so, and having regard in particular to the following matters—

- The nature of and reasons for the debt in relation to which decree is granted
- Any action taken by the creditor to assist the debtor in paying the debt
- The debtor’s financial position
- The reasonableness of any proposal by the debtor to pay that debt
- The reasonableness of any refusal or objection by the creditor to any proposal or offer by the debtor to pay the debt.

(3) Time Orders

The Consumer Credit Act 1974 allows you to apply to the court for a “time order” during a court action, to ask the court to give you more time to pay a loan agreement. A time order is similar to a time to pay direction, but can only be applied for where the court action is about a credit agreement regulated by the Consumer Credit Act. The court has power to grant a time order in respect of a regulated agreement to reschedule payment of the sum owed. This means that a time order can change:

- the amount you have to pay each month
- how long the loan will last
- in some cases, the interest rate payable

A time order can also stop the creditor taking away any item bought by you on hire purchase or conditional sale under the regulated agreement, so long as you continue to pay the instalments agreed.

No court fee is payable when making an application for a time order.

WHAT MUST I DO ABOUT THIS SUMMONS?

The RETURN DAY (on page 1 of this summons) is the deadline by which you need to reply to the court. You must send the correct forms back (see below for details) by this date if you want the court to hear your case. If you do not do this, in most cases there will not be a hearing about your case and the court will make a decision in your absence.

The HEARING DATE (on page 1 of this summons) is the date for the court hearing.

You should decide whether you wish to dispute the claim, admit liability for the claim and whether you owe any money or not, and how you wish to proceed. Then, look at the 5 options listed below. Find the one that covers your decision and follow the instructions given there.

If you are not sure what you need to do, contact the sheriff clerk's office before the return day. Written guidance can also be obtained from the Scottish Court Service website (www.scotcourts.gov.uk).

OPTIONS

1. ADMIT LIABILITY FOR THE CLAIM and settle it with the pursuer now.

If you wish to avoid the possibility of a court order passing against you, you should settle the claim (including any question of expenses) with the pursuer or his representative in good time before the return day. Please do not send any payment direct to the court. Any payment should be made to the pursuer or his representative.

2. ADMIT LIABILITY FOR THE CLAIM and make written application to pay by instalments or by deferred lump sum.

Complete Box 1 of section B on page 7 of this form and return pages 7, 9 and 10 to the court to arrive on or before the return day. You should then contact the court to find out whether or not the pursuer has accepted your offer. If he has not accepted it, the case will then call in court on the calling date, when the court will decide how the amount claimed is to be paid.

If your claim is for delivery, or implement of an obligation, and you wish to pay the alternative amount claimed, you may also wish to make an application about the method of payment. If so, follow the instructions in the previous paragraph.

NOTE: If you fail to return pages 7, 9 and 10 as directed, or if, having returned them, you fail to attend or are not represented at the calling date if the case is to call, the court may decide the claim in your absence.

3. ADMIT LIABILITY FOR THE CLAIM and attend at court to make application to pay by instalments or deferred lump sum.

Complete Box 2 on page 7. Return page 7 to the court so that it arrives on or before the return day.

If the claim for delivery, or implement of an obligation, you may wish to pay the alternative amount claimed and attend at court to make an application about the method of payment.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

You must attend personally, or be represented, at court on the hearing date. Your representative may be a solicitor, or someone else having your authority. It may be helpful if you or your representative bring pages 1 and 2 of this form to the court.

NOTE: If you fail to return page 7 as directed, or if, having returned it, you fail to attend or are not represented at the hearing date, the court may decide the claim in your absence.

4. DISPUTE THE CLAIM and attend at court to do any of the following:

- Challenge the jurisdiction of the court
- State a defence
- State a counterclaim
- Dispute the amount of the claim

Complete Box 3 on page 7. Return page 7 to the court so that it arrives on or before the return day. You must attend personally, or be represented, at court on the hearing date.

Your representative may be a solicitor, or someone else having your authority. It may be helpful if you or your representative bring pages 1 and 2 of this form to the court.

NOTE: If you fail to return page 7 as directed, or if, having returned it, you fail to attend or are not represented at the hearing date, the court may decide the claim in your absence.

WRITTEN NOTE OF PROPOSED COUNTERCLAIM

You must send to the court a written note of any counterclaim. If you do, you should also send a copy to the pursuer. You must also attend or be represented at court on the hearing date.

5. ADMIT LIABILITY FOR THE CLAIM and make written application for a time order under the Consumer Credit Act 1974.

Complete Box 4 on page 8 and return pages 7 and 8 and 11 to 13 to the court to arrive on or before the return day. You should then contact the court to find out whether or not the pursuer has accepted your offer. Where you have been advised that the pursuer has not accepted your offer then the case will call in court on the hearing date. You should appear in court on the hearing date as the court will decide how the amount claimed is to be paid.

NOTE: If you fail to return pages 8 and 9 and 11 to 13 as directed, or if, having returned them, you fail to attend or are not represented at the hearing date, if the case is to call, the court may decide the claim in your absence.

PLEASE NOTE

If you do nothing about this summons, the court will almost certainly, where appropriate, grant decree against you and order you to pay the pursuer the sum claimed, including any interest and expenses found due.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

If the summons is for delivery, or implement of an obligation, the court may order you to deliver the article or perform the duty in question within a specified period. If you fail to do so, the court may order you to pay to the pursuer the alternative amount claimed, including interest and expenses.

YOU ARE ADVISED TO KEEP PAGES 1 AND 2, AS THEY MAY BE USEFUL AT A LATER STAGE OF THE CASE.

