

Convocations of the Clergy Measure 1920

1920 No. 1 10 and 11 Geo 5

A measure passed by the National Assembly of the Church of England Declaring the power of each of the Convocations of Canterbury and York to amend the constitution of the Lower House thereof. [23rd December 1920]

Whereas by the constitution of the National Assembly of the Church of England as defined in the^{M1} Church of England Assembly (Powers) Act 1919 it is provided that the said Assembly shall before entering on any other legislative business make further provision for the self-government of the Church by passing through the Assembly (inter alia) a measure declaring that the Convocations of Canterbury and York have power by Canon lawfully passed and promulgated to amend the constitution of the Lower Houses thereof:

Marginal Citations

M1 1919 c. 76.

1 Power of Convocations to reform the constitution of their Lower Houses.

It is hereby declared that the Convocation of each of the Provinces has power with His Majesty's Royal Assent and Licence to make promulge and execute Canons for the amendment of the constitution of the Lower House thereof.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 Power of Convocations under this section vested in General Synod by canons in pursuance of Synodical Government Measure 1969 \(No. 2\) s. 1(5)(a)

2 Short title.

This Measure may be cited as the Convocations of the Clergy Measure 1920.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Convocations of the Clergy Measure 1920.