

Greater Nottingham Light Rapid Transit Act 1994

1994 CHAPTER xv

PART I

PRELIMINARY

2 Interpretation

- (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, the several words and expressions to which meanings are assigned by the Acts wholly or partly incorporated herewith have the same respective meanings, and—

“the Act of 1845” means the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act 1845;

“the Act of 1965” means the Compulsory Purchase Act 1965;

“the Act of 1991” means the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991;

“the Act of 1993” means the Railways Act 1993;

“the authorised railways” means the railways authorised by this Act, including, where the context so admits, any railway adapted for use as part of the LRT system under section 17 (Agreements with British Railways Board) of this Act;

“the authorised works” means the works (including railways) authorised by this Act;

“the City” means the City of Nottingham;

“the City Council” means the Nottingham City Council;

“the County Council” means Nottinghamshire County Council;

“enactment” means any enactment, whether public general or local, and includes any order, byelaw, rule, regulation, scheme or other instrument having effect by virtue of an enactment;

“existing” means existing at the commencement of this Act;

“land” includes land covered by water, any interest in land and any easement or right in, to or over land;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

“the limits of deviation” mean the limits so shown on the deposited plans and, where, in the case of a work in any street, no such limits are shown for that work, the boundaries of the street (including any verge or roadside waste adjoining it);

“the LRT system” means the light rail transit system comprising the authorised railways including such railways designated as tramways, and all works and conveniences provided in connection with any of those railways, as that system is constructed, extended or altered from time to time;

“the railways board” means the British Railways Board or, as the case may require, any person who pursuant to the Act of 1993 succeeds (whether before or after the date of this Act) to any functions of the British Railways Board, or any other person who derives title to any property from the British Railways Board or such successor and holds that property for railway purposes;

“the rivers authority” means the National Rivers Authority;

“statutory undertakers” means any of the following, namely a licence holder within the meaning of Part I of the Electricity Act 1989, a public gas supplier within the meaning of Part I of the Gas Act 1986, a sewerage undertaker or a water undertaker;

“street” has the meaning given by section 329 of the Highways Act 1980 and in sections 19 to 22 of this Act includes a bridleway, cycle track or footpath as defined in the said section 329;

“telecommunication system” has the meaning given by section 4 of the Telecommunications Act 1984;

“traffic sign” has the meaning given by section 64 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984;

“tramcar” means any vehicle (whether or not used for the carriage of passengers) carried on flanged wheels on any railway forming part of the LRT system;

“tramway” means any railway, or any part of a railway, authorised by this Act and thereby designated as a tramway;

“the tribunal” means the Lands Tribunal;

“the undertakers” means the County Council and the City Council or either of them.

- (2) In the case of any street in relation to which an order made under section 249 (2) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (a pedestrian planning order) is in force, the kerbline of the street, where there is no kerb, shall be taken to be the edge of the part of the street on which the passage of vehicles is permitted.
- (3) Unless the context otherwise requires, any reference in this Act to a work identified by the number of the work shall be construed as a reference to the work of that number authorised by this Act.
- (4) References in this Act to points identified by letters, with or without numbers, shall be construed as references to the points so marked on the deposited plans.
- (5) (a) Except as mentioned in paragraph (b) below, all distances and lengths stated in any description of works, powers or lands shall be construed as if the words “or thereabouts” were inserted after each such distance and length, and distances between points on a railway shall be taken to be measured along the railway.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (b) This subsection does not apply to distances or lengths stated in the following provisions of this Act:—
 - section 13 (Power to deviate);
 - section 15 (Gauge of railways and restrictions on working);
 - paragraph (7) of section 45 (For protection of certain statutory undertakers).
- (6) Any reference in this Act to rights over land includes reference to the right to do, or to place and maintain, anything in, on or under the land, or in the air space above its surface.
- (7) References in this Act to access to any place include egress from that place.