Notes

(1) Time to pay directions

The Debtors (Scotland) Act 1987 gives you the right to apply to the court for a “time to pay direction”. This is an order which allows you to pay any sum which the court orders you to pay either in instalments or by deferred lump sum. A “deferred lump sum” means that you will be ordered by the court to pay the whole amount at one time within a period which the court will specify.

If the court makes a time to pay direction it may also recall or restrict any arrestment made on your property by the pursuer in connection with the action or debt (for example, your bank account may have been frozen).

No court fee is payable when making an application for a time to pay direction.

If a time to pay direction is made, a copy of the court order (called an extract decree) will be sent to you by the pursuer telling you when payment should start or when it is you have to pay the lump sum.

If a time to pay direction is not made, and an order for immediate payment is made against you, an order to pay (called a charge) may be served on you if you do not pay.

(2) Determination of application

Under the 1987 Act, the court is required to make a time to pay direction if satisfied that it is reasonable in the circumstances to do so, and having regard in particular to the following matters—

- The nature of and reasons for the debt in relation to which decree is granted
- Any action taken by the creditor to assist the debtor in paying the debt
- The debtor’s financial position
- The reasonableness of any proposal by the debtor to pay that debt
- The reasonableness of any refusal or objection by the creditor to any proposal or offer by the debtor to pay the debt.

(3) Time Orders

The Consumer Credit Act 1974 allows you to apply to the court for a “time order” during a court action, to ask the court to give you more time to pay a loan agreement. A time order is similar to a time to pay direction, but can only be applied for where the court action is about a credit agreement regulated by the Consumer Credit Act. The court has power to grant a time order in respect of a regulated agreement to reschedule payment of the sum owed. ## EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Act of Sederunt)

This Act of Sederunt makes various amendments to the Ordinary Cause Rules, the Summary Application Rules, the Summary Cause Rules, the Small Claim Rules and the 1988 Rules.

Paragraphs 2 to 6 amend the rules in relation to applications for time to pay directions and time orders by:

- (a) inserting a new rule 3.2A into the Ordinary Cause Rules which requires, in actions relating to regulated agreements under the Consumer Credit Act 1974, that the initial writ includes a specific averment that such an agreement exists and details of the agreement (paragraph 2(2));
- (b) providing in the Ordinary Cause Rules and Summary Application Rules for intimation of a copy of an application for a time to pay direction or time order to the pursuer and for a form of response where the pursuer applies for a time to pay direction or a time order (paragraphs 2(3) and 3(3));
- (c) providing in each set of Rules for separate forms of application for time to pay directions and time orders (paragraphs 2(4), 3(3), 4(4) and 5(4));
- (d) amending rule 2.22(2) of the Summary Application Rules to increase the period for lodging an application for a time to pay direction or time order from 7 to 14 days before the diet fixed for the hearing of the summary application or the expiry of the period of notice (paragraph 3(3));
- (e) inserting new provision into the Summary Cause Rules and Small Claim Rules to require the sheriff clerk to intimate a copy of an application for a time to pay direction or time order to the pursuer and to increase the period for the pursuer lodging his response to such an application from 2 to 9 days before the calling date (paragraphs 4(3) and 5(3));
- (f) substituting in the Summary Cause Rules and Small Claim Rules new forms 1a (summons) providing more detailed guidance in the defender's copy summons in relation to applying for time to pay directions and time orders (paragraphs 4(4) and 5(4));
- (g) substituting in the Summary Cause and Small Claim Rules a new form of minute for a pursuer opposing an application for a time to pay direction or a time order (paragraphs 4(5) and 5(5)).

Paragraph 7 amends the period between the return day and calling date in summary cause actions and between the return day and hearing date in small claim actions from 7 to 14 days.

Paragraph 8 updates Form 2 in the 1988 Rules (form of application for a time to pay order).

Paragraph 9(2) amends Form 43 in those Rules (application for a conjoined arrestment order) to provide for details of the debtor's place of employment to be given and for an averment that the debtor was given a debt advice and information package. Paragraph 9(3) to (5) amends Forms 45 (conjoined arrestment order), 46 (notice of service of conjoined arrestment order) and 51 (notice of service of an order varying a conjoined arrestment order) to provide instructions to the employer to notify the sheriff clerk if the debtor ceases to be employed by him and to provide details of the new employer, if known.

Paragraphs 10 to 13 make other minor amendments to the Ordinary Cause, Summary Cause, Small Claim Rules and the 1988 Rules.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Paragraphs 14 and 15 insert rules into the Ordinary Cause Rules and the Summary Cause Rules setting out procedure for the dismissal of actions due to delay on the part of another party in progressing the action. Such applications are made by motion in actions proceeding under the Ordinary Cause Rules and by incidental application in actions proceeding under the Summary Cause Rules. Provision is made for the other party to lodge a notice of opposition to the motion or application. The court may dismiss the action if it considers that the delay has been inordinate or inexcusable and has resulted in unfairness.

Paragraph 16 amends a rule in the Ordinary Cause Rules regarding the insolvency or death of a cautioner or guarantor, to reflect the introduction of powers under the Banking Act 2009 to obtain orders in respect of failing banks or building societies.

Paragraph 17 amends the definition of “Her Majesty’s Forces” in Chapter 2 of the Child Care and Maintenance Rules 1997 in consequence of the Armed Forces Act 2006.

Paragraph 18 inserts a new Part XXXVIII into Chapter 3 of the Summary Application Rules. This new Part provides a new rule 3.38 relating to applications to the sheriff for variation, renewal or recall of foreign travel restriction orders under Schedule 5 of the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008.
